Red Activity Near Crash

ROENNE, Denmark (AP)—Fishermen returning from the Danish Baltic island of Bornholm Saturday reported sighting a Soviet air-sea maneuvering in the area where a Swedish Air Force DC-3 transport plane with a crew of eight disappeared Friday.

The missing plane took off from Hagerstrom Air Base near Stockholm on a routine trip to the Swedish Baltic island of Gotland. The crew had instructions to report their position every 20 minutes. The last call came in at 11:25 a.m., three minutes before the scheduled time.

On the previous call, 17 minutes earlier, the plane gave its position as about 30 miles east of the northern tip of Gotland.

An intensive search has been going on over wide areas of the Baltic, but so far no trace of the missing transport has been reported. Bornholm fishermen reported seeing hundreds of Russian jet fighters roaming the skies between the island and the mainland. They also said they observed large numbers of Soviet submarines and surface warships in the area.

Sleeper Wins Court Test

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP)—The mere act of going to sleep, even if driving an automobile, is not gross negligence or willful misconduct, according to the Florida Supreme Court ruled.

So the court gave the nod Friday to L. D. Bryan, a man who admitted he nodded the wheel. Bryan was sued for $10,000 damages by his former wife, Peggy, for injuries suffered in an accident. The court said in rejecting damages there was no evidence to show that Bryan had been drinking or driving so long without sleep that he would have known driving would have been dangerous.

It Happened This Way

New Pine Creek

By IRVIN FARIS
Shore town—whooped! These shores on top of the swell rain we got last Thursday night—plus the lovely Friday afternoon drench—makes most all lovers of and dependent upon growing things—cry out with joy! Why not? When the crops were beginning to dry out—for moisture? June rains usually lengthen the root—and make the crops. You cry—I cry—everybody—cries out for joy! This a happy world then—unless it freezes!

Shows, showers, showers—What a blessing! But these are different showers now—the kind that make the young married couples happy! Makes their community life more interesting with that certain attachment of gift with the giver and, last but not least—the economic household requirements right on the first hard pull, less rigid.

That's the kind that the diminutive, little couple, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Ross got last Friday night over in the Grange Hall. It was a well attended event and everybody was glad to have a hand in making them feel happy so they received many useful gifts.

The committee in charge of this highly social affair was Mrs. Gertrude Vincent, Mrs. Mary Snider and Mrs. Sara Johnson of New Pine Creek, and Mrs. Rose Martin, Mrs. Myrtle McDonald, and Mrs. Birdie Sund of Willow Ranch.

A bridal shower will be given for Mr. and Mrs. Jim Mulvey Wednesday evening, June 11. Jim has been in the service about a year now with three and an half to go. He has been home on an eighteen day furlough but will have to leave this Thursday. His wife, is going back with him to his base in Roswell, New Mexico. So in order to give these youngsters the proper send-off, a committee was quickly thrown together, headed by Mrs. Gertrude Vincent, Mrs. Sara Johnson, Mrs. Myrtle McDonald, Mrs. Birdie Sund of Willow Ranch, Mrs. Margaret Carter, Mrs. Sara Johnson, Mrs. Louise Miller, Mrs. Frankie Williams, and Mrs. Ethel Cundiff. About the same number attended from Willow Ranch, and all had a jolly time.

Too bad dept: Charlie Vincent was being host to one mighty fine party, for dinner and a show, over at Springfield, Oregon. The animal had been priced to him for $2,500 but Charles shied away from such big money. However, Chester, from whom Vincent has purchased the animal, is gratified that the animal will be put to use in the best of ways.

There being no veterinarian in Klamath Falls, Doctor J. T. Riker, to come over and make an autopsy and report on the cause of the animal's sudden death. Heart stoppage, apparently, was the cause but the animal had snapped his neck when he fell. It was ascertained. The beautiful Herford was insured for $1,500.

Mrs. Carmen Fleming returned with her husband from a Portland Clinic last Friday evening. We met them coming in just as we were going out, with the two youngest, to celebrate our 27th wedding anniversary—for dinner and a show. Mrs. Fleming was given a nerve block which relieves the pain and was prescribed a series of hourly exercises to release certain bone pressure on a nerve that feeds the left arm. If this routine does not help and if a semblance of permanent relief has not been restored when she returns for a check up in a month's time, an operation to remove a portion of the collar bone may be necessary. She was advised not to do any housework past the partake of her most favorite pastime—that of playing the piano which she been able to do none of for the past three months.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Porter, motored to Round Mountain week ago Sunday and brought home J.C. Cloud. Mrs. Porter's father who will spend the summer here with his daughter and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Robnett accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Frankie Robnett took their daughter, Mrs. Ethyl Thompson to a Portland clinic today for a check-up on an operation, performed several months ago. They plan to visit in Sweet Home and Newberg along the way on their return trip after taking in the Rose Festival in Portland.

Bert Scrivner has received a 24 day furlough from the navy and arrived home today. First thing he did, almost, was go fishing.

Leta Perry was baby sitting this evening with her little baby brother while her folks went to a show. When she went to put him to bed with a bottle she discovered the bottle had been left in the car and he or she had none. She had to come to town and get one—just a four mile ride but what would it have been fifty years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Robnett accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Frankie Robnett took their daughter, Mrs. Ethyl Thompson to a Portland clinic today for a check-up on an operation, performed several months ago. They plan to visit in Sweet Home and Newberg along the way on their return trip after taking in the Rose Festival in Portland.

There will be a bridal shower at the parish hall on June 19 in honor of Mrs. Cecil Ballerina the former Betty Noble. It is being sponsored by the Langell Valley Women's Club. Everyone is asked to bring their gift and paper and wrap it at the party. There will be a prize for the nicest wrapping. All friends are cordially invited.

Mrs. Kate Phillips mother of Mrs. Ivan Welch has received her "Gold Deed For a Good Deed" to an acre of "Lucky U Ranch" land. The legal deed will be sent as soon as the legal formalities of issuing the deed have been completed. The good deed letter was written by a good friend Mrs. Rose Kukoski of Grants Pass and was acknowledged over the radio broadcast of the Lucky U Ranch and many friends heard it. The acre is located ten miles from the Palo Verde Valley Klamath Falls hospital where he received treatment for a bad knee for four or five days.

Mr. and Mrs. Mervyn Clarke and Dorel have moved here from Grover, Utah. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Neal Jones. Betty Jones, their other daughter came home Monday from Ogden where she attended Weber college.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Puddy left Saturday morning for San Francisco to spend several days there. The St. Barnabas Guild will hold their monthly card party at the parish hall on June 14. Everyone

Marie Hoesly-Horley vs. Earl H. Hoesly-Horley, suit for divorce, charge, cruelty. Couple married at Stevenson, Wash. Plaintiff asks custody one minor child, $100 a month. J. C. O'Neill, attorney for plaintiff.

Two persons arrested Friday night on drunk driving charges were given 30-day County Jail sentences this morning on guilty pleas in District Court.

They were Joseph Howard Ray, 34, Route 3, Box 1215, and Ben Hughes, 24, 1337 Emerald.

Hughes had the misfortune of crashing his car into a State Police vehicle which had stopped for a traffic sign on Riverside. Hughes said his brakes grabbed and threw his car broadside into the back end of the police car.

Both vehicles were damaged. In addition to the 30-day jail sentence, Hughes was sentenced to an extra 10 days for having no operator's license, and assessed $10 court costs.

Ray was arrested after he was found passing a car which was stopped in the middle of the highway just below Algoma. A truck driver, Ted Vilis of Southgate, Calif., came upon the stalled car first and placed flares around it.

When a State Police car—the same one involved in the wreck a few minutes earlier—arrived Ray was still asleep, the patrolman reported, a nearly-empty bottle of wine clutched in his lap.

He was given the 30-day jail sentence for driving while intoxicated, and another 10 days for being drunk on a public highway, and charged $10 court costs in addition.

GRAINS

CHICAGO (AP)—Major grains dipped slightly while rye advanced a couple of cents at times on the board of trade Saturday.

The decline in wheat left that cereal not far above the seasonal lows, but bulls were heartened by the fact those points were not reached.

Large arrivals of cash wheat at southwestern terminals brought up selling pressure.

Strength in rye apparently was based on more disturbing reports on crop conditions in the northwest, parts of which are suffering from a drought.

Wheat closed 1/4-3/8 lower, July $2.31 1/2, corn 3/4 lower to 1/4 higher, July $1.84 1/2, oats unchanged to 1/4 lower, July 79 3/4, rye 1 to 2 cents higher, July $2.12, soybeans 1/4-1/2 higher, July 3.26 1/4, and lard 8 to 17 cents a hundred pounds lower, July $12.05.

LIVESTOCK

CHICAGO (AP)—Hogs, cattle and sheep held nominally steady at the livestock market Saturday.

A sharp drop in shipping demand, which has been a main drop under the hog market for several weeks, backgrounded a decline of 25 to 50 cents in barrows, gilts and sows this week. Wholesale trade on fresh pork also was lower, some cuts sinking $2.00 to $3.00.

Most steers as well as heifers sold mostly steady this week, although in a few instances declines of 25 to 50 cents were recorded. The top at $36.25, paid for one load of prime light steers, was a new low since late November, 1950. Other sections of the cattle market declined.

Sheep and lamb receipts expanded substantially at all markets this week. Locally, spring lambs lost 50 cents to $1.00, old crop fed lambs dropped to $1.00 to $1.50 while slaughter sheep were marked down $1.00.

Progressives Want Air Time

NEW YORK (AP)—The Progressive Party says it has begun legal action in an effort to force the major radio-television networks to devote more time to its presidential convention.

The party said it had mailed complaints to the Federal Communications Commission and the Justice Department accusing networks of discriminating against it.

"The party said the networks are 'virtually blanketing out' its convention in Chicago July 4-6 while planning to devote full coverage to the two major parties. It wants equal time.
