KASRU Plans Trip, Feast

The Klamath Air Search and Rescue Unit puts in its heaviest official flying time on search missions, but not this coming Sunday. KASRU has slated a "fly-in" to the state air strip south of the Camp Abbot site near Bend, with fried chicken and home-made ice cream set for company.

Nearby Deschutes River is open for fishing, and fish are expected to be added to the menu, according to flight chairman Eldon Ait. This is the first summer "fly-in" of the year.

Persons desiring more information are asked to call Alt at 7903.

Family Hard Hit by Fire

BONANZA—Fire of unknown origin yesterday completely destroyed furnishings and personal belongings and badly damaged the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Kellison on the Lakeview cutoff, two miles from Bonanza.

The flames were discovered by Chuck, twelve-year-old son of the family who was awakened about 5 a.m. by smoke. The family had no phone and the alarm was turned in by Kellison after he drove to Bonanza.

The new city fire fighting equipment, fighting the first big fire since the apparatus arrived and the equipment sent by the Farm Bureau are credited with saving part of the building. The house which was being remodeled was partially covered by insurance.

Mr. and Mrs. Kellison bought the ranch about a year ago.

Residents of the Bonanza community are sponsoring a shower for the family Sunday, 2 p.m. at host affair and everyone is invited.

Travelers—Mr. and Mrs. Berry and son Melvin and Mrs. Floyd Stone and son Vaughn are making a motor trip to Boise, Clarkston, Wash., Walla Walla and other points North. Daughter Sandra Stone is staying home with her father and aunts, Mrs. Bee Book and Mrs. Lois Brownfield.

Prosperity Rebekah Lodge—Meets tonight, 8 p.m., in the IOOF Hall. Visiting members invited to attend.

Social Club—Aloha Chapter 61 OES, meets 1:45 Friday, in the Masonic Hall. Hostesses will be: Alpha Phelps, Alma Getz, Alma Coker and Mary Lee Dean. Dessert to be served. All Eastern Stars cordially invited.

To Eugene—Jenota Pearce was moved from Klamath Valley Hospital to Eugene yesterday by ambulance. She had been hospitalized here for two months with a broken leg.

Rummage Sale—Theta Rho girls hold a rummage sale all day Saturday at the IOOF Hall, 434 Main.

Ex-Klamathite—Stopping here Wednesday to say hello to friends was Mrs. Frank Kleineger, former resident of Klamath Falls now living in Mitchell, Ore. Mrs. Kleineger was enroute to Marysville and Yuba City, Calif., where she lived for four years after leaving this city.
