MR. AND MRS. LAWRENCE BERTRAM—announce the engagement of their daughter, Helen, to Albert E. Wampler Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wampler, Rocky Point. The Bertrams are former Klamath Falls residents, now living in Phoenix, Arizona. The affianced are both graduates of KUHS, and Wampler was a student at the University of California at Davis. The engagement was announced at a luncheon in the Pelican Party Room May 27, given by the bride-elect's mother. No date has been set for the wedding. —Photo by Ferebee

REFLECTIONS FROM Milly's Mirror

By PENNY HOWIE Guest Editor

EVERYWHERE I GO — I hear people joyously discussing this wonderful weather—and at last being able to get to Lake of the Woods—The dust you see on the horizon is being made by the Carroll Columns—the nice majors and many other folks eager to get their cabins in order for the summer season.

KAREN TOTTON — Joan and Dave's young daughter — left this week for San Jose to visit her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Rahr. The Rahr family were one-time Klamath residents, and their many friends here will be happy to learn that they intend visiting our sunny basin this summer.

"KASSIE" BLACK INSISTED — on celebrating her sixth birthday at Moore Park Wednesday — she wanted a cowboy picnic so "Doc" and Ruth cheerfully complied.

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT MEST — flew May 13 to Allentown, Pa., to visit Bob's folks. They took Judy, Bobby and Patsy along. These youngsters should get a first-hand view of the USA since they hope to drive back.

THE BROAD GRIN — Laurence Brown has been wearing these past days was finally explained—His son Laurence Jr., is graduating from Annapolis this week and Larry flew back for the event.

PROUD AS CAN BE—Ms. J. C. Murphy—432 North 10th — Her daughter Joan has just been graduated from Mt. St. Mary's in Los Angeles. Julianne, Dan and Joan are new home for the holidays and the roof on their house is jumping!

ARRIVING FRIDAY — from Cottage Grove were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dugan to visit their son, George, who intends to show them the local scenery and have long family gab sessions.

BILL AND KAY BORCHER — brought young "Sandy" with them from Eugene this week to visit Kay's mom and dad — the Herb Hauzers — also to see Micky and Chuck Bailey.

"BABY SITTING"—with Johnnie and Bill kept Mike Balsiger busy this past week — His wife had a bout with the flu bug—Billie feels up to par now so Mike has turned his extra duties back to her.

SORRY TO HAVE MISSED—seeing Jolene Stalger and her family while she was here this week visiting her mom, Mrs. F. S. Woodruff—Jolene lives in Oswego and was a busy gal while in town looking up her old gang.

LOTS OF FUN — has been planned by Marilyn Johnson, Nancy Hoeker, Cleo Cadwell and Beverly Calhoun while they are home for the holidays. Sun baths—horseback riding—swimming and kay, friendly chatter will keep these girls happily occupied.

FROM SAN FRANCISCO—comes word that Mr. and Mrs. Howard Perrin are spending a few days at the Cliff Hotel.

THEIR FIRST VACATION IN YEARS — is being enjoyed by Albert and Beth Townes. They left May 29 for Seattle to return many visits that have been made to them. The Townes, being owners of the Blue C Fish Market—will no doubt take advantage of the wonderful fishing found in the Puget Sound area.

RENEWING CONTACTS — with friends made on previous visits, is Mrs. Jesselun Breshnan from St. Louis, Mo. She plans to spend a couple of weeks here—and will stay with her son, Keith and daughter-in-law, Clarice Moor.

IN A MATTER OF HOURS—after arriving in town—busy gal Lorene Bertram — was hostess at a luncheon announcing daughter Helen's engagement at a party given in the Pelican party room Tuesday. "Bud" Wampler is the lucky guy — Lorene and Lawrence are happy and pleased about their new business location in Phoenix—Mrs. B. is the houseguest of Paul and Ethel Matthews — Helen has been living with them this past year while attending KUHS — and was graduated Wednesday night.

LISKEY-WIRTH WEDDING

At an impressive ceremony, solemnized Sunday afternoon, May 25, at Klamath Lutheran Church, Maxine Maude Liskey, daughter of Mrs. Dave Liskey and the late Mr. Liskey, 1041 Eldorado Avenue, became the bride of Bruce Rand Wirth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sol Wirth, 3135 Sunset. The four o'clock service was read by Reverend Irvin Tweet in the presence of a large group of relatives and friends.

White Anthurium with ti leaves were used in the altar bouquets and tall standards of the same flowers were placed in the chancel against a background of lighted white tapers in seven branch candelabra. Pews were marked with white ropes caught at intervals with flowers matching those on the altar.

Nuptial music was provided by Mrs. Don Zumwalt at the organ and Miss Joy Kent of Chicago, who sang "Ave Maria," and "On Perfect Love." Mrs. Arthur Denison played the wedding marches. For her wedding the bride wore a beautiful gown of white lace over white satin, made with long sleeves, sweetheart neckline outlined in seed pearls and iridescent sequins. Her very full skirt which ended in a court train, was highlighted by insets of pleated nylon net. A tiny shell cap of lace held in place her fingertip veil of net, and she carried a shower bouquet of white orchids.

Mrs. Glenn Lorenz, of Oakland, California, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and bridesmaids were Marjorie Clark of Richmond, Washington, and Clara of Eugene. All wore identical ballerina length frocks of deep aqua, fashioned with very full skirts of net over taffeta and short sleeved bodices of lace. Each wore Juliet caps of aqua net with tiny clusters of brown gymbidium orchids at the hairline. Their flowers were white Anthurium centered with orchids matching those worn in their hair, against a background of aqua net.

Vicky Liskey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Liskey, was flower girl, wearing a floor length dress of white organdy over aqua taffeta. In her hair she wore a band of Vanda orchids matching those in the basket she carried. Richard N. Shuck, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Shuck, served as ring bearer.

Jack Robbins was best man for the bridegroom. Ushers were Richard Shuck, uncle of the bride, and Cecil Drew. To attend her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Liskey chose a handsome floor length gown of rose beige chiffon with gray drapery and matching stole. With it she wore a small shell hat of dark brown net and wheat lace and yellow orchid corsage.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at Reames Country Club, where flowers identical to those used at the church were attractively arranged with bird of paradise, papyrus and ti leaves. Mrs. John Liskey, Mrs. Claude Shuck and Mrs. Victor Shuck, all aunts of the bride, presided at the refreshment table which was covered with white organdy over white taffeta.

The tiered wedding cake was topped with a white orchid and small silver bells and tiny deep purple orchids were used at the base. Mrs. Clarence Ward and Mrs. F. W. Peak served the wedding cake. Presiding at the punch bowls were Barbara Palmer, Jean Benham and Jean Underwood. The guest book was carried by Mrs. John Humphrey.

Organ music was played by Catherine Coles during the reception hours. The couple is spending their honeymoon in Canada and at Oregon coastal points. Upon their return they will be at home at 1540 Eldorado Avenue. For travel, the bride chose a navy blue suit with navy and white accessories and wore the white orchids from her wedding flowers. The attractive bride is a gradu-

Lynden King and Donald Bigger Exchange Vows in May Wedding

Exchanging their vows in a pretty May wedding were Lynden Carolyn King daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Marks, 2105 Auburn and Donald Raymond Bigger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond H. Bigger, Lakeview Highway.

In a light beige suit with lavender accessories, and wearing an orchid corsage, the bride was given in marriage by her father.

Rev. David F. Barnett Jr. read the service in the First Presbyterian Church, May 16, 7 p.m. before relatives and close friends. For the informal wedding tall radioli and pink roses were arranged before a back ground of greenery. The setting was effectively illuminated with lighted white tapers in tall candelabra.

Only attendants were Mrs. William H. Wilson, bridesmaid, sister of the bride, and Jack Smith, Eureka, best man. Ushers were William A. Wilson and Richard Gallagher.

The reception was held in the church parlor immediately following the ceremony. Barbara Palmer served the punch, Mrs. Glenn D. Bowen, aunt of the bride, cut the cake, and Mrs. Arnold Ellis assisted.

Guest book was passed by Mrs. Richard Gallagher. The bridegroom is a graduate of University of Oregon and a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon. His attractive bride is a graduate nurse from Good Samaritan Hospital School of Nursing in Portland.

They will make their home in Corvallis at the Corvallis Plaza Apartments, where Don will study for his engineering degree at Oregon State College.

Out of town guests included: Mrs. Myra Bigger, Palmers, California, bridegroom's grandmother; Mr. and Mrs. Ken Ulrich and daughters, Peggy Ann and Marjorie Kay, Redding.

An extensive wedding trip to Southern California was planned by the popular young couple.

A social evening was enjoyed by the honored guest Mrs. Louise Fett, Mrs. Kate Rawlins, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Pinnell and Susan Faye, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Leavitt, Mrs. Mary Anne, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Eitriem, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Burnett, Richard, Monte and Maria and Mr. and Mrs. Stemler.

STORK SHOWER

A delightful stork shower was given for Mrs. Robert Cheyne recently in the Elks Club Party Room, when Mrs. Horace Huan Mrs. Bandy Hamer and Alice Young were hostesses to the following: Mrs. Arthur Donahue, Mrs. Pearl Hamilton, Mrs. A. R. Cheyne, Mrs. Cecil Cheyne, Mrs. John Penny, Mrs. Lawrence Cheyne, Mrs. Marion E. Blinn, Mrs. Don Nolan, Mrs. Nell Norman, Mrs. Dave Bridges, Mrs. George Burger of El Cerrito, California, Mrs. Fannie M. Cheyne, Mrs. Mildred Dobson, Mrs. Gene Baile, Mrs. Pat Shmrock, Mrs. Dale Cheyne, Mrs. Benjamin McCollum, Mrs. Ernest Koschnick, and Mrs. John Takacs Jr., Tulalake.

After the pleasant social evening the hostesses served refreshments in the cleverly decorated club room.

Birthdays Party Honors Mrs. Fett

Mrs. Louise Fett was honored with a birthday party on Friday evening at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Warner Fett.

A beautiful birthday cake made by Margaret Barnett centered the long lace covered refreshment table and gifts were arranged on one end.

Out of town guests included: Mrs. Myra Bigger, Palmers, California, bridegroom's grandmother; Mr. and Mrs. Ken Ulrich and daughters, Peggy Ann and Marjorie Kay, Redding.

Wampler - Bertram Troth Revealed

In the round of recent important social events was the luncheon, May 27, given by Mrs. Lawrence Bertram, in the Pelican Cafe Party Room, when she announced to invited guests the betrothal of her daughter, Helen, to Albert E. (Bud) Wampler Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Wampler Sr., Rocky Point.

The striking centerpiece was a fountain of flowers in pastel shades with a huge ring in the center; a nosegay of white roses typifying the facets of the diamond and simulated diamond rings in miniature plastic stands marked each place. Streamers in pastel colors were fastened to the rings and as each streamer was pulled, a scroll came from under the fountain, reading "Helen and Bud."

Invitations were issued to Mrs. Albert E. Wampler Sr., Lynn Perkins, Shirley Rogers, Shirley Gaylord, Patty Teale, Virginia Van Doren, Barbara Custer, Jean Owens, Marilyn Johnson, Beverly Demetras, Lolly Quackenbush, Mrs. J. P. Matthews, and Lynn Bertram sister of the bride-elect.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Bertram have been in business in Phoenix, Arizona, for some time, and Helen has been staying with the J. P. Matthews, 522 Lincoln, while completing her studies as a senior at KUHS.

Mrs. Bertram and daughter Lynn are houseguests of the Matthews at present.

Mrs. Sarah Ross and Mrs. Dewey Horn entertained the Bonanza Women's Club at the Library for their regular social meeting, May 27. Bridge and Canasta were played during the evening with prizes going to Mrs. Lloyd Sparks in canasta and Mrs. Elva Maxwell, bridge. Mrs. Maxwell also won the door prize.

Tulips were used for decorating the large room. Delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Horn and Mrs. Ross to Mrs. Birdie Burk, Mrs. Claude Bechholdt, Mrs. Elva Maxwell, Mrs. Ruth Merrill, Mrs. Lloyd Sparks, Mrs. Tommy Blackman, Mrs. O. C. Wells, Mrs. Joann Miracle, Mrs. Bill Jones, Mrs. Clayton Sharpe, Mrs. Roy Fernlund, Mrs. Bob Schmor, and Mrs. Merton Whipple.
