

Donna Lee Turner Early June Bride

WEDDING — A pretty summer wedding was celebrated Sunday, June 8, at the Merrill recreation hall. United in marriage were Donna Lee Turner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Turner, Merrill...

Rev. George A. Milne, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, Merrill, officiated at the 2 p.m. service. Traditional wedding music was played by Arlene Leander, best man was Clifford Turner, cousin of the bride.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white tullea, short length dress, made with a strapless collar and full flared skirt. A small white hat, and white sandals completed the ensemble. She carried a bouquet of white carnations tied with blue satin ribbons.

Donna's twin sister Barbara was her bridesmaid, wearing a pink tullea, small white hat, and white sandals. Her bouquet was of white carnations.

The two small nieces of the bride, Deborah and Virginia Wolfgram, dressed in yellow organza acted as flower girls.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Turner wore a green and white print dress with white accessories. The bridegroom's mother Mrs. Karrer wore a navy and white print. Her accessories were white. Both had bouquets of white carnations.

A reception immediately followed the ceremony. A three-tiered wedding cake, trimmed with silver leaves, and topped with a bell and miniature bride and groom centered the lace-covered refreshment table. Mrs. C. M. Gahlin served the connection after the newly-weds had cut the first slice. Wilma Paulk and Carol Winter served punch. Mrs. Ben Wolfgram, sister of the bride, assisted about the room.

Out of town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Karrer, aunt and uncle of the bridegroom, and Mr. and Mrs. Loren Karrer, his brother and wife, all of Trinity Center, Calif. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Allan and daughter of Dorris, Calif., and Mrs. Hilda "Daisy" Jarrett, grandmother, Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Collier and son, Clarence Smith, and Ruth Patterson all of Weed, Calif. The young couple is now at home in Klamath Falls.

Naomi Shrine 5 OWSJ Degrees

Three candidates were given the degree of the Order of the White Shrine of Jerusalem at an impressive ceremony held by Naomi Shrine 5 at the Masonic Temple, Tuesday evening, June 3, with Blanche Schulze, Worthy High Priestess, and James Hunter, Watchman of Shepherds, presiding. Among the guests present and escorted to the East and given honors were Sojourners Wayne Laughlin, Watchman of Shepherds, Oregon Shrine 1, Portland; William Schooler, Deputy Supreme Watchman of Shepherds, Guiding Star Shrine 40, Redding; George Retterath, Deputy Supreme WOS, Naomi Shrine 5, Klamath Falls; Blanche Marks, District Chairman of Material Objective, Naomi Shrine 5, also of Klamath Falls; and Albert Bryson, Past Watchman of Shepherds of Guiding Star Shrine of Redding, and Jack Metler, Dr. J. C. Hunt and Jack Schulze, Past Watchmen of Shepherds of Naomi Shrine. Sojourners Cecil Laughlin, First Handmaid of Oregon Shrine, and Edna Bryson, Noble Proprietess, Ruby Schooler, Worthy Shepherdes, and Myra Williams, Second Handmaid, all of Guiding Star Shrine, Redding, were introduced.

This is the month in which we honor our flag, and Sojourner Mary Lee Stanley gave a beautiful tribute to the Stars and Stripes to our country. The new Sojourners, Myrtle Ackerman, Katherine Ligman and Richard A. MacDonald spoke briefly expressing appreciation, as did each of the guests.

Following the meeting, refreshments were served in the banquet room by a committee composed of Sojourners Beatrice Demson, Chairman, Charlotte Martin (both Naomi Shrine) and Ruth Rodenberger, Louise O'Brien and Vera Linkenbach. The tables were attractively decorated with flowers and small American flags, carrying out the patriotic theme.

During the social hour, the group was entertained with square dancing by a few of the members of the Klamath Do-Si-Do Club, arranged by Sojourners John D. and Mary Lee Stanley. Participating were May Antle, B. M. Antle, Nancy Antle, Ann Erwin, Melvin Erwin, Marion Livville, "Jeff" Livville, and Wayne Bergloff, with John Stanley as "Caller."

Naomi Shrine is suspending meetings during the months of July and August. Next meeting will be September 2, preceded by a potluck supper. A picnic is planned during the summer. The time and place will be announced later.

REFLECTIONS FROM MILLY'S MIRROR LINDA KATHRYN ALLEN — had the whole back shop in an uproar when she took her own sweet time to show up — but she did! — all 7 lbs. 7 oz. of her — Mother Grace was in the Klamath Valley — and papa Lorne was at work — A telephone bell sounded like a three-bell fire alarm — Miss Linda arrived at 3:11 Thursday a.m. and the crew had given up and gone home — Timothy Lionel — her 3 year old brother is eagerly waiting for his new sister to come home.

MARGARET LAMB — from Portland who has so many KF friends made when she lived here — was in town in connection with the Oregon Tubercular Association — She met the various local and out of town officials for a pre-planning session for the mobile chest x-ray unit — just here and back — no time for much visiting.

SUMMER VISITORS — at Roma and Jerry Thomas's home on New-castle — will be Roma's mother and father — Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Priester from Davenport, Iowa — they stopped to see friends and relatives in Lebanon and Everett, Wash. — and will go home via California — spending a short time in San Jose — or more specifically Lick Observatory on Mt. Hamilton — where Roma's cousin is engineer — Priester clan in Hollywood is also to be visited before they return home.

BUSY BRIDE AND BRIDE-GROOM — are Eleanora Gloria and her husband Joseph Price Watkins — after their marriage in Reno June 10 — The Allied Petersteiner's parents — and her husbands parents are the Joseph Watkins in Malin — Marion and Merle Kirkpatrick — Merle is Joe's sister — joined them in Reno also Tom Watkins his brother from Fresno — to complete the wedding party — As we started to say — they are a busy couple with various parties in their honor crowding the social calendar — More details later.

YEARS AGO — Frank Lowell and Myron Taylor were schoolmates in Touchet Wash. — They are now neighbors in the Midland District — and on the weekend of the 8th they drove to Touchet for the annual school reunion — their first appearance in 36 years — but still found it easy to renew acquaintances at the picnic — Dorothy Lowell was intrigued and entertained with the rapid reminiscing — although she was until then a stranger to the group who were in the primary grades together — She was amazed at the distance some of them traveled — indicated by out of state license plates.

HOPE THAT — Jane Epley had a happy birthday yesterday — Personally — when I found out that it was Friday the 13th — was amazed that the day had been fairly normal.

LORRAINE JOHNSON — back from SF where she took in the Henri Matisse exhibit — she and her spouse Ed and Dorothy and Don Sutcliffe went down early this month — the men for business — and the gals to do the museums — especially the Matisse showing — only four cities in the US were so
