FORT KLAMATH

By MYRTLE WIMMER
 After spending the winter months as companion of Mrs. Elizabeth M. Lookey at her home at Lookey's General Merchandise store, Taylor and Klamath Falls, she returned to her home at the Denton ranch.

Here for the Memorial Day weekend were the Mills Hennehan and Leonard Smith, both of Oregon State College at Corvallis, and Donald Roeder, who is attending Southern Oregon at Ashland.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hennehan have reopened their Fort Creek Motor Lodge for the season after having recently returned from Bakersfield, Calif., where they spent the winter.

With the opening of Sun Mountain pass Highway 232, for the season, Francis Kirk has started operating his Junction service station, located at the Junction of highways 232 and 62, at the foot of Sun Mountain one mile south of Ft. Klamath.

Klarn Yeager is now employed as a mechanic by the Pope and Talbot Lumber Co. at Oakridge. His wife and two small children, now living at Denton Park, plan to join him soon at his new place of employment, and in the meantime, Mr. Yeager is working as waitress at Charles J. Brisco's Crater Lake Cafe. During her hours of absence, her children are being cared for at the Yeage home by Patty Lou Hescock.

Eight members of the local Explorer scout group enjoyed a fishing and camping trip at Long Creek over the past weekend. Accompanying the boys were their explorer adviser, Wilbur B. Hescock and Donald Hennehan, committee chairman.

Mr. and Mrs. James Van Wormer went Sunday evening to Ontario, Ore., where he was called as a witness in a civil damage suit held there June 3 and 4.

Visiting relatives here for a week are Mr. and Mrs. Turner and Mrs. Stella Lippert of Portland. The two women are sisters, and during their stay are house guests at the home of their brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Engle, and also their sister, Mrs. M. J. Turner, and other relatives, including Mrs. Mildred Castel, widow of Mrs. Turner's son, the late Alfred B. Castel Sr. Expected to arrive this weekend from Los Angeles, Calif., are another sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Castel Sr., who are a day before going on to Portland to see other relatives. Mrs. Turner and Mrs. Lippert will return with Mr. and Mrs. Hatch to their homes in Portland. The women are all members of the Wood River Valley Engle family.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Smith and children visited here Friday at the home of his parents and brother, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley J. Smith and son Leonard, returning in all from a week's vacation in Klamath Falls. Smith is employed as a subforeman of the road construction job now underway on highway 97 near Klamath Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Maloney are moving back from Klamath Falls to the guard station at Seven Mile, where Maloney is again stationed this season as ranger with the U. S. forest service.

Mrs. Robert E. Gorden left by plane from Klamath Falls Thursday evening, May 29, on a much-anticipated trip during which she will visit for a month at Peoria, Illinois, with her daughter and family. Mr. and Mrs. Dick Jockisch and children.

All of us all concerned, I wish to make correction of two errors in recent news items. The first—Eimmet Sismore wasn't elected president of the Wood River Pioneers and Old Timers organization last August; on the contrary, the late Robert B. Castel Sr. was chosen to head the group, and Sismore was elected to serve as vice-president, succeeding to the office of president on the death of Castel on December 6 of last year.

Also, in reporting a near-fatal wood chopper accident at the Lumby Co. logging operations west of here last week, it was mistakenly stated by me that Frank Emery was top-loader—whereas he is employed as hooker, with Andy Ortis of Chiloquin running the shovel and loading the trucks. True, Emery seems that Leon Pearson is operator of a T-D 24 tractor instead of a D 24 tractor as the correction department at this time, as no other mistakes have been noted.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Miller Sr. have returned to their Fort Klamath home on Wood River after spending the winter and early spring at the Miller ranch at Red Bluff, Calif. Also back for the season are Mr. and Mrs. Joe Mason, Aluff and family, who are here Tuesday of this week from Red Bluff where they too spent the winter.

Old-time friends here were saddened to hear of the death on Thursday, May 29, of another of our musical talents, the late Dr. Donald F. Gertrude Pittman. Dr. Pittman (Gertrude Pittman) Lawton, who passed away at a nursing home in Ashland, Ore., following an extended illness.

Born on October 21st, 1886, at Nehawka, Nebraska, Gertrude Pittman was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jacob H. Pittman. On October 13th, 1914, she became the bride of Dennison F. Lawton, Fort Klamath rancher, and they made their home here until 1946, when they moved to Medford to reside.

In addition to her husband, Mrs. Lawton is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Frank W. H. Houston of Talent, Ore., and Mrs. George A. Lisk of Alameda, Calif.

Funeral services were held at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon, June 2, at the Pearl Funeral Home in Medford, with a pastor from the Church of Christ, Scientists, officiating. Graveside services and interment were in Siskiyou Memorial Park in Medford.

Acting as pallbearers were Raymond C. Lookey, William C. Hackler, Albert Denton, and Carl Green at Fort Klamath; Frank Lookey of Cave Junction, Ore.; William Norris of Medford, and a son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Houston, whose name was not learned.

Making the trip to Medford to pay the last respects to the late beloved Wood River valley pioneer matron were the following friends from Fort Klamath: Mr. and Mrs. Raymond S. Lookey, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Hackler, Mrs. Frank Denton, Delbert Denton, Mrs. Margaret E. Denton, Mrs. River Pioneers and Old Timers organization of Fort Klamath and include Alfred B. Castel, Sr., president of the group, who passed away here on December 6th of last year; Carrie Dixon of Roseburg, whose death occurred Tuesday, May 15; Mrs. Edna Norris Pomeroy, who died in Medford on Feb. 15; James Roland "Jerry" Sismore, to whom death came on May 20, at Klamath Valley Hospital in Klamath Falls, and Mrs. Dennison F. Lawton, deceased on May 29 at Ashland, Ore.
