

SOCIETY

by Milly Ramsby

SAN FRANCISCO GUESTS were honored during their recent visit with a tea at the home of Mrs. Bert C. Thomas (center), 828 Pacific Terrace. Seated (left) Mrs. J. A. Narcisso Jr., (Eleanor Thomas) and Mrs. J. A. Narcisso Sr., both of the Bay City. The tea, June 2, a social event of the early summer, was attended by over seventy-five guests.

VISITING HER PARENTS, Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Beane, 1105 Pacific Terrace, Mrs. Clayton Adams (Barbara Beane), and her daughter, Marcia Bea, 17 months, are shown with the pretty little girl's grandmother Beane. Mr. and Mrs. Adams and Marcia live in South San Francisco, and have just returned from a visit with the paternal grandmother, Mrs. A. R. Adams, Houston.

SUSAN AND FELICE (Fifi), 12 and 10, are children of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip C. Quisenberry, former Klamath Falls residents, now of Lakeview. The young girls are the grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Molatore Sr., 721 Eldorado Avenue. They are shown at their piano, a gift from their grandmother Molatore. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Quisenberry, Medford.

PROCK-STILES WEDDING ANNIVERSARY PARTY

TULELAKE GUESTS at the Stiles-Prock eighteenth wedding anniversary party . . . from the left, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Crawford, Murel Long and Gib Osborne.

MR. AND MRS. Robert O. Sproat, left, and Mr. and Mrs. Don Divens.

Herald & News
 Klamath Falls, Oregon

All Photos by Kettler.

OBSERVING their eighteenth wedding anniversaries which were on the same date, June 3, were Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd C. Prock, left, and Mr. and Mrs. Elbert W. Stiles at the cocktail and dancing party they gave at the Klamath Yacht Club.

MR. AND MRS. William W. Patterson, guests at the anniversary party.