Vote Set In Baker Strike

AFL bakers in Tacoma and Portland were voting Thursday on the employers' latest offer in the six-week-old Pacific Northwest bakery strike. And in Tacoma at least there was a possibility the walk-out at seven major bakeries might be nearing an end.

Union Representative Rudolph Davis said Tacoma bakers were offered a six cents an hour weekly increase and an employer-paid welfare plan costing management $8.66 per man a month.

J. C. Crawford, union secretary, said the offer also includes a five day work week with Saturday and one other day off. The schedule will be decided in each plant.

Bakers in Portland, Tacoma, Seattle and Spokane went on strike May 2. A demand for Saturday and Sunday off was one of the major issues.

Spokane bakers reached an agreement early this week and returned to their jobs.

Action Resumed In Kader Case

PORTLAND (U)—Selection of a jury to try Mrs. Jada Z. Kader, 22, on a murder charge in the death of her daughter Sherrie Ellen, was resumed Thursday with an expanded jury panel.

All of the names were exhausted Wednesday. Since the case opened Monday, 42 prospective jurors have been questioned. A number have been excused because of objection to inflicting the death penalty and others because they said they had formed an opinion in the case.

Meier & Frank Staffer Dies

PORTLAND (U)—Ludwig Hirsch, on the Meier and Frank store staff for 71 years, died here Wednesday. He was treasurer of the firm at the time of his death.

Funeral services were set for 3 p.m. Thursday and the store was to be closed from 2 p.m. for the rest of the day.

Hirsch was 87. He became a director of the firm in 1911, 30 years after starting to work there.
