Mrs. Gerry Wolff Presents Students In Piano Recital

CHILOQUIN—Fifteen piano pupils of Mrs. Gerry Wolff were presented in a recital on Monday evening, June 2, at the Methodist Church. The program climaxed a school year of study for the pupils, who range from pre-first grade to fourth grade music.

Micki Jo Wolff played "Flying to the Moon," a kindergarten piece.

Students who have advanced this year from the beginning of music to high first grade, are Sally Swanson, who played "Riding on a Mule," "Motorcycle Cop" and "Mevies;" Sharon Wilder, "The Sphinx" and "Downstairs Playroom;" Marlene Dumont, "Band Is Playing Dixie;" George Swanson, "Fairy Court," "Owl's Question" and "Elevator." Two students are just entering second grade music were Beverly David, who played "Shortin' Bread" and "Campbells are Coming;" and Roberta Dumont who played "On the Levee."

Marian McIntyre Feted at Shower

Thursday afternoon, June 5, a number of guests gathered at the home of Mrs. Leslie Rogers, 851 Pacific Terrace, when she entertained with a bridal shower for Marion McIntyre, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George McIntyre, 109 Lincoln Street, whose forthcoming marriage to Samuel Raymond will be an event on the June social calendar.

The first part of the afternoon was a garden party, after which the guests assembled indoors for the opening of the gifts. The bride-elect was assisted by Colleen Creswell, who will be her maid of honor.

Lions and Lioness Install Officers

Mrs. Al Crose, State Lions Auxiliary President, Salem, attended Lions Club's annual installation, May 24, at Jeneas.

Mrs. Joe Thomas was installed as new president. Mrs. Irvin Burke, vice president; Mrs. Raymond McNebb, secretary-treasurer and Mrs. W. Purvine, liaison officer and Mrs. J. J. Jones, president of the Club colors of purple and gold were used in the table arrangements.

Mrs. E. Robinson installed the Lions officers, and she presented each one with a bouquet.

SOROPTIMIST

Margaret Larkin was chairman of the day at the regular luncheon meeting of the Soroptimist Club, Thursday, June 5, at the Pelican Party Room.

She introduced the guest speaker, H. J. Bud' Chandler, manager of Radio Station KFLW, who spoke on "The Miracle of America."

In comparing Western civilization and the Eastern "distortion of Socialism," Mr. Chandler said, "We are American in principle and practice, but are we American in spirit? The speaker stressed that unless we guard our freedoms they may be lost and that Christianity, justice and equality are the answers to the ills of the country."

Mr. Chandler said that television can be a wonderfully constructive instrument. "It has been used in West Germany to show the home life and the industries of the United States, and will be used by the United Nations at their sessions," he said.

VENTURE CLUB

June 3, the Klamath Falls Venture Club held a 6:30 business dinner meeting at the Willard Hotel. The dinner meetings will be discontinued during the summer months. There will be no social for the month of June. However, there will be one in July and one in August.

June 19 a joint dinner meeting with the Venture Girls and the Soroptimists will be held at the Pelican Cafe from 12:00 to 1:00 p.m.

June 26 a formal installation of the new officers for both clubs, Venture Club and the Soroptimists Club, will be held at the Pelican Cafe in the evening.

All Venture girls are requested to complete and return all baby Layette articles to Mary Bothwell, as soon as possible.

PATI O'CONNOR—daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh D. O'Connor, 133 Grant Street, was recently the recipient of the F. A. Miller Award for excellence in journalism at St. Mary's College for Women, Notre Dame, Indiana. Pati is a senior journalism student at the college and will be 1952-53 editor of the college paper. NOTE THAT—Carl Cook was in town from Ocean side to attend the KJHS commencement exercises—and its "long-cherished" dream. He will be remembered for a long time to come by many of the graduates of that class and others who had been counseled and befriended by him when they were small fry.

LOOKING MIGHTY PERT—was Mrs. A. J. Vove "Lou"—in town for a short visit—staying with her sister Agnes Mrs. Fred Sciallock renewing contacts and visiting with old friends—left for her home in Hollywood a few days ago—with her niece Gracie Lou—daughter of Bob and Theima (Mickey) Henry—Gracie Lou thrilled with the very thought of the trip and vacation.

A REVELATION—was personally meeting what was—up until then merely a by-line over an ever-intriguing bit of copy sent from New Pine Creek—Prior to a recent trip to that vicinity and becoming acquainted with Correspondent Irvin Paris and his delightful family—"that was that"—now the name incorporates warm friendships in huge amounts and the impressive dignity of "living and let live."

INCIDENTALLY—a big bouquet to the Lakeview Lions and other civic minded people in that town that followed through so beautifully, the home of Mrs. Leslie Rogers—with the new municipal swimming pool—an added incentive to KP and its "long-cherished" dream.

THE STILES-PROCK anniversary party—their wedding date is the same—and the same number of years—too—was June 3—and at the cocktail and dancing party at the Yacht Club—a loud proclamation was heard—when the Mayor—Bob Thompson revealed in reverberating tones that it was also his birthday—and it should be properly observed.

"TRAVELIN"—is what Gregory Hurd and his mama and papa will be doing for awhile—Red and Pat Hurd and young Gregory took off for Santa Monica to visit his grandmother—Mrs. Irene Hurd—first long trip for him.

IN SAN FRANCISCO—Elizabeth Knapp Van Emon and Alan O'Neill were married May 31 in St. Emydius Church—Remembered as Betty to her many friends—she has been living in SF for some time—where her mother—Mrs. Julia Van Emon—Nora Rinker's sister—also lives—The reception was at the home of her brother—Maurice Van Emon—the O'Neills will be in sunny So Cal for the summer.

FIVE GUESTS—who attended the shower for Marian McIntyre at the home of Mrs. Leslie Rogers—

June 5 were also present at another given by her 22 years ago for Mrs. George McIntyre—a "pink and blue" one—prior to arrival of Marian—Highlight of recent shower was a "golf contest"—guests trying their skill at chip-shots and putting—object to get the ball into a rambob hat—and strategically placed garbage can—clever and fun.

IN ANSWER TO—the many inquiries about Ann Rood—who recently underwent eye surgery—it's a pleasure to report that she is home and improving—Her sister and brother-in-law—Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lloyd—Spokane—are with her for an indefinite stay.

JEANETTE HAYDEN—ambitious and enterprising gal—has been busy redecorating her digs on Mortimer St—and the result is cool—comfortable and cozy—Please pass the paint brush.

SURPRISE VISIT! from Mrs. James Lopez and Louis and Janalee—youthy good looking Lopez sprouts—mama was Jerry Lee Griffin—Leah Dent's daughter Jerry was on way to visit Leah and Zeno—and popped in to see Lou Havelton—heartily unthinned Lou with her unexpected and exciting arrival.
