Eviction Try Arouses Wrath

LAPEER, Clark, 45 — Lapeer County Sheriff Clark W. Gregory, a 35-year-old ex-Marine, was on the wrong end of an eviction proceeding here Monday.

Gregory, and his deputy, Roland Eddy, 27, are out to serve eviction papers on 60-year-old Mrs. Elizabeth Stevens.

Mrs. Stevens' 80 acre farm had been sold at a sheriff's auction to meet a $171 assessment against the Lapeer Farmers Mutual Fire Insurance Association. The association failed in 1935 and court action held members liable for its debts.

A group of idle farmers met Gregory and Eddy at the farm gate. They warned him not to serve the eviction papers. Gregory advanced to the farmhouse. The defiant farmers grabbed him and pushed him back to the road. When he tried a second time the farmers seized him, pushed him to the ground, and sat on him until he agreed to leave.

Gregory told the farmers he "would be back." They answered by singing "God Bless America." One of the defiant farmers waved an American flag as Gregory departed.
