LOUIS BUNCE

Art Center Hosts Bunce

Louis Bunce, nationally known artist and painter who will teach here at the annual Klamath Summer Workshop starting at OTI July 7 will be guest of honor Monday night at a reception at the Art Center. His serigraphi-prints, one of the greatest collections in the United States will be on display.

Bunce, of Portland, attended the Museum School of Portland, taught on the staff, attended the Art students League, New York City, one of the largest in the U.S. and has exhibited in leading museums all over the country.

He will teach beginners as well as advanced students, according to Mrs. Lorraine Johnson, president of the Klamath Art Association. She says, "His paintings are modern, his teaching traditional, he feels that students must learn fundamental and realistic drawing before going into the abstract."

Bunce will teach painting afternoons and classes for serigraphy students three evenings a week. Sites for painting are being picked out before the school opens.

John Barrymore Junior Denies John Auer Feud

HOLLYWOOD— (NEA) — Exclusively yours: His famous father might have tangled with directors, but John Barrymore Jr. is denying that he's been having a tense feud with Director John Auer during filming of Republic's "Thunderbirds."

"I've never fought with Auer once," young John told me. "I yell at him and he yells at me. He even calls me the no-talent Barrymore, but it's all a gag. He's a sweetheart. Even if it wasn't a gag and he wanted to yell at me, it would be fine with me."

The censors may turn pale, but there will be no scissoring of Robert Newton's "swearing" in the title role of RKO's "Blackbeard the Pirate." All of his "cussin' "—a running gag in the film—is in Welsh. The effect is eyebrow lifting but when translated the Welsh words wouldn't even make Margaret O'Brien blush.

A violent domestic scene staged by Red and Georgia Skelton have their pals worried about their marriage . . . Lana Turner and Fernando Lamas had a lulu of a spat at party thrown by Pierre Lafitte, author of "Moulin Rouge... Hurled blistering wordage at each other in front of all the guests . . . There's irony in the announcement that movie producer Philip A. Waxman is looking for a male star for "The Night Watch." He bought the story for John Garfield.

C. B. DeMille is a lot nearer to turning the camera on his new version of "The Ten Commandments" than most people in Hollwood realize. Paramount's wardrobe department has alerted fur designer Al Teitelbaum to stock up a supply of skins of lions, tigers, camels, gazelles and leopards for the religious epic.

Dan Dailey's dancing stint at the Palladium in London has been canceled by Fox. He will be finishing his dance numbers this summer in "The Girl Next Door" with June Haver. June's doctors have announced that her operation is a success and that she can dance herself silly from now on.

John Carroll's all set to do vaudeville concerts throughout the country a la Judy Garland, with supporting acts and a ballet. That's the reason he's nixing an MGM contract.

It's because Charles Boyer's role in Paramount's "Thunder in the East" suggests India's prime minister Nehru that Corinne Calvet's siren scenes with the star have been snipped from the picture.

Director Henry Hathaway's ultimatum that nobody in the cast of "Niagara" can leave the roaring falls location site for trips to New York will keep Marilyn Monroe and Joe DiMaggio apart.

Joe isn't likely to be visiting Marilyn at Niagara, either. It's the blonde dazzler's biggest movie break yet and her pretty nose is being kept to the acting grindstone.

Jennifer Jones is stealing Mae West's switchy walk for her role of a southern sheba in "Ruby Gentry." Practiced up on it for weeks, did Jennifer . . . Frankie Laine's opening at the Cocoanut Grove proved that he's still Mr. Rhythm. The guy gets better every year.

This summer Fox will re-issue "Laura," the Gene Tierney-Dana Andrews-Clifton Webb hit directed by Otto Preminger back in 1944.

"There's only one way for Hollywood to lick television—quality and size. Big all-star casts and tremendous sets. Things TV can't do."

Producer Jerry Wald blueprinting "Operation Future" for ""-lywood. It was Jerry who brought back the all-star cast for "Clash by Night." Now he'll stack up the big-star names again for "Size 12," which will tell the private life stories of six different fashion models. Only unknown in the cast will be wild-haired Ursula Thiess, the German importation.

This'll have Bob Hope gnashing his teeth. Bud Abbott and Lou Costello have filed an application with the British Interplanetary Society of London for a passport to be the first entertainers to make a trip to the moon in a space ship. With their press agent, of course.

Director Harold Kress reports a piquant exchange from the next table at the Hollywood Gotham. "I understand," an oil one studio emulove, "that the boss is gonna hire a real nitwit."

"But he can't do that," flared the other, "that's nepotism."

Ike To Select Westerner

DENVER (AP) — Gen. Eisenhower was quoted Friday as saying the next secretary of the interior will come from a western state if the general is nominated and elected president.

Owen Clarke of Yakima, Wash., told newsmen the general told Washington delegates he would select the best qualified man he could find for his secretary of interior and that the man undoubtedly would come from a western state.

Eisenhower was expected to hit hard on western subjects in a speech next Thursday at Denver's big coliseum. At least five, and possibly eight, western state governors will be on the platform with him.

Gov. Dan Thornton of Colorado, Eisenhower's official Denver host, said Gov. Douglas McKay, Oregon, was among those who indicated they will attend if they complete business in their home states.

Washington delegates said Eisenhower answered questions about reclamation and western agriculture only in general terms, except for the remark about the secretary of interior.

Critical Sgt. Is Now Pvt.

MONTEREY, Calif. (AP) — A 24-year-old soldier who wrote Gen. Mark Clark that U.N. handling of the Koje Island prison camp riots was "repugnant and disgraceful" trades his sergeants stripes for those of a private first class Saturday.

A special court martial which convicted C. Dean Chase of "disrespect to a superior officer Friday, also decreed that he must forfeit $75 a month from his pay for the next six months.

Chase's attorney, Raymond R. Brady, told the five-member court martial board that the writing of the letter was a "damned fool thing to do."

But, he added, "lots of people write letters. I know one man in a very high position in this country who has a proclivity for letter writing."
