

OFFICERS OF THE KLAMATH CHAPTER of the National Secretaries' Association present for a banquet meeting June 6 at the Willard Hotel are (l to r) Mary Mills, multi-lith operator, Oregon Technical Institute; Marjorie Comer, accountant-clerk, business office OTI, and Beulah Adreon with the Production Marketing Administration, federal agency on South Sixth Street. Miss Mills is the incoming president; Miss Comer is the retiring president, and Beulah Adreon is the newly elected vice-president.

Butter Makes Them Better

June is Dairy Month. And it is an ideal time to pay tribute to the flavor queen of the dairy industry—natural golden butter. There is no substitute for butter flavor, famous chefs claim. Too, butter is delicious food fat, rich in vitamins and an excellent source of health-giving energy.

Butter gives simple everyday foods a gourmet touch. Fresh vegetables, creamed dishes, crisp fried foods, hot breads and cakes are all made tastier and more delicious by using butter.

A special treat for sunny June mornings is golden waffles topped with Raspberry Butter Syrup. By making the waffles with butter they come off the griddle crisp, extra-rich and tender—a mighty good breakfast eating!

A treat for luncheon or supper is Butter Surprise Muffins. They are easy to make and your family will be delighted with the "surprise" in each muffin.

Summer vegetables will have an "out of this world" flavor if dressed with a delicious, yet simple, butter sauce. For variety and flavor add a tablespoon of chopped chives, parsley, fresh mint or your favorite herb. This sauce is extra good on fish or seafood, too.

over low heat until sugar has dissolved. Stir in melted butter and lemon juice. Cook until syrupy but not thick. Serve warm. Frost of frozen strawberries may be substituted for the raspberries.

Butter Surprise Muffins
1/2 cup butter
4 Tbsp. sugar
2 eggs, well beaten
3 cups flour
5 tsp. baking powder
1/2 tsp. salt
1 1/2 cups milk

Cream butter, blend in sugar and add well-beaten eggs; beat until fluffy. Sift and measure flour; sift with baking powder and salt. Add to the creamed mixture; add milk and stir just enough to mix ingredients. Drop a tablespoon of batter into buttered muffin pans, and in center of each place a teaspoon of ground baked beans, grated cheese, chopped crisp bacon, jam or peanut butter. Cover with another tablespoon of batter, filling each pan about 2-3 full. Bake in hot oven, 425 F., for 25 minutes.

Lemon-Butter Sauce
4 Tbsp. butter
1 Tbsp. lemon juice
Melt butter and add lemon juice. Serve over freshly cooked vegetables.
