Votes Change Tribe Board

BEATTY—Boyd Jackson, long time member of the Klamath Indian Tribal Loan Board, was defeated in his bid for re-election Thursday during a Tribal Council meeting here.

Dorothea McAnulty was chosen for the two-year term on the board by three votes.

The position pays $16 a day. Holdover members of the loan board are Dice Crane and Marilyn Mitchell.

S. E. Kirk, Hiram Robbins, Tony Unive and Joe Hall Jr. were nominated for president of the General Council, to be voted on next month. Kirk currently is president. The term is two years.

Jesse Lee Kirk, Delford Lang and Boyd Jackson Jr. are the nominees for vice president. Dibbon Cook is unopposed as secretary and Toy Brown in unopposed for sergeant at arms. No nomination was made for treasurer.

Nominations for membership on the eight-man executive committee were deferred until today.

The Tribal Council Thursday okayed the general council and loan board budgets and tables for the time being the proposed $390,810 general administrative budget for the 1953-54 fiscal year.

Chest Meet Set July 8

Amendments to the constitution and by-laws of the Klamath County Community Chest will be discussed at a general meeting of the members called for July 8, 7:30 p.m., in the Little Theater at Klamath Union High School.

A petition asking for amendments intended to streamline the operation of the Chest, was filed with the board of directors at a meeting June 17. Major changes suggested would enlarge the membership of the board of directors, expand the functions of the Budget Committee, and change certain mandatory meeting dates of the membership and the board.

Any person who contributed to the Klamath County Community Chest during the last funds drive is a member and entitled to a vote at this meeting. It was stressed by Chest Pres. Walter (Bud) Franklin today.

Other business transacted at the June 17 meeting included the hiring of Mrs. Beth Anderson as office secretary. She may be reached on Thursdays and Fridays, 9 to 4, the Commercial Arts Building by calling 3141. G. R. Durham, executive director of the Oregon Chest, and Frank Lockman, field representative made reports on their findings with respect to local Chest operation.
