Barkdoll-Alexander Nuptials In St. Paul's Episcopal Church

At six o'clock in the evening, June 1, in St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Martha Janette (Jan) Barkdoll, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil L. Barkdoll, 3206 Bisbee, became the bride of Lennie Earl Alexander, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Alexander, Peck Drive. The double ring service was read by Rev. Galen Onstad before a large group of invited guests and relatives.

Escorted by her father, who gave her in marriage, the bride was lovely in a gown of ivory satin. Her fingertip nylon tulle veil was held by a crown of satin and seed pearls. She carried a white prayer book centered with a gardenia and lilies of the valley tied with white satin streamers. Her only jewelry was a dainty necklace of diamonds, an heirloom, once belonging to her grandmother, which was given to the bride by her father.

She wore the traditional blue garter, carried a handkerchief borrowed from her aunt and a penny was in her slipper.

Mrs. Vern Barkdoll, sister-in-law of the bride was matron of honor. She wore a floor length dress of orchid lace with matching sweetheart hat and mitts. Her bouquet was of yellow roses.

Little Dee Milne, in yellow nylon dress, matching hat and mitts, was flower girl. Her brother, Terry, was ring bearer. They are the children of Mr. and Mrs. William D. Milne.

Aldo Andreatta was best man, and ushers were Vern Barkdoll, brother of the bride, and Shannon Oldham.

Janice Larson was organist and accompanied Ronnie Bryan, soloist.

Mrs. Barkdoll chose an ashes-of-roses lace afternoon dress with pink and navy accessories, for her daughter's wedding, and her corsage was of pink rosebuds.

Mrs. Alexander wore a black and
