CHARLES (BUD) MARTIN

Klamath Man In Recital
Charles (Buddy) Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Martin, Klamath Falls, recently was featured in a senior recital at the Willamette University college of music in Salem. He was accompanied by Barbara Gerston.
Young Martin will graduate Monday from the school, where he served as drum major for three years, president of the school band, president of Baxter Hall and secretary of the choir.
Young Martin plans to go to the Yoncalla, in Douglas county, where he has received an appointment as supervisor of music.
In his recital, Martin included such numbers as Schubert's "The Shepherd on the Rock", Rimsky-Korsakoff's "Oriental Song" and Rhapsody in G Minor, by Brahms.

Choir Concert Sunday Night

Three choirs of the Peace Memorial Presbyterian church will present a choir concert at the church Sunday at 8 p.m. A junior choir of 30 voices is under the direction of Mrs. Robert Davies, the junior-high choir of 25 voices is under the direction of Mrs. Earl Sheridan, and Carl Hagel directs the adult choir of 25 voices. Each choir will include solos in their presentations. Rev. Dwaine Proett will play several numbers on the new church organ which is to be dedicated at that time. The public is invited.

Art Workshop Plans Pushed

The Fourth Annual Klamath Art Workshop is scheduled to run from July 7 to Aug. 1 this year, according to Pres. Lorraine Johnson of the Klamath Art Association. Instructors are to be Louis Bunnell, Portland artist who recently was represented in the Metropolitan Museum's "American Painting, 1950" exhibition and the exclusive Whitney Museum annual, and Roy W. Mallery, Eugene designer. The workshop is held under the sponsorship of the art association, in cooperation with the state system of higher education. This year all-day classes—as well as night classes—will feature instruction in painting techniques, graphics, and crafts. One or all of the courses may be taken by interested persons, and full state-approved credit will be given if requested. Low-cost housing is available at Oregon Technical Institute.

HER BACK BROKEN when she fell off a horse last Friday, Tribby Treat, 19, of Route 3 Box 409, is making a remarkable recovery at Klamath Valley Hospital. She may be able to go home within a few days but will have to wear a cast for some months.

Bible School Starts Monday

First Baptist Church under vacation Bible school gets under way Monday at 9 a.m. for boys and girls from three to 17 years old inclusive. Included in the program are Bible stories, Bible stories, character stories, missionary stories, singing, arts and crafts, plus outside activities. Dr. E. M. Causey, pastor of the church, will act as the school principal. Other workers include: Mrs. E. M. Causey, intermediate department superintendent, will supervise Mrs. Ben McCollom, Mrs. William Nolen, Mrs. Joe Dunson, and Mrs. D. O. Roller. Junior department superintendent is Mrs. Jack Gray, and helpers include Mrs. Norman Jones, Mrs. Elmer Bates, Mrs. Eva Alley, Mrs. B. M. Robinson, Mrs. Beth Owens, and Mrs. Berl Dennis. Primary department superintendent is Mrs. Lloyd Higdon, and helpers are Mrs. Art Robinson, Mrs. Kathryn Hargis and Mrs. George Vinson. Mrs. Ed Boothby is department superintendent of the beginners, and will receive help from Mrs. T. C. Carson, Jr., Mrs. Fred Tedrick, Mrs. Lee Fish, Mrs. Jack Coleman, Carol Causey, and Mrs. D. C. Pearce. Mrs. L. Weinberg will head the nursery department, with help from Mrs. E. M. Tucker, Mrs. David Jones, and Mrs. Jewel Austin. Mrs. Faye Rutherford and Mrs. W. D. Kelley will be in charge of refreshments.

Pool to Open In Lakeview

LAKEVIEW — Lakeview's new swimming pool will be dedicated here tomorrow afternoon, with Oregon's Secy. of State Earl T. Newby as dedication speaker. The opening is being held at the same time as Lakeview Merchant's Show at Gary's Skate Rance. Members of the Multnomah Athletic Club (Portland) swimming and diving team will present an exhibition at the new pool, and the public will initiate it later with an open swim from 4 to 8 p. m. Recreations is slated for 2 p. m. Regular summer swimming program gets underway Sunday.

Grads Urged To Get SS

June graduates of colleges, high schools and vocational schools have been urged to apply for Social Security account numbers and cards immediately by Mr. Don Sutcliffe of the local Social Security office. He advised students not graduating this year but planning to work anyway to apply also. He said most prospective employers will not hire persons without them. He said that employees receiving pay without an account number, or crediting an incorrect number will lose all social security benefits for family and individual later, or the benefits may be smaller. He invited all persons needing help to call at the social security office in the Postoffice building.

Strike Peace Hopes Dim

SAN FRANCISCO — Hopes were dim Friday for settlement of the West Coast strike of AFL sailors over the holiday weekend. The Pacific Maritime Association, representing shipowners, rejected its meetings on the walkout until Monday. Thirty-five vessels at San Francisco, Portland, Seattle and Los Angeles are strikebound by Harry Lundeberg's Sailors Union of the Pacific.

Horse Throws, Injures Boys

Two boys were hurt just before dark Thursday when a horse they were riding threw them against a pickup truck and then rolled on them. They were Kenneth Hudson, 15, 4334 Astin, and Gilbert Robles, 16, The Hudson boy apparently received a badly injured hip and both were knocked out for a few minutes. The incident occurred at Sturdivant and Summers Lane. An 11-year-old boy, Frank Edwards, 5533 Miller, underwent an emergency appendectomy late Thursday night at Klamath Valley Hospital. Roy Gooding of Gooding Poultry Farm, Pine Grove, was brought to Hillside Hospital Thursday night for medical treatment.

Church Names New Leader

ALBANY, Ore. — Some 270 commissioners of the United Presbyterian Church elected Dr. James Leon Kelso of Pittsburgh moderator at the 1952 assembly here Thursday night. A professor at the church's Pittsburgh - Zenia seminary, Dr. Kelso succeeds Dr. Kyle George of Youngstown, O. Dr. John E. Simpson of the United Presbyterian Magazine, reported that church membership now numbers 300,000 with some 200 ministers in foreign missions. The assembly of the denomination, which originated here, will continue through June 5.
