Battling Padres Make Dopesters Look Again

By The Associated Press

It's time for folks to start thinking of San Diego as pennant material.

Ever since Lefty O'Doul's Padres assumed the lead in the Pacific Coast League race back in mid-April, observers have been predicting — and confidently awaiting — the club's fall.

The consensus was, and still is in many quarters, that the Padres are strictly a second division outfit who reached the top by luck and have stayed there by playing over their heads.

Last week the team won four out of seven games from Los Angeles, the club several PCL managers have tabbed as the team to beat for the pennant.

Though fourth in team batting at .248—Los Angeles leads at .268—the Pads have been consistent at getting hits in the clutch, when it counts.

In the pitching department they have two eight-game winners in Jack Salveson, 8-4, and Guy Fletcher, 8-6.

The Padres may crack, but they have shown no signs of doing so yet.

Tuesday O'Doul will send Salveson against Sacramento's Orv Grove as the Padres try to fatten their lead at the expense of the last-place Solons.

In another Tuesday opener, Seattle and Portland will renew their war at Portland. The Rainiers, in fourth place after last week's sweep of the series with San Francisco, will be after victory No. 11. Vern Kindsfather 6-5 will pitch for Seattle against Lyman Linde (5-5).

In other games, Oakland visits Los Angeles and Hollywood opens at San Francisco.

He Swears It's True!

MILTON, Pa. (AP) — Troy Musser, long-time Milton barber and sportsman, claims this fish story is the honest-to-gosh truth:

Musser was trying his luck over the weekend in a nearby Northumberland County creek when a gust of wind lifted his hat off his head and carried it to the other side of the creek.

Minutes later he spied the hat moving downstream at a rapid, zig-zagging pace.

Investigating, he found a 10-inch trout hooked into one of the flies stuck in the battered fedora. It was his only catch of the day.

TOUGH TEACHING METHOD

MORGANTOWN, W. Va. (AP)—Red Brown, 45-year-old coach of the West Virginia U. basketball and tennis teams, is able to beat his varsity tennis players regularly. He finds that it's a good way to correct their faults. "It also helps to deflate a 'swellhead'," says the former state intercollegiate champion.

Yesterday's Stars

By The Associated Press

Batting: Don Lenhardt, Tigers—Drove in five Detroit runs with a single and his third grand slam homer of the season, against his former Red Sox mates, but it was not enough as Boston won a 9-8 slugfest.

Pitching: Joe Black, Dodgers—Pitched three innings of shutout relief ball to gain credit for Brooklyn's comeback 6-2 win over the St. Louis Cardinals.

Brooklyn Wins 8th Straight

By The Associated Press

If the Brooklyn Dodgers are not careful, they may find themselves 13½ games in front of the New York Giants on Aug. 11.

And is there anybody who doesn't know what happened to the poor Brooks after that date last year?

Currently, the Dodgers are playing a better brand of baseball than they did at a corresponding time a year ago. They're playing remarkable .761 ball with 35 victories in 46 bames. Last year they were 30-16 for .652 — more than 100 points lower.

They've dropped just one of their 10 games on this second Western swing. They lead the second - place Giants by five games.

Monday night's 6-2 triumph over the Cardinals in St. Louis ran Brooklyn's latest winning streak to eight in a row.

OFF THE FLOOR

The Dodgers had to come from behind to win. Cloyd Boyer blanked them for six innings but the Brooks tied the score at 2-2 in the seventh when Peewee Reese singled with the bases loaded. Reliefer Alpha Brazle doused the fire but got burned in the eighth when Roy Campanella and Carl Furillo slammed two-run homers.

Boston's Red Sox also solidified their first place hold, opening up a one - game margin over the second place New York Yankees by vanquishing the Detroit Tigers, 9-8.

The Red Sox watched the Tigers twice go into the lead on home runs by former Boston sluggers Don Lenhardt and Walter Dropo, but bounced back each time. The winning run came in the sixth when Johnny Pesky, Ex-Red Sox infielder, committed an error to allow Dom DiMaggio to cross the plate.

ROOKIE SHINES

In the only other game in the majors, Boston's Braves nipped the Pittsburgh Pirates 3-2. Rookie Ben Thorpe drove in two Boston runs with a single to back up Jim Wilson's five-hit pitching.

The scheduled night game between Chicago and the Senators in Washington was postponed because of rain.

Boyd Paces PCL Hitters

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Seattle first sacker Bob Boyd, batting at a .348 clip for 48 games, paced Pacific Coast League regulars through last Sunday.

The overall leader was young Dave Mann, fresh out of Oregon State College, with a 1.000 average. Mann, signed Sunday by Oakland, went in as a pinch hitter and rapped out a double in his only time at bat.

Jack Graham of the circuit leading San Diego Padres headed the runs batted in division with 45 in 228 trips to the plate, and 69 contests.

Veteran outfielder Max West of Los Angeles retained home run hitting honors with 15 in 55 games.

Lead Boosted By Victoria

CLARKSTON, Wash. (AP)—Charley Congdon of Tacoma led a field of top Pacific Northwest amateurs and professionals entering the final 36-hole round of the Washington State Open Golf Tournament Tuesday.

The Tacoma pro shaved four strokes off par Monday, carding a 67 for the second 18-hole round at the Clarkston Golf and Country Club. That gave him a 136 for 36 holes and a two - stroke lead over the field.

Eddie Hogan, Portland professional, was second at 138, and Bill Welch, Kennewick pro, was third at 139.

Bracketed at 140 were professionals Duane Bergstrom of Pullman and Bud Ward of Great Falls, Mont. Defending champion Emery Zimmerman, Portland Ray Honsberger, Clarkston, and Harry Umbinetti, Seattle, all professionals, and amateur Paul Johanson, Seattle, were tied at 141.

BAD NEWS

NEW YORK (AP)—It's bad news for NFL foes of the New York Giants. Arnie Weinmeister, All-Pro tackle, has signed for his third year with the club. The 29-year-old, 235-pound Weinmeister is captain of the formidable Giant defensive line.

PCC Says Nix To Recruits

PORTLAND (AP) — Coaches and Pacific Coast Conference officials alike expressed desire Tuesday to keep their colleges out of the athlete - recruiting business.

"The problem is the top five per cent of the athletes —the ones that all the alumni want to see their schools get," said Howie Odell, University of Washington football coach and head of a football coaches' committee discussing such problems.

FEW PROBLEMS

Odell implied conference schools had cleaned up their sports program to the point where 95 per cent of the athletes posed no problems.

The big problem remaining is how to curb what he called "outsiders — over-zealous alumni or others who go after the prize athletes, the top five per cent.

"We're tired of the subterfuge," Odell continued. "What we want is to set up a structure where we can be 100 per cent honest."

His group, along with others composed of athletic directors and faculty representatives from the nine conference schools continued the discussions started Monday on how to end recruiting and subsidization.

SECRECY

These sessions were closed to the public, and details were not disclosed.

Victor Schmidt, conference commissioner, said any decisions reached would be announced before the annual meeting of the officials ends Thursday.

Also to come up are decisions on television policy of the conference, whether to combine the conference's two basketball divisions into one unit, and whether to authorize a spring training period for basketball.

Hogan Honored, Hailed As Ace Links Battler

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.

DALLAS (AP) — They feted Ben Hogan Monday night as one of golf's greatest competitors when Texas sports fans and golf bigwigs tossed a dinner to mark Hogan's formal induction into the Texas Sports Hall of Fame.

Two days from now they'll "fade" him in one of golf's greatest gambles—the United States Open championship tournament.

The grim little man from nearby Fort Worth was on everyone's mind as the 162 star shotmakers who will start play in the 52nd open Thursday morning tested the difficult, tree - lined Northwood course.

Hogan's rivals don't like to concede that Ben can win the title for the third straight year — and the fourth in as many successive attempts for him. But at the same time they find it hard to pick against him.

The tournament tourists readily admit that luck counts for almost as much as skill and experience in winning any event. It is especially true in the National Open, where the stakes and the pressure are greater. They figure the laws of chance will be against Hogan.

Only two players, Willie Anderson and the great Bobby Jones, ever have won the Open four times.

Henry vs. Moore June 26

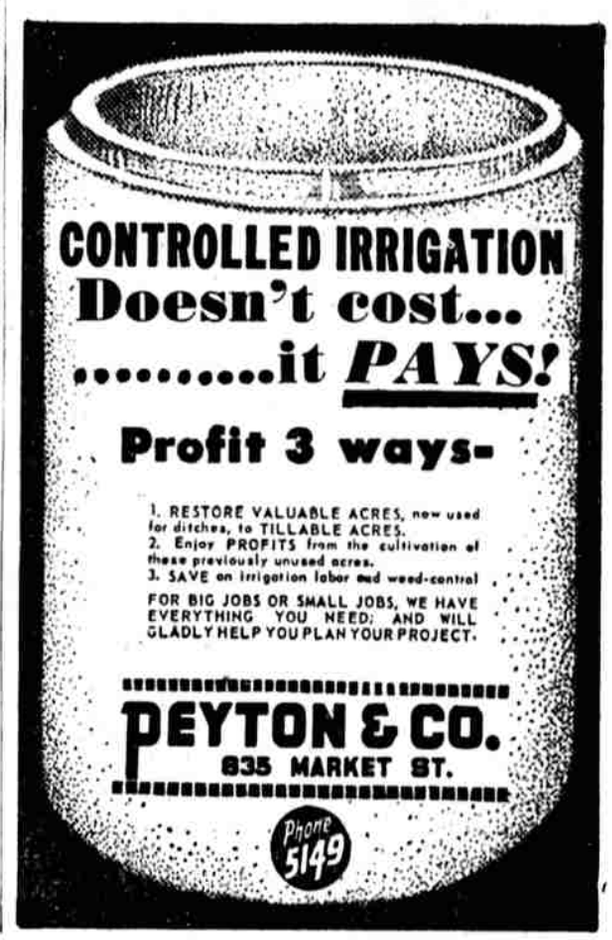
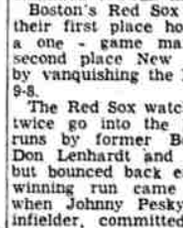
BALTIMORE (AP) — Clarence Henry, ranking California heavyweight, and Arachie Moore of St. Louis will trade blows in a 10-round bout June 26 at Municipal Stadium.




The contract signed Monday reportedly gives Henry a $15,000 guarantee. Moore, rated No. 2 light heavyweight, has been assured of $10,000.
