The next meeting of the Gilchrist Community Garden Club will be held at the Club June 18. All members are to bring the scrapbooks they have been keeping to enter for the prizes to be awarded the best entries. Delegates to the state convention were Mrs. Verne Brader of Chemult and Mrs. Terrell of Gilchrist. They are the new president and vice-president for the coming year. Mrs. S. C. Galbreath also attended the convention.

Snow melting along Miller Creek faster than usual created quite a problem at the Beaver Marsh Airport the last week. It began over flowing the drainage ditch and left a good portion of the field flooded. Efforts to deepen the ditches and clean them out were of no avail as the equipment would sink before anything could be accomplished.

A few friends of Mrs. Ray Darnell met at the home of Mrs. Wm. Taylor in honor of her birthday. The cake was made by Mrs. C. C. Long and was decorated with spring flowers. The evening was spent sewing.

Fishermen Back to Boats

ASTORIA (AP)— Bottom fishermen, idle since May 1 in a dispute over prices, have accepted new offers from four Astoria district packers.

Members of the Otter Trawlers Union and the Offshore Fishing Vessel Owners Association tied up their boats when packers announced a 15 per cent cut in most fish prices.

The packers this week agreed to restore the prices for most species, but petrale sole was cut 1 ½ cents a pound, English sole 1 cent and ling cod 2 cents.

Newport, Ore., bottom fishermen returned to work under a similar agreement.

FORT KLAMATH

By MYRTLE WIMER

Roy Wimer was called to Bandon last week by news of the death of his nephew, Alvin J.Morrey,49, and the latter's son-in,law, 23-year-old Donald Herbert Hall, of Bandon. The fatalities were the result of a truck-car collision near Coquille. Wimer is employed here as a truckdriver for the Modoc Lumber Co., and his home is in Medford. Making the trip to Bandon for final rites for Morrey and Hall were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wimer and their daughter, Mrs. Elmer Zumbrun, all of Medford. During his absence, Don Wimer drove his truck for the two two days.

Jim Dyche is enjoying a furlough till June 16 from a paratroop division at Fort Bragg. He is at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas O. Dyche.

Also arriving home Sunday for a 10-day leave from the Air Force at March Field, was pfc. Wilfred Loosley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond S. Loosley. Other guests at the Loosley home are their son-in-law, daughter and two little granddaughters, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Byous and girls of Eunice, N. M. Byous is a member of the Eunice High School faculty, and is now attending summer school at Oregon State College. Mrs. Byous is the former Ethelva Loosley, and her family expect to visit here a week at the Loosley home.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bronson, their daughter, Dorothy, and son, Carson, have moved to Canyonville to make their home. They have retained their residential property here, however, and plan to return to visit from time to time.

Mr. and Mrs. John Grant, former owners of the Wood River Motel, now owned and operated by Walter Midkiff, were visitors in this vicinity last week, while on a vacation trip from their home near San Luis Obispo. Mrs. Streeter is a 72-year-old pioneer of the Wood River Valley, where she and her husband have been engaged in raising registered shorthorn cattle for forty-two years.

Mrs. Bert Gray left here Friday, bound for La Grande, Ore., where she will act as delegate for Fort Klamath Grange No. 774 at the State Grange convention being held there this week.

Mrs. Olaf Ericksen has returned to her home at the Modoc Lumber Company's camp at Seven Mile. Demonstration Fails in Italy

ROME (AP) — A Communist-inspired "mass demonstration" against Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway fizzled out in the Italian capital Thursday.

Barely 400 "partisans of peace" turned up for two hours of anti-American harangues. Since the partisans of peace claimed more than a million Romans signed the Stockholm peace appeal, the turnout represented dismal failure.
