Soup Scoops Quick Meals

Summer is the height of the quick-meal season. That's when soups and sandwiches play leading parts in your design for eating. Such meals are play-easy to fix. And what a wonderful way to accomplish your main aim in summer meal planning—setting a good table and still keeping the cook cool. There's pleasant, wholesome nourishment in soup-sandwich meals. All you have to do is put a luscious looking sandwich next to a bowl of temptingly fragrant soup; then watch while appetites perk up.

SOUP-SANDWICH DANDIES

CREAM OF MUSHROOM SOUP. (Garnish with sliced stuffed olives, grated cheese or whole-kernel corn.) Serve with deluxe club sandwich of sliced chicken, cranberry sauce and cream cheese on toast. Or have bacon and peanut butter sandwiches.

TOMATO SOUP. (Garnish with a bright wedge of lemon or a shake of grated Parmesan cheese.) Make sandwiches of crunchy ham-celery salad on whole wheat. Or try cottage cheese with chopped nuts and lettuce on rye.

CHICKEN WITH RICE SOUP. (Garnish with toasted slivered almonds or minced green pepper.) Have sandwiches of sliced egg and lettuce on poppy seed rolls. Or team with bacon-tomato sandwiches.

CREOLE STYLE PORK CHOPS are a party-ried version of an old favorite dish. Make them by cooking 4 chops with flour, then browning in a skillet; pour a can of condensed chicken gumbo soup over chops. Cook about 45 minutes, until fork tender. Pour the scrumptious pan gravy over the chops to serve.

SPAGHETTI-HAM ROLLS are an out-of-this-world dish made with sauced spaghetti in tomato sauce. Make six thin slices of boiled ham; spread each with a little horseradish and mustard. Then divide the spaghetti among the slices of ham; roll each slice around spag-

Shakespeare Lives Again As Young Actors Rehearse

ASHLAND — The Shakespearean festival spirit will strike the Rogue River valley in earnest next week, when the vanguard of some 100 young actors, actresses and musicians from 20 states arrive in Ashland for auditions for festival roles on Monday and Tuesday, June 16 and 17. Casting will be an all-night job for the four play-directors on Tuesday, and rehearsals will begin on Wednesday, June 18.

Although the festival company will be in rehearsal every afternoon and evening until opening, the festival players will still find time for a varied social life sponsored by friends of the festival in Ashland. Production at the festival this year are "The Tempest," "Henry V," "Much Ado About Nothing," and "Julius Caesar." They will be played in rotation in that order, with a different play every evening including Sundays. August 29 will be devoted to an entire evening of Elizabethan music.

The board of directors of the association said that advance sales were expected to be high this year, with a season of popular plays and the new music program as drawing cards. Since the festival was resumed in 1947, an increase in attendance of at least 25 per cent has been marked up each year, and 1952 was expected to be no exception.

Some 12,000 people visited the festival in 1951.

hetti and fasten with toothpicks. Now place in a greased baking dish and sprinkle with grated cheese; heat in moderate oven about 15 minutes or until lightly browned on top. A summer supper specialty.

FOR SPARKLING SALAD, make one with a can of condensed tomato soup. First soften 1 envelope of unflavored gelatin in 1/2 cup cold water. Heat the soup just to boiling; stir in the softened gelatin and 1 teaspoon grated onion. Pour mixture into 1 large or 4 individual molds that have been rinsed with cold water. Chill until firm. Unmold on lettuce. Serve with a top-knot of cottage cheese. 4 servings.

HONEY CELERY SEED DRESSING

(Delicious on Fruit or Vegetable Salads)
Mix one teaspoon dry mustard, one teaspoon salt, one-half teaspoon paprika in mixing bowl. Add one-half cup honey and blend well. Add one cup salad oil and one-fourth cup vinegar alternately, beating well with rotary egg beater after each addition. Add one teaspoon grated onion and one tablespoon celery seed. Yield: About 1 2/3 cups dressing.
