

ROUTING RED PRISONERS—Red prisoners run from tear gas and burning huts at hard-hitting U.S. paratroopers move in (June 10) to clean out Compound 76 at Kojima Island prison camp. Many die-hard Communists used home made gas masks in effort to prolong bloody resistance to soldiers. One prisoner struggles with paratrooper on ground (left).

SEIZED — Richard Dean Phelan, 20, was seized in Chicago by the FBI on a charge of evading the draft by trading his I-A draft card with a friend, Robert Hybert, 22, who was classified 4-F. Hybert answered Phelan's induction call by enlisting in the Air Force and was sent to San Antonio, Tex. Phelan said he wanted to remain out of military service until after he was married in August. Phelan was arraigned before U. S. Commissioner C. S. Bentley Pike who set bond at $2,500 pending a hearing.
