WTC - Camp 6
By ROSEMARY STONE
Wednesday morning, June 11, there were three inches of new snow, but by noon it had nearly melted, leaving residents here to enjoy a few days of sweet peas, flowers, and strawberry blossoms.
The annual vacation for Weverhaeuser employees is now on, taking in the first two weeks of June. Most of us took short trips of two or three days, and returned to spend the rest of the time just jolling about camp and fishing.
Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Good returned May 18 after spending four days at Eureka where Good's brother resides. They were called there because of a serious accident in which Jim Good lost the better part of four fingers of his left hand in an industrial accident. The G. Goods returned by way of Brookings, where Mrs. Good had a visit with her parents, the Lloyd Harlins.
The Bill Jones of Klamath Falls and the G. Goods made a trip to Surprise Valley, Calif., over the week end of May 24. They spent the night at Timber Mt. Lodge.
The G. Goods left Thursday night May 29 for Roseburg and the home of Mr. Good's parents the R. C. Goods, where they intended to go on a vacation trip taking the elder Goods with them.
Mr. and Mrs. Peter Katchis are spending their vacation in Klamath Falls mostly at the home of the Jim Lampson, 24 E. Main.
Miss Hazel Stark, Wichita, Kansas, is spending an extended vacation here in camp with her sister, Mrs. Glenn Adams.
Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Glassburn and Roger made a trip last week to Bridgeport, Wash., to visit at the home of friends, the David Terris, for a few days.
Mr. and Mrs. Henry Nanders and Beverly made an overnight trip to Grants Pass last week.
The Thomas Thomasons and three children took a trip to the coast and Crescent City. Friday night, June 6 they put their daughter, Georgia on the Cascade Streamliner. She will visit friends near Los Angeles, Calif., for a few weeks.
Mr. and Mrs. D. V. Huck and son D. V. Jr. visited a few days with Mr. Huck's father and family at Applegate, Ore. last week.
Mr. and Mrs. Dick Fairfield and two children spent a few days in the valley visiting friends and relatives at Talent and Medford.
Mr. and Mrs. Bob Ross and family have moved to Sprague River for the summer where Bob is employed as Fire Warden for Weverhaeuser.
Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Heywood and daughter Sidney Ann, San Francisco Calif., spent several days in camp last week visiting at the home of the E. D. Heywoods. Skipper Heywood returned to San Francisco with them for an extended visit.

SOROPTIMIST CLUB MEETING
President Ofa Smith presided at the regular business and luncheon meeting of the Soroptimist club, Thursday, June 12, in the Pelican party room.
The report of club activities were given by secretary Mary Bothwell and Josephine Robinson, treasurer, gave the financial report of the organization.
Ruth Hatten won the award of the day.
Appropriate birthday greetings were "sung" to Bea Mead, Rita Deputy and Dena Backes.
The club voted to give two campships each to the Girl Scouts and the Camp Fire groups, so that four worthy girls might have the benefits from these organizations.
The installation banquet of the Ashland Soroptimist club is to be held on the evening of June 20, at 6:30. Local club members are invited, and anyone who can go, may contact Coral Sabo.
The installation banquet for the Klamath Falls club and Venture club, will be held June 26, at 7:30 in the evening. The banquet will be formal.
The volunteer blood donors for the Bloodmobile due June 17, are urged to contact Ruth Adams as soon as possible.
Ethel Mathews, program chairman, expressed appreciation to club members that had furnished programs for the year.
Muriel Hendricks who has recently returned from Mexico, spoke briefly of her trip. She and her husband were among members of Rotary International that went to Mexico City, and later will show pictures and give a talk of their trip.
All committee chairmen are reminded to file a written report of the year's activities with the president.
The Venture Club will be in charge of the next Soroptimist meeting, June 19.
