Ship Strike Tension Down

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Tensions eased Thursday after the AFL dock officers voted not to picket East Coast and foreign flag ships entering strikebound Pacific Coast ports.

Instead, the Masters, Mates and Pilots Union decided to arbitrate its dispute with the shipowners' Pacific Maritime Association.

The dock officers had threatened the boycott after shipowners discharged all but the captain and first mate from ships tied up by the 18-day-old strike by the AFL Sailors Union of the Pacific.

The MMP demanded that the masters and at least three mates be kept on tied up ships at regular pay.

PMA, through President J. Paul St. Sure, said:

"We will enter the arbitration procedure in the hope that any unresolved matters may be worked out harmoniously in the general interest of waterfront peace."

Harry Lundeberg, SUP secretary-treasurer, said his union will clear and man a ship to carry 12,000 tons of food supplies to Alaska for the military and civilians.

A barge laded with 5,000 tons of food for Hawaii was expected to leave before Sunday.

No progress has been reported in efforts to settle the sailors strike. The union demands a 5 per cent wage boost and Saturday overtime pay at sea. Shipowners refuse to arbitrate unless guaranteed a one year contract with a no strike pledge. The union wants any agreement subject to cancellation on 60 days' notice.
