

THE BRIDAL PARTY . . . (l to r) Robert Thompson, Gordon Hopland, ushers; Alma Ferrell, bridesmaid; Colleen Creswell, maid of honor; the bride and bridegroom; Donald McIntyre, brother of the bride, best man; Dean Bartholomew and Fred Hugelstein, ushers.

MARIAN McINTYRE BRIDE OF SAMUEL RAYMOND

THE BRIDE . . . lovely in lace and satin, at home just before leaving for the First Presbyterian Church, June 13, for her wedding to Samuel Wilbert Raymond.

SOCIETY

by Milly Ramsby

AT THE RECEPTION . . . the new Mr. and Mrs. Raymond cut the wedding cake.

MARIAN JEAN . . . and her father, Mr. George W. McIntyre, who gave her in marriage, are shown in the church before the ceremony.

AFTER THE CEREMONY . . . on their way to the reception in the church parlors, the happy couple caught by the camera in an informal moment.

Photos by Guderian.

Harold & News
Klamath Falls, Oregon

BARBARA DICKSON WEDS EARL MACK Jr.

BARBARA . . . escorted by her father, who gave her in marriage . . . is lovely in white lace and satin.

THE BRIDE . . . greets her three attendants at the altar. (l to r) Marjorie King, college roommate at Southern Oregon College, Carolyn Dickson, her sister, bridesmaids; and Mrs. Harry Orem, matron of honor, also a sister.

THE NEW MR. AND MRS. Earl Mack Jr., leave the First Presbyterian Church for their reception. The bride is the former Barbara Dickson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur R. Dickson. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Mack Sr. The wedding June 14 united two pioneer families of the Henley community.

THE MOTHER . . . of the bride puts a last minute touch to her daughter's veil.

CUTTING THEIR three-tiered pink and white cake at the reception in the church parlors.

GIVING SOME EARNEST instructions to her small junior attendant, her nephew and niece, Gary Orem who carried the rings and his sister Ann, who carried a miniature colonial bouquet.