

TONS OF POISON BRAN being used to knock down a severe infestation of grasshoppers pile up at Newell, headquarters for the grasshopper war. The bran is loaded in airplanes and scattered around infested areas. Some 25,000 acres of barley are to be treated.

Merrill Council Studies Budget

The proposed 1952-53 budget for the city of Merrill was given a thorough study at Thursday evening's meeting of the city council. Another meeting has been called for June 12 to pass on the budget, and it will then be posted in several locations around town. The purchase of a new police car was the only item added.

With the mayor and councilmen were Wayne Woods, W. H. Homes, Warren Fruits, and Allan Carter. Building permits issued were A. L. Wagner $200 for picket fence; C. E. Sharp, $5,000 new urban storage building; and to A. R. Cheyne $1,500 remodel potato cellar.

Serving on the budget committee were Mayor Trotman presided, and others present were councilmen Paul Lewis, Leland Reeves, Howard Dewey, and Harvey Denham, recorder Otis Thompson, and marshal Doug Brumley.

THOUGHTS
By Al Joyce

I see the roses blossom
Against the fresh green sod,
And when I think of beauty
Somehow, I think of God.

I see strong hands help others,
Some long, hard path to plod,
And when I think of kindness,
Somehow, I think of God.

I see brave feet go marching
Up paths the true have trod,
And when I think of goodness,
Somehow, I think of God.

JUST A LITTLE
By Al Joyce

Just a little sympathy, just a little help,
Just a word of cheerfulness is worth far more than wealth;
Just a little kindness when a friend is feeling blue
Will bring more satisfaction than anything you can do;
Just some word of hopefulness, sincere and no pretend,
God will sure reward you for being such a friend.

COUNT THE BLESSINGS
By Al Joyce

The gentle wind glides down a shaft of moonbeams,
Each star is freshly cleaned, and hung to dry,
White cloud-beds are fluffed up, for rest, then sun beams
Awake us, in the twinkling of an eye.

The glory of a cheerful day surrounds us,
And birds repeat sweet songs of yesterday,
And gardens send forth fragrance of pink rosebuds,
From field there comes breath of new-mown hay.

I wonder if we're grateful to the Giver
Of these precious treasures we hold dear,
While over there the burning bombs are falling
We still have peace and plenty here.
We should not take our blessings all for granted
In gratitude, we all should kneel and pray,
Thank God that He has blessed us with His bounty,
Least He, in anger, take our joys away.

THE LITTLE HOUSE
By Al Joyce

What does it matter about the house,
If it be large or small?
The home is where the heart is.
