

FUDGE CAKE

Aristocrat Cakes - Fudge

Fudge cake is the aristocrat among cakes, no doubt about that. And the nation's No. 1 favorite gets a new lift with the addition of versatile ready-to-eat all-bran cereal. The all-bran adds an extra fillip that puts the cake in a class by itself.

The recipe is a quick-method one-bowl cake that's easy to do. And, like most quick method cake, it stays moist and fresh longer than cake made by the longer conventional method.

Top off the rich cake with a shiny chocolate icing and plan to serve it on your next really important entertainment.

FUDGE CAKE
 3 ounces unsweetened chocolate, finely cut
 1/2 cup boiling water
 1/2 cup all-bran
 1/2 cups cake sifted flour
 1/2 teaspoon baking powder
 1/2 teaspoon soda
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 1 1/2 cups sugar
 1/2 cup shortening
 1-3 cup thick sour milk or buttermilk
 1 teaspoon vanilla flavoring
 2 eggs

Place chocolate in mixing bowl; add water gradually, stirring until chocolate is melted; add bran. Sift flour, baking powder, soda, salt and sugar into cooled chocolate mixture. Add shortening; beat 2 minutes (about 200 strokes.) Add sour milk, vanilla flavoring and eggs; beat 2 minutes (about 200 strokes.) Pour into 2 greased 8-inch round pans and bake in preheated moderate oven (350 F.) about 30 minutes. When cool frost with Fudge Frosting.

FUDGE FROSTING
 2 ounces unsweetened chocolate, finely cut
 1 1/2 cups sugar
 1/2 cup butter or margarine
 1 tablespoon light corn syrup
 1/4 teaspoon salt
 1 teaspoon vanilla flavoring

Place all ingredients except vanilla flavoring in saucepan and bring to boiling point over low heat. Cook, stirring constantly for one minute. Cool to lukewarm. When cool, add vanilla flavoring and beat until thick enough to spread.
 Yield: 2 cups frosting (enough for sides, filling and top of Fudge Cake)

DRINK UP
 Tall cool drinks are in order for warm weather. Combine a 12-ounce can of spritzer whole fruit nectar with an equal amount of pineapple juice and ginger ale. Serve with ice cubes in tall glasses and a straw for sipping.

BILL PICKETT (above) son of Mrs. A. F. Stainbrook, Klamath Falls, and S. V. Pickett, Alaska, left last week for Eastern Oregon to work on the Irvin Mann ranch, during the summer. Pickett was graduated from Klamath Union High School this spring and plans to enter Willamette University in the fall.
