U.S. Olympic Track Hopes Bright

New Aces Tickle Hamilton

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — Brutus Hamilton, the American Olympic track coach, looks for another stirring showing by the United States in the games this summer in Helsinki.

He is pleased with sprinters Jim Ford, and delighted with distance man Wes Santee.

"I hope we can do better in formerly weak events," he said, naming the distance races, hop, step and jump, and javelin. "We look sound in our specialties — sprints, hurdles, and field events."

coach got a preview of part of TALENT SHOW

Hamilton, U. of California track coach, got a preview of part of his team in the NCAA championships here when eight records were broken in a showing of talent in depth.

This week at Long Beach, Calif., top ex-collegians, along with many undergraduates, will compete in the National AU championships. The first six Americans in each of the two meets, along with the armed service stars, will meet in the final Olympic team tryouts in Los Angeles June 27-28. Three men will be selected in each event.

Santee won the 5,000 meters here in the NCAA record breaking time of 14:36.2, fourth fastest ever made by an American.

Golladay of Northwestern won the 100 meters in 10.4 and Ford, Drake, took the 200 meters in 21 flat.

Hamilton termed Bob McMillen's performance in the 1,500 meters impressive. McMillen also set a record, 3:50.7.

"GREAT"

Hamilton called the college high jumpers "great" and hopes to win this event in the games, something the United States could not do the last time. Emery Barnes of Oregon and Walter Davis of Texas A. and M. tied for first at 6 feet 8 inches.

Dave Martindale of Idaho and Lyle Dickey of Oregon State and three others tied in the pole vault at 13-9.

TIME OUT!

"I had some material left over from our mother-daughter outfits and hated to waste it!"

U.S. Boxing Stars Shine

KANSAS CITY (AP) — The fellows who should know say the United States has an excellent chance of Olympic boxing champions since 1932.

The ten champions and four alternates who will represent this country in the world games at Helsinki next month will be decided in the U. S. elimination finals opening here Monday night.

Approximately 35 bouts are scheduled for the opening show. The three-night program ends Wednesday.

Jim Owens of Louisiana State University, head man of the NCAA team of champions and co-coach of the U. S. Olympic squad, says it's the best field of amateurs ever assembled in the United States.

The more than 90 fighters competing here comes from the NCAA, global Air Force, world-wide Army, all-Navy, and Southern, Central, mid-Western, Western and Eastern regional elimination tournaments.

US Open Champ Shuns PGA

DALLAS (AP) — Julius Boros, the Connecticut Yankee who ended Ben Hogan's dominance of the nation's golf, was enroute to New England Monday for a reunion with relatives while most of his colleagues along the tournament trail moved into Louisville, Ky., for the National PGA.

Boros took a check for $4,000, the loot gained in winning the National Open here Saturday, with him. He shot one-over-par 281 in the 72 holes to snare the title with a four-stroke edge.

Only one of the top four men in the open will play at Louisville. Hogan, whose 286 for 72 holes placed third and lost him the title for the first time in four tries, won't play any more tournaments this year. Johnny Bulla, who was fourth with 287, is passing up Louisville.

Ed Oliver, golf's round man who finished second with 288, is due to play in the PGA. Oliver was almost as big a surprise as Boros. But like Julius, Oliver's putting put him across. He sank a 45-foot putt on the 18th green in each of Saturday's last two rounds.

Padres and Stars Square Off in Showdown Series

By The Associated Press

The Pacific Coast League spotlight shines this week on Lane Field in San Diego where the first place Padres take on the Hollywood Stars, two games back in a showdown for the loop lead.

Hollywood narrowed the gap last week by winning its series with San Francisco, 4 - 3, while the Padres fell victim to Sacramento, 4 - 3, when the clubs clashed for the first time earlier in the season. Fred Haney's boys made off with four victories in six games. If the Stars can do better this time, Lefty O'Doul's gang will be out of the top spot for the first time since April 16.

OTHER DATES

In other encounters this week it's San Francisco at Sacramento, Seattle at Oakland and Portland at Los Angeles.

San Diego swept a doubleheader from the last place Solons Sunday 8-6 and 3-1.

Sacramento's only run in the nightcap came on three singles off Ken Flowers, who made it his fourth victory against no losses.

At Portland Seattle shut out the Beavers 2-0 and took the seven inning second game 3-2. Al Lyons tenth home run of the year provided the winning run in the curtain raiser.

In the finale Walt Judnich eluded a four-bagger to put the Rainiers in the lead. Portland tied it up but Seattle made it 3-1 in the fifth on a single, a sacrifice, two more singles.

Portland scored its final run in the fifth when Ed Barr tripled to score Mario Pierette.

Hollywood beat San Francisco 8-2

WINS U.S. OPEN GOLF—Julius Boros, a comparative newcomer among the professionals, listens to questions from the newsmen crowded around him after he turned in a 281 that clinched the 1952 U.S. Open Golf Championship at Northwood Club in Dallas, Tex. The Southern Pines, N. C., pro turned in a 71 on the last round while Ben Hogan faltered badly.

Victoria Pulls Ahead

By The Associated Press

Victoria swept a Western International League twin bill at Salem Sunday and opened a five-game lead over the Spokane Indians.

The Tyees shut out the Solons 1-0 on Ben Lorino's three-hitter — one of three in the loop Sunday — in the opener and took the nightcap 5-3.

Spokane and Wenatchee meanwhile split a doubleheader at Spokane. Wenatchee won the first game 6-3 and Spokane the afternoon 7-2 on three-hit hurling by John Marshall.

Tri-City's Bob Greenwood was as stingy with his hits at Kennewick as the Braves manufactured a 5-1 first game victory over Vancouver. The Caps won the second game 6-3.

SPLIT

The Lewiston Bronces and cellardwelling Yakima Bears, who played Saturday's only WIL game, also divided a Sunday twin bill. Lewiston taking the opener 12-1 and the Bears the wild second contest 17-4. It gave Yakima a 3-1 edge in the series at Lewiston.

The Bears won Friday 13-6 and rolled up an 8-2 victory Saturday when other games were rained out.

Three games are on Monday's schedule. Tri-City and Salem open three-game stands at Victoria and Vancouver, respectively, while Spokane and Wenatchee make up Saturday's rained-out contest.

Lorino struck out six Salem batters as he marked up his 10th win of the season for Victoria. Cece Garrriot, the Tyees playing manager, won the game in the fourth with a home run over the right field fence. Victoria scored all its runs in the wild sixth inning of the second game. The Generators scored their three runs in the eighth on four hits and a walk.

GOOD STRING

Wenatchee scored two runs on John Marshall in the fourth and ninth innings at Spokane, but both were unearned, giving the hurler 18 consecutive innings of unearned-run pitching. It was his fifth win against as many defeats. Wenatchee grabbed a three-run lead in the early innings of the first game and was never headed.

Yakima chased in 10 runs in the seventh inning — only one earned — in the wild second game at Lewiston. Lewiston's Bob Schulte tamed the Bears with four safeties in the opener.

Four-Player Trade Made

NEW YORK (AP) — Activity was light in the baseball mart as the Major Leagues passed the trade deadline at midnight Sunday night.

Expected last hour trade flurries failed to materialize. There were just three transactions, one of major importance.

In one trade just before the deadline came, the St. Louis Browns and the Chicago White Sox traded four players. Third-baseman Leo Thomas and outfielder Tom Wright went to the White Sox in return for infielder Willie Miranda and outfielder Al Zarilla. It was a straight player-deal. Thomas was with Portland in the Coast League last year and formerly played in the Western International League.

SPORTS in BRIEF

By The Associated Press

GOLF

Dallas, Tex. — Julius Boros, 32-year old pro from Southern Pines, N. C., captured the National Open championships with a 72-hole score of 281. Favored Ben Hogan slipped to third with 286, one stroke behind Ed Oliver, Lemont, Ill.

Columbus, O. — Marry Ann Villegas of St. Mary's Dominican, New Orleans, won the Women's Collegiate title, defeating Beverly Gammon, Minnesota senior, one-up.

BASEBALL

Chicago — Will Harridge, American League president, filed the suspension of Marty Marion, but fined the St. Louis Browns' manager $100 for his Wednesday night "in-in" with umpire Bill McCowan. Marion had been suspended since Thursday morning.

ROOKIE GETS RANGE

ST. LOUIS (AP) — It looks as if Jim Rivera, the widely-heralded rookie of the St. Louis Browns finally has located the hitting range in the American League. In his last 27 times at bat, Rivera has garnered 13 hits to boost his average from .206 to .247. He collected five hits off Philadelphia hurling in Sunday's doubleheader. Rivera played for Seattle, Coast League champions, last year.

TROON, Scotland, (AP) — Ten American challengers, representing approximately one-tenth of the entire field, freed Monday in the opening rounds of the British Women's Amateur golf championship with one thing certain. There'll be at least one less at the end of the first 18 holes.

Two of them, Dorothy Kirby of Atlanta, the U. S. champion, and Pat O'Sullivan, of Orange, Conn., meet each other in a first round match.

Seven other Americans also played in the first round. They included Grace DeMoss, Corvallis, Ore. and a British op-
