Price to Fight on Title Card Here Friday Night

Champ's Record Bright

By WALLACE MYERS

Georgie Price, the sterling Merrill Welterweight, has agreed to a special added attraction bout on the championship fight card here Friday night.

Price, home on leave from the Navy, told Promoter Mack Lillard late yesterday he would fight on the card and Lillard today was frantically trying to line up a suitable opponent.

The clever Merrill fighter is now rated welter champ of his Navy base and has picked up a lot of polish since he quite the ring here for a service stint.

TOUGH ONE

The title bout Friday shapes as a tough one for the form chart boys. Earl Turner, who puts his Northwest middleweight crown on the line against Dick Wolfe, must be rated the favorite on his impressive national record but Wolfe is showing improvement each time out.

And Wolfe is especially anxious to get Turner's middleweight title. Wolfe, with the Northwest welterweight title already in his possession, would rate a knock on the bigtime fight door with both the welter and middleweight titles.

Turner, however, will be a hard man for Wolfe to handle. In their two previous meetings, a draw and a decision for Turner, the clever California Negro has allowed very few of Wolfe's dynamite punches to get home.

Speaking of dynamite, Turner can dish out plenty of the lethal punching himself. His ring record shows Turner has KO'd such well-known fighters as Joe Ybarra, Billy McCoy, Jackie Burke, Shiek Rangel, Tony Chavez and Aaron Perry. He holds decisions over Charley Cato, Bobby Mann, Fred Apostoli, Cecil Hudson, Kid Cocoa and Jackie Wilson.

IMPRESSIVE

That all adds up to about the most impressive record any fighter has ever brought to a Klamath ring.

Wolfe is a comer and could go all the way. But whether he's far enough up the ring ladder to take Turner is a big question.

Advance ticket sales for the championship card point to the strong possibility of an all-time record turnout for the Armory.

The ducats are on sale at Dick Reeder's.

Rawls Leads In Western

CHICAGO (AP) — Betsy Rawls, Golf's golden gal from Texas, Tuesday aimed to parlay medalist honors into a $1,000 conquest in the 23rd Women's Western Open tourney to swell her 1952 fairways harvest past the $10,000 mark.

Miss Rawls, who Monday fired a one - under - par 74 to pace the qualifying field by two strokes, stormed into the 16-match opening round at Skokie Country Club against a stern amateur, Mary Agnes Wall of Menominee, Mich.

PATTY BERG

Betsy, 24 - year - old Phi Beta Kappa from the University of Texas, snatched the favorite's role from defending champion Patty Berg, who qualified two strokes behind with another slick pro Louise Suggs, at 76.

Miss Suggs, whose sharp putter seems ready to bring dividends, met one of the brighter lights of the teen-aged set, Seattle's Pat Lesser, an 84 qualifier.

Other first round pairings included:

Judy Reinert, Chicago (82) vs. Barbara Romack, Sacramento Calif. (88).

Trial Set For Amateur

NEW YORK (AP) — Qualifying rounds for the 52nd U.S. Amateur golf championship will be held in Portland, Spokane, Tacoma and 30 other cities August 4-5.

USGA officials set the dates Monday. Entries will be open to male amateur golfers with handicaps not exceeding four strokes. They must be residents of the United States and must be members of USGA regular member clubs.

TIME OUT!

"Eddie, we think you need a little more seasoning, so we're sending you down to the 2nd Avenue Panthers—but you'll be on 24-hour recall!"

Yesterday's Stars

By The Associated Press

Batting — Booby Thomson, Giants — Hit a grandslam homer with one out in the last half of the ninth to give the Giants an 8-7 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals.

Pitching — Jim Konstanty, Phillies — Pitched three scoreless innings of relief to gain credit for the Philadelphia Phillies' 9-4 comeback victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Hack Happy, Angels Soar

By The Associated Press

Manager Stan Hack of the Los Angeles Angels is a happy man.

His unpredictable club looked like the best in the Pacific Coast League in its last five games. And Tuesday, the Hack-men begin a seven - game series against the Portland Beavers, who haven't won a series in five weeks.

As a result of capturing five of seven from third - place Oakland, the Angeles have climbed into a fourth-place tie with Seattle, only a game and a half behind the Oaks.

After dropping the first two, Los Angeles shut out the Acorns twice and rolled on to tin five in a row.

Hack isn't making any predictions about the Portland series, even though the Beavers lost three out of four to Seattle last week and dropped the four preceding series.

Hack remembers but too well what happened the last time his club was strongly favored. That wa against Sacramento, and the Solons trounced the Angels.

The main event this week is at San Diego, where the loop-leading Padres take on Second-place Hollywood. With the Stars only two games off the pace, it shapes up as one of the season's top series.

Elswhere it's Seattle at Oakland and San Francisco at Sacramento.

Top PC Hurlers Deadlocked

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Right handers Bennett Flowers of the league leading San Diego Padres and Larry Shepard of second place Hollywood were deadlocked for first place pitching honors in the Pacific Coast League through last week. Each had four wins and no defeats. Shepard had participated in fifteen contests and Flowers in four.

Big Hal Gregg of Oakland is the circuit's most winning hurler with 11 against two losses.

Johnny Lindell of Hollywood took over the lead in the strikeout department with 73 victims in 121 innings.

PORTLAND CHAMP

PORTLAND (AP) — Portland's Emery Neale defeated former University of Washington star Jim Brink for the city tennis championship Monday. The scores were 6-8, 6-1, 6-3.

Musial Back In Hit Lead

NEW YORK (AP) — Stan Musial, aiming for his sixth batting championship and his third straight crown, was back Tuesday in his familiar spot as the National League's leading hitter with a mark of .330.

Although his average remained the same over the past week, the jumped from fourth place into the St. Louis Cardinals' outfielder top slot, displacing slumping Hank Sauer of Chicago.

Sauer, who leads the league in home runs with 18 and runs batted in with 59, lost 29 points and skidded to sixth place.

In the American League batting race Dom DiMaggio of Boston suffered an 11-point decline, but managed to retain the lead over Cleveland's Al Rosen. The little professor of the Red Sox is hitting .332, with Rosen right on his heels at .330.

Dot Kirby Loss Surprise

TROON, Scotland (AP) — Only four of America's ten entries in the British Women's Amateur Golf championship were on hand at tee-off time Tuesday.

The other six were among the spectators, having taken the long journey across the Atlantic to be dumped before the third round got under way on Troon's tricky 6,500-yard course.

The eliminations — including U. S. champion Dot Kirby of Atlanta — came as a distinct surprise. Miss Kirby, in fact, was one of the two knocked out in the very first round. Pat O'Sullivan of Orange, Conn., turned the trick, 3 and 2.

The only other American girl to be beaten in the first round was Elaine Cranston of Pasadena, Calif., who was overwhelmed by Frances Stephens of England, 8 and 7.

Besides, Miss Kirby and Miss Cranston, the cheering section consisted of Miss O'Sullivan, Grace DeMoss of Corvallis, Ore., Marjorie Lindsay of Decatur, Ill., and Dot Kielty of Long Beach, Calif.

Miss O'Sullivan, who whipped Philomena Garvey, a member of the British Curtis Cup team, 4 and 2.

Miss De Moss put up a good battle but went down, 1 up, on the 19th hole, to Jane Machine of England.

Hamner Gets Ballot Lead

CHICAGO (AP) — Granny Hamner of the Philadelphia Phillies Tuesday regained the lead over Peewee Reese of the Brooklyn Dodgers in their hot battle of ballots for the starting National League shortstop assignment in the All-Star baseball game at Philadelphia July 7.

Latest tabulations of fans' votes across the country gave Hamner 79,784 to 77,232 for Reese. Reese Monday was ahead of Hamner.

Despite his batting slump, outfielder Hank Sauer of the Chicago Cubs continued as the biggest vote getter in the poll with a total of 98,212.

Klamath Cokes Open League Season Here

The Klamath Falls Cokes were to officially open play here this afternoon in the American Legion League 10. A doubleheader with Eugene was scheduled for Recreation Park here at 3 p. m.

The Cokes, in their league debut Sunday, knocked over Medford in both ends of a twin bill, with two Chiloquin pitchers going the route.

In the first game, the Cokes won, 8-4, behind three-hit pitching by Jo Jo George. George also was the big man with the bat, collecting three for five, one of them a double. Ing Montgomery and Bill Anderson also got doubles.

The second game was another three - hitter, this one served up by Champ Hatcher.

Larry Yarnell caught the first tilt and Ron Owens the second.

Mgr. John McGinnis is high on his club and thinks the young players will improve steadily.

The Cokes, sponsored by the local Coca-Cola plant, come from towns through the Klamath area.

Leading WI Clubs Lose

By The Associated Press

Second division teams notched victories in abbreviated Western International League play Monday night.

Tri - City nipped Victoria 6-5 and Wenatchee thumped Spokane 6-1 in two scheduled league games. The Salem Senators surprised the Pacific Coast League Seattle Rainiers 3-1 in an exhibition game at Salem.

Seattle was the second Coast League team in a week to taste defeat in the Class A Western International circuit. A week ago, the Yakima Bears reared up from the cellar to smack the San Francisco Seals, the Bears' parent club, 7-4 at Yakima.

BAT NOISES

Monday night, the Senators, only four games out of the WIL basement after six straight losses, hopped on Seattle's Charley Schanz for 12 hits while Sal DeGeorge limited the Rainiers to six safeties. Seattle, tied with Los Angeles in fourth place in the Coast League, had lost only one game in 14 PCL starts before they went up against the Senators.

At Spokane, the Indians' Frank Chase and Wenatchee's Chuck Oubre gave up only five hits apiece but four Spokane errors titled the contest in Oubrey's favor. The game made up Saturday's rained out contest and evened the four-game series at 2-2.

HOMER WINS

Shortstop Don Lopes' homer in the top of the ninth provided Tri-City winning margin at Victoria. The Tyees behind 6-1, scored four times in the bottom of the inning but the rally fell short when manager Cece Garriott was tagged at the plate for the final out as he tried to steal home.

Victoria and Tri-City continue their series at Victoria Tuesday while Salem plays a doubleheader at Vancouver. Lewiston travels to Wenatchee and Spokane to Yakima for other three game stands.

Softballers Please!

Attention softball fans and players: If you've any fiendish plans to maybe organize a tar-and-feather visitation to the Herald and News Sports Department please keep your tempers in check for another couple of days.

The H&N Sports Department, for the past two weeks, has been comprised of approximately one-third of a man who's not any great shakes when all of him is functioning. Sports Editor Red Hurd is enjoying (?) the proverbial "well-earned" vacation and is due back to work this coming Friday.

Red isn't the least afraid to awaken people in the wee sm' hours of the morning and get the dope on the previous night's softball games.

Only a fraction of the softball news has been turned in to the Sports Department since Red roared away to Southern California. And this sad substitute sports scribe simply has neither the time nor savvy necessary to root out enough information for softball coverage.

Please be kind.

Zany Polo Grounds Tilt Sees Thomson's Grand Slam Win

PGA Bid For Open Winner

LOUISVILLE (AP) — The golf pros were wondering whether Julius Boros was a "fluke" winner of the National Open title or a golfer who'll turn out to be a real champion. So they're giving him an immediate opportunity to prove his tournament mettle.

Boros, a bit, rather silent young man from Connecticut who is pro at the Mid Pines course in North Carolina, won't be eligible for PGA membership for three more years.

But the PGA executive committee, in a surprising reversal of traditional policies, voted to give him a special invitation to compete in the PGA championship, which starts Wednesday.

TEMPORARY

This action was a temporary one, calling for a change in the by laws which limit entries to PGA members and certain invited foreign stars. It is subject to ratification at the PGA convention in December.

While the invitation to Boros added sparkle to the tournament, it already had about as strong a field as the open. Ben Hogan won't be there, but runner-up Ed Oliver, fourth-place Johnny Bulla and most of the other top-flight stars are among the 144 starters.

Sammy Snead will be shooting for his fourth PGA title.

Urness Wins Pro Debut

SCHENECTADY, N.Y. (AP) — Bonus baby Ed Urness of The Dalles, Ore., had two rough innings in his professional baseball debut with Albany in the Class A Eastern League Monday night but pulled through with a 6-4 victory over Schenectady.

Eighteen-year-old Urness, reportedly signed with the Boston Red Sox for $86,000, gave up one run in the first inning and three in the second, then settled down and held Schenectady scoreless. After the second inning, the Blue Jays didn't get a hit until the eighth.

Twenty years ago—John F. Collins resigned as manager of the Boston Red Sox; he was replaced by Marty McManus.

One Pitch For Win And Loss

By The Associated Press

Who said everything happens in Brooklyn?

How about the Polo Grounds?

Every since Bobby Thomson cracked that pennant winning home run in the final 1951 playoff game, the weirdest things have been occurring in the home of the New York Giants.

Nothing that has taken place in Brooklyn's Ebbets Field can match them.

Look at what happened in the instance. The Giants were rolling along enjoying an 11-0 lead over the St. Louis Cardinals when suddenly the roof caved in on them. Before they realized what had happened the Cards had won 14-12.

BOOM!

Monday, just 24 hours later, the Cards were leading 7-4 when the Giants came to bat. Two walks, a single, an out and boom.

Thomson practically duplicated his '51 feat hitting a grand slam homer to beat the Redbirds, 8-7.

That's not all. Look at this believe - it - or - not situation. Willard Schmidt, who tossed up that gopher ball to Bobby, made only one pitch — and he was charged with the defeat. The rookie righthander had been summoned to relieve Will Werle.

DOUBLE PAY

In contrast, the victory went to George Spencer, fourth Giant pitcher. He, too, made only one pitch. That was a double play delivery to Del Rice to end the top of the ninth. So we have the unprecedented situation in which two hurlers make one pitch each, one of which is credited with the victory while the other is charged with defeat.
