Marie Haskins In Merrill Is May Bride

MERRILL—The Merrill Presbyterian church was the scene Saturday of the wedding ceremony which united two well-known young people of Merrill. The lovely, radiant bride was Marie Haskins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Myron Haskins, and the bridegroom was Russell Northrop, son of Mrs. Ellen Northrop.

American Legion Malin Auxiliary

MALIN—Malin Unit 84, American Legion Auxiliary met at the church with Emma Wilde presiding. Installation of officers was held with Hazel Henry as installing officer.

Members from Merrill Unit were our guests at the meeting, to meet with the District 4 president, Hazel Henry. Those present were: Ann Fritz, Lois Kirby, Audrey Lewis, Beanie West, Harriet Batty and Lena Buck. Also present were Verma Daniels from Cave Junction, Emma Ottens, poppy chairman, reported on the sale and thanked all members and, Girl Scouts that helped her with the sale of poppins.

Hazel Kalina, Girl State chairman, reported that Barbara McCormick was ready to attend Girls' State, next week.

Hazel Henry, gave a brief talk and stressed membership. A letter was read from Klamath Falls Unit, inviting us to join them at the State Convention, which will be held in July at Klamath Falls. They also asked us if we would like to furnish page girls, for the convention. Ethel Hamilton was asked to act as chaperon for the page girls.

Hazel Kalina, Ethel Roberts and Patricia Othman were appointed as a planning committee for a float to be presented from Malin Unit at the convention. All members are to help with this float. Ethel Hamilton's name was brought up for District 4 president. Anna Lahoda, president for the coming year, appointed her committees for the year.

American Legion members asked the unit to join them for a picnic, July 1, at the Malin Park. All members and their families are invited. Legion members, joined us for refreshments and a film on cancer was shown. Next meeting will be July 7, with new officers presiding.

Mrs. O. C. Johnson Feted With Dinner Mrs. Harry Frazier entertained with a dinner May 27 at her home in Langell Valley in honor of the birthday of Mrs. O. C. Johnson. Guests were Mrs. and Mrs. O. C. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Weimer and John, Mrs. Mary Smith, Linda Frazier and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Frazier.

Rev. G. A. Milne read the 2 p.m. service. Lighted candelabra, baskets of pink and white carnations and chrysanthemums formed the background. Organist was Mrs. Lillian Thomas, and soloist was Mrs. Eber Kilpatrick, who sang "Because" and "Oh Promise Me." Candles were lighted just before the ceremony by the ushers Lee Haskins and Don McNeary. The bridegroom's brother, Earl Northrop, was best man.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a traditional white satin gown, fashioned with a net yoke, long pointed sleeves, and a full gathered skirt ending in a train. Her finger-tip length veil was edged in lace, and held in place with a pearl tiara. Her necklace of pearls were a gift of the bridegroom. The bride carried a white Bible with a single orchid tied with satin streamers placed on top.

Maid of honor was Yvonne Conner, who wore a green net over tulle. The bridesmaids, Joyce Haskins and Delores Conner wore identical dresses of pink and blue net over tulle. All wore matching headbands.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Haskins chose a gray suit, with black and white accessories and a pink rosebud corsage. Mrs. Northrop wore a sheer print street-length dress. Her corsage was of carnations and rosebuds in pink and white.

A reception, in the church social parlor, followed the ceremony. The linen covered bride's table was centered with a bouquet of tulips and lilies in a crystal bowl. Tall lighted tapers were placed on either side.

The three-tiered white wedding cake was trimmed with silver leaves and topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom. Mrs. Verma Haskins, grandmother of the bride, served the cake after the young couple had cut the first piece.

Mrs. Mile Moore served the coffee, and Mrs. Warren Conner presided at the punch bowl. Joyce Haskins carried the guest book and Mrs. M. A. Bowman assisted about the room.

For going-away the new Mrs. Northrop wore a brown suit, with the orchard pinned at the shoulder. After a three weeks' honeymoon trip to North Dakota, the couple will be at home in Merrill.

RAINBOW FOR GIRLS HOLD INSTALLATION IN IOOF HALL

The second installation ceremony of Klamath Falls Assembly, Order of Rainbow for Girls, was attended by approximately 100 members and friends, May 26, in the IOOF Hall, which was decorated with bouquets of lilacs and a large Rainbow emblem.

Distinguished guests were, Mrs. Ethel Hamilton, grand deputy of Oregon, Mrs. Alma Coulson, grand deputy of California and Mrs. Alice Wilson, mother advisor of Tulelake Assembly.

The ceremony was opened by Worthy Advisor, Lucille Ward, Tulelake and following the rap of the gavel, installing Chaplain, Carol Moore placed the open Bible on the altar. Also from the Tulelake Assembly were installing Recorder, Polly Haynes; and installing Musician, Sally Thomas, installing Marshal, Martha Beasley, was from the Malin Assembly.

Guests were welcomed by hostess of the evening, Mrs. Lois Gueck. The line officers-elect, wearing gowns of pastel tints and corsages of rainbow colors, entered the assembly room and formed a cross in the East.

Doris Wallin, worthy advisor-elect, in a ballerina length gown of orchid net, carrying a small white Bible and a miniature bouquet of rainbow colored flowers, approached and slowly outlined the cross formed by the girls. She then received the obligation at the altar, and was conducted to her station in the East, where she was presented with a bouquet of red carnations by her sister, Edith, and was honored with a vocal solo by Polly Haynes.

Other officers installed were: Worthy Associate Advisor, Patricia Walker; Charity, Cherron Carr; Hope, Linda Williams; Faith, Beverly Aldine Steiner; Chaplain, Beverly Overn: Drill Leader, Edith Wallin; Musician, Karen Spetz; Choir Director, Constance Loy; Love, Peggy Grimm; Religion, Donna Beckwith; Nature, Rosanna Brown; Immortality, Sue Gerhman; Felicity, Carol Herman; Patriotism, Lenetta Montgomery; Service, Cantalene Center; Confidential Observer, Carol Benson.

Concluding the ceremony, Lucille Ward presented the gavel to Doris, who announced the theme for her term of office, "Why Rainbow?" She outlined her program for both the ritualistic and social observance of the order. She then introduced her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wallin, and requested the marshal to present her arm bouquet to her mother and her Bible to her father.

Instrumental and vocal entertainment by the three Schultz sisters from Tulelake preceded the escorting of the honored guests to the East. Mrs. Hamilton, Mrs. Coulson, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Reimiller, Worthy Matron, Tulelake Chapter OES, Lois Roper, worthy advisor, Tulelake Assembly Mrs. Vera Fritsch, worthy matron, John Larson, both of Manzanita Chapter, and O. E. Thompson, Worshipful Master of Crater Lake Lodge A.F. and M., representing the sponsoring bodies of the Klamath Falls Assembly, presiding and all were enthusiastically applauded for their inspiring talks.

Mrs. Walter Brown, mother advisor of the Klamath Assembly, expressed the gratitude of the advisory board and herself to all who assisted in the work of the installation ceremonies.

Doris then presented Janice Larson, retiring worthy advisor, with a gift from the assembly.

Mrs. Brown, assisted by Janice, awarded merit badges for attendance to the ten qualifying girls. Members and guests adjourned to the dining room, where Mrs. Wallin served at the punch bowl and Mrs. Larson presided at the coffee urn. The table was centered with a large impressive Rainbow emblem formed of flowers and a cake with "Doris" inscribed on the frosting was featured. The centerpiece and elaborate cake, both gifts to Doris from Mrs. Gueck were further highlighted by streamers in Rainbow colors, which ran the length of the white covered table.

Mrs. Gueck, hostess, Mrs. Caroline Westover and Mrs. Thelma Fink, members of the advisory board and Mrs. Nina Hall, Manzanita Chapter, assisted Mrs. Wallin during the social hour.

In the hall, profusely decorated with spring flowers, the installing officers were distinguished guests were presented with identical corsages of the Rainbow colors.

Next meeting of the assembly will be Monday, June 9, 8 p.m., in the IOOF Hall. All visiting members of the Order of Eastern Star, and the Masonic Lodge are invited to attend.

ENGAGEMENT REVEALED AT OPEN HOUSE

From California word was received of the engagement of Elaine Elizabeth Schumacher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob E. Schumacher, of Balboa and Anaheim, California, to Jack Ronald Golden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Golden, Santa Ana.

Mr. and Mrs. Golden were Tulelake residents from 1927 to 1949, and still have extensive farming and other interests there. They owned the Marion Apartments here for a number of years, and have numerous friends in the Klamath Basin.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Marywood High School, Anaheim, also Immaculate Heart College, Hollywood. She is member of Kappa Gamma Delta sorority, and was vice president of the student body. Her parents are a Pioneer family of Orange County.

Jack is a graduate of Tulelake High School, USC and is a member of Chi Phi fraternity and Trojan Knights.

Mr. and Mrs. Schumacher issued invitations to over 100 guests to attend open house in honor of their daughter.

A large floral engagement ring centered the tea table. The names of the betrothed in the setting revealed the forthcoming wedding which will be an event of the fall season.

Elaine wore a very sheer imported dotted Swiss ballerina dress ornamented with varying shades of pink handpainted and jeweled roses and she wore an orchid of the same shades.

Mrs. Schumacher and Mrs. Golden both wore navy blue silk ensembles, and wore frosted pink rose corsages.

Nelda Schumacher, sister of the bride-elect, wore a powder blue brocade taffeta and her wrist corsage was of Cymbidium orchids.
