West's Homers Nip Padres, Bevos Drop

By The Associated Press

Ledy O'Doul's San Diego Padres may be in a slump. They've lost two in a row, but they're still three games in front of Hollywood just as they were Friday.

San Diego loved again to Los Angeles Friday night, 6-4. Big Max West, a former Padre, provided the margin. He poked two towering homers. Los Angeles got 15 hits and still had difficulty winning.

Hollywood, after winning six in a row, bowed to Portland, 6-3, and a bit of stupid baserunning by the admittedly smart and hustling Gene Hanley didn't help the Star cause.

He tagged up and tried to go from first to second on fly with one out and Dick Wilson on third. Wilson crossed the plate, but after Hanley had been tagged out, so the rule was retired and Wilson's run didn't count.

POTENTIAL BLOW

Ex-Hollywood outfielder Clint Canasser struck a potent blow for Portland, homering with one on in the fourth. It was his sixth of the season. The game drew 8,241 fans, with a batch of prizes helping lure the curious.

Seattle made it four in a row over San Francisco, 5-2. The Rainiers' new outfielder, Paul Lehner, batted in two runs. Elmer Singleton, the Beas' starting pitcher, became ill in the first inning and had to be relieved by Bill Reeder.

The heavy-hitting Sacramento Oaks bashed three home runs off Oakland starter Al Gettel, but Milo Candini came in as a reliever and silenced their bats, with Oakland getting a 5-4 decision.

TIME OUT!

"This was when they lose, they feel they've at least got some pleasure from betting that much!"

SPORTS in BRIEF

GOLF

Muirfield, Scotland — Britain's women golfers, determined to score their first Curtis Cup victory, swept into the lead in four of six singles matches Saturday at the halfway point of the 36-hole competition.

The British, whose best showing has been a single tie since the event was started in 1922, needed only to break even in Saturday's final tests to clinch the trophy. They won two out of three four-woman tilts from the Americans Friday in a surprise turn.

LONG ADVANTAGE

Polly Riley of Fort Worth, Tex., held a four-hole lead over Moira Paterson of Scotland in the only match in which the U. S. had an advantage.

Marjorie Lindsay of Decatur, Ill., held a four-hole lead over her match with Frances Stephens of England squared at the end of the morning round.

Dorothy Kirby of Atlanta, U. S. women's amateur champion, was two down to Jean Donald, the Scottish champion. Mae Murray of Rutland, Vt., was four down to Jeanne Disgood, the English champion. Claire Doran of Cleveland was two-down to Philomena Garvey of Ireland. Grace DeMoss of Corvallis, Ore., was one down to Elizabeth Price of England.

TOUGH BREAK

Miss DeMoss, one up through the eighth, had a bit of bad luck when her second shot on the ninth nestled in the rough against a retaining wall. She was forced to play the ball backwards to get on the green. This seemed to nettles her although she went only one hole down to Miss Price at the halfway point.

Miss Kirby and Miss DeMoss, defeated 3 and 2 by Miss Donald of Ireland. The fine putting of Miss DeMoss kept the defeat from being worse.

Mat Match A Natural

That Yamato-Duette mat mungling billed for the Armory next Wednesday evening is stewing into the hottest wrestling wrangle held here in many months.

Terrible Tot Yamato was already pretty firmly entrenched as an arch villain before last week's melee, when he turned on his own partner, Kurt Von Poppenheim, and gave the Proud Prussian a couple of clouts in the whiskers. It was a tag team match and Tot got the idea Von Popp wasn't doing his share of teaming.

But you just don't do things like that to your own partner in these parts and the fans are raging for someone to give Yamato his just deserts.

Georges Duette is a natural for the role of teaching the Jap a lesson in mat manners. That is, he'll be a natural if he can stay out of the Jap's dread sleeper hold long enough.

Duette tangled with Yamato a few weeks ago and the opening song was still echoing when the match ended. In a bare 30 seconds, Yamato completely subdued Georges with the sleeper hold.

Since then, Duette has been clamoring for someone to give the Jap his comeuppance.

So Wednesday's card adds up to a crowd pleaser of the first order.

BASEBALL

Boston — Bucky Walters was named manager of Milwaukee, the Boston Braves' farm in the American Association.

TENNIS

Manchester, England — Maureen Connolly, San Diego, Calif., gained finals of Northern Lawn Tennis championships with Mrs. Jean Quarter Rinkel, who upset Louise Brough.

Brussels, Belgium — Tony Trabert, Cincinnati, and Ken McGregor, Australia, stroked their way into finals of Belgian International championships.

Seattle — Art Larsen, former National champion, and Herb Flam, gained semi-finals of National Hard Court championships.

GENERAL

West Point, N. Y. — PFC Thad MacArthur of Seattle, Wash., won 4,000 meter cross country to lose early lead in the U. S. Pentathlon championships and Olympic trials.

RACING

New York — Combat Boots (17.8) captured Water Color handicap at Belmont, speeding the mile and an eighth in 1:10 1/5.

Inglewood, Calif. — Wistful (43.59) won mile 10,000 Goose Girl allowance race at Hollywood Park with a 1:36 1/5 clocking.

UNWELCOME ASSIST—A non-professional nuisance took the Giants' Jim Hearn's foul into the box seats behind first base away from the Dodgers' Gil Hodges in Brooklyn. He was ejected from Ebbets Field for interfering with play. (NEA)

California Netter Wins

ABILENE, Tex. — Semi-finals were scheduled Saturday in the National Intercollegiate Tennis Tournament with favorites on deck after winning Friday's matches.

Butch Krikorian of San Jose State, Gene Powell of Washburn, Carl Wilson of Western Illinois and Jim Flynn of the University of Wyoming went into the penultimate round.

Krikorian and Powell meet in the feature match. Powell, who dropped only three games in sweeping to the semi-finals, is given a strong chance of ousting Krikorian, who had been rated No. 1 contender for the singles championship. Powell beat John Buell of Southwest Missouri State, 6-2, 6-0, in the first round and then took out William Medin of College of Puget Sound, 6-0, 6-1, in the quarter-finals. Krikorian reached the semi-finals with a 6-1, 6-1 victory over Kenneth Lewis of Southeast Oklahoma State and a 6-2, 6-2 triumph over Don Coleman of Lamar Tech.

DEFAULT

Wilson beat Jack Coleman of Abilene Christian College, 6-4, 6-2, in the first round and went into the semi-finals by default. Flynn beat Gene Adams of Hardin-Simmons, 6-1, 6-0, then took out Buddy Satterwhite of Texas Tech, 6-1, 6-0.

Doubles teams from George Peperdine, Washburn, Illinois Normal and Texas Western reached the semi-finals.

Harvey Grimsnaw and Bill DeLay of Pepperdine won over Fred Allman and Johnny Ayres of Lamar Tech, 6-1, 6-1, in the quarter-finals while Phil Blackburn and Charles Steele of Washburn eliminated Billy Grey and Jerry Miller of Texas Wesleyan 7-5, 7-5.

Bob Henderson and Frank Purdy of Illinois Normal reached the semi-finals by beating Carl Nunn and Wayne Miller of Hardin-Simmons 3-6, 6-7, 6-7, while Winston Farquhar and Fred Gerner of Texas Western beat Pence Dacus and Leslie Talley of Southwest Texas State, 6-2, 6-3.

OSC Makes NCAA Finals

CORVALLIS, Ore. — Oregon State goes into the finals of the District 8 NCAA baseball playoffs Saturday with a one-game edge after Friday's tightly-pitched 2-1 decision over Fresno State.

If OSC, Coast Conference champs, takes the opening contest (1 p.m. PDT), the teams head east. If Fresno State wins, a third and final game will follow immediately.

Oregon State chalked up its winning tally in the seventh after the score was tied at one-all. And they did it without a hit.

Catcher John Thomas walked, advanced to third on a bunt and a fielder's choice and galloped home after a short flyout by Pete Goodbrod.

Don White pitched the win for the Oregon club and Larry Bolin went the route for Fresno. Each allowed only six hits.

Oregon State led off the scoring in the second on three consecutive singles. Fresno tied it in the third when third baseman Fred Sommers scored after White missed an outfield throw. It was the only error of the game.

WI Turnouts Take Jump

VICTORIA, B. C. — Attendance at Western International League baseball games is up 41 per cent over last season.

Robert Abel, president of the league, said here Friday that a total of 193,640 fans clicked through the gates up to June 1, a gain of 56,314 over the same period last year.

He predicted a possible season's attendance total of one million fans. Improving gates with improving summer weather — plus a possible heated pennant race — added to club owners' optimism.

Spokane led the league during the first quarter of the baseball season with an attendance total of 41,169. Victoria was second with 26,859 and Vancouver third with 25,314.

Lewiston, this year's new addition to the league, ran a surprising fourth with 24,704 — more than double its predecessor Tacoma's attendance.

The remaining attendance totals were: Salem, 21,401; Wenatchee 20,916; Tri - City 17,578; and Yakima 15,759.

Netters Run To Form

SEATTLE — The four men seeded in the four top spots of the National Hard Court tennis championships were in the semi-finals here Saturday.

They are Herb Flam, Los Angeles; Billy Talbert, New York; Art Larsen, San Leandro, Calif.; and Tom Brown, San Francisco, who were seeded in that order.

Flam, fourth ranked in the nation, will meet Brown in the first afternoon match. He moved into the semi-finals by defeating Seattle's pride, 17-year-old Bill Quillian, 6-2, 6-2, 6-4, 6-4, in Friday's quarter finals.

Walcott Demands Bigger Cut

By MURRAY ROSE

NEW YORK (AP) — A demand for a 45 per cent share of a title fight by Jersey Joe Walcott and a soudeur showdown on the proposed Harry Matthews-Rocky Marciano bout kept things hopping on the boxing mat Saturday.

Felix Boechicchio, manager of the heavyweight champion, said Friday that his 38-year old gladiator won't do any title performing for the International Boxing Club this September unless the champ collects "45 per cent of everything, gate, television and movies."

TWO IDEAS

Promoter Jim Norris of the IBC is very much interested in exhibiting the champ against either Matthews, the sensational Seattle socker, or the hard-hitting, unbeaten Marciano.

At the same time Norris is eager to have Matthews and Marciano have it out in an elimination bout in New York late next month.

Matchmaker Al Wells of the IBC said "we are earnestly trying to make it."

Either Matthews or Marciano would be acceptable to Boechicchio.

There was a very good possibility that if Walcott fights either the site won't be New York. Chicago was considered a likely spot.

BURNED

Boechicchio has no license in New York and Bob Christenberry, chairman of the state athletic commission made some very complimentary remarks about Felix in a recent magazine article.

The article burned Boechicchio to a crisp and he said then he would never permit Walcott to fight in New York.

If Christenberry were to unbend, Boechicchio might change his mind.

Giants Miss Mays, Brooks Pull Away

By RALPH RODEN

Associated Press Sports Writer

The New York Giants can hardly wait until Willie Mays comes marching home. But of course that won't be this year.

Since Mays switched from flannels to khaki May 29 the Giants have lost eight out of ten games and posted a record of 2 1/2 games in front to four games astern of the Brooklyn Dodgers in the National League pennant scrap.

Observers knew that Mays would be missed but few expected the Giants to fall apart as badly as they have.

The Giants reached the depth of their slump Friday night. The polo grounders invaded Pittsburgh, usually a tonic for slumping teams, but the Pirates refused to roll over and play dead.

FIREMAN

pirate killer Sal Maglie in the process. Maglie had a string of 13 straight victories over the Pirates before his encounter with Dickson.

Brooklyn turned back the Reds, 6-4, in a night game at Cincinnati with Preacher Roe picking up his fifth straight victory. The Preach almost blew the decision in the ninth when the Reds rallied for all of their runs. Joe Black suppressed the uprising.

The St. Louis Cardinals edged the Philadelphia Phils, 5-4, and the Chicago Cubs trounced the Boston Braves, 7-2, in other National League games.

The Cleveland Indians increased their American League lead to two games by trouncing the Philadelphia Athletics, 11-4, while the Red Sox up Boston Red Sox bowed, 4-2, to Detroit.

HAUNTERS

The Red Sox were beaten by two players who they shipped to Detroit earlier in the week in the astounding one million dollar trade. Walt Dropp and Don Lenhardt haunted their old mates by driving in all of Detroit's runs.

Former teammates also beat the Washington Senators and New York Yankees. Ex-Senator Ed Stewart clouted a three-run two-out double in the eighth inning to give the Chicago White Sox a 4-3 victory over Washington.

Jim Dyck and Clint Courtney, ex-Yankee farm hands, batted in seven runs to lead St. Louis to a 9-3 victory over the New Yorkers.

Board Seeks Smith Ban

PORTLAND — The Portland Boxing Commission has called for a general ban against Oakland Billy Smith, who fought in Philadelphia Thursday night in a preliminary to the Charles E. Walcott title bout.

Smith was suspended at Portland more than a year ago after leaving the ring during a fight with Archie Moore.

The suspension should apply in Pennsylvania since both states are affiliated with the National Boxing Association. A suspension in one NBA-affiliated state is mandatory in all.

Howard Bobbit, chairman of the Portland commission, said Friday the group voted less than a month ago to keep Smith's suspension in force and notified the Pennsylvania commission of its action.

He denied the contention by John "Ox" DeGross, Pennsylvania commission member, that the decision had been left up to Pennsylvania.

Bobbit said Portland had agreed only to consider the case further if new evidence in Smith's favor should be presented.

Yesterday's Stars

By The Associated Press

Batting — Jim Dyck, Browns, batted four runs on a pair of homers to lead St. Louis to a 9-3 victory over New York.

Pitching — Turk Lown, Cubs, pitched Chicago to a 7-2 four-hit victory over Boston.

Portland Sends Lafata Home

PORTLAND — The Portland Beavers have sent reserve first baseman Joe Lafata home to Detroit until his contract can be disposed of.

The announcement came Friday from Bill Mulligan, general manager of the Pacific Coast League club.

Lafata, 30, moved to Portland from Oakland in 1951. He was with the New York Giants in 1947 and 1949.

Joe DiMaggio was named the most valuable player in the American League in 1939, 1941 and 1947.

Kid Gavilan, world's welterweight champion, started as an amateur when he was 12 years old.
