NATURALIST — Harry C. Parker, new naturalist at Crater Lake National Park, comes here from Yosemite National Park in California. He replaces Dr. George C. Ruhle, who has been transferred to Hawaii after 10 years here. Paul Terry, seasonal ranger from Mobile, Ala., has also been added to the local park ranger force.

Adjournment Congress Aim

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congressional leaders told President Truman Monday they will do everything possible to wind up this legislative session before the Republican convention. If necessary, they said, they will keep Congress in session on July 4 and the Saturday following.

The Republican convention opens July 7 in Chicago. Much legislation must still be passed, including the measures that will provide the money to run the government in the fiscal year beginning July 1.

Rep. Rayburn (D-Tex), speaker of the House, told reporters after a conference with the President that things "look fair" for adjournment by the end of next week. He said, though, it may be necessary to keep Congress on the job over the Independence Day holiday.

Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex), the Senate whip who participated in the conference in the absence of Majority Leader McFarland of Arizona, agreed with Rayburn that there is hope the target can be met.

Johnson said the Senate hopes to wind up its action on a number of appropriation bills this week and on three more next week.

"We are going to try to get an adjournment by the end of next week," Johnson said. Rayburn said the appropriation bills and measures to keep government machinery running are the only obstacles to adjournment.

Among the latter measures is the Defense Production Act, under which the system of wage-price-rent controls is authorized.

Vice President Barkley and House Majority Leader McCormack of Massachusetts sat in at the regular Monday morning conference.

One Car Lost, One Car Found

One vehicle was reported stolen and another stolen auto recovered in Klamath County over the weekend.

Police at Chiloquin reported a 1951 Willys pickup, painted yellow and bearing the name of Cox Bros. on each door, was stolen Sunday. It bears Oregon license T-19-755.

State Police in the north end of the county located a 1941 Chevrolet coupe which had been stolen from Mrs. Marie M. Moore, Chico, Calif. The car out of gas, had been abandoned on US 97. It was towed to Chemult.

ATTENTION FARMERS! It will soon be time to insure your crops against fire or hail. See Hans Norland 627 Pine St. Phone 2-2515.

Washington Loggers Back

SEATTLE (AP) — CIO woodworkers on strike in Western Washington since April 29 were slated to return to their jobs Tuesday.

Karly Larson, president of District 2 of the CIO International Woodworkers of America Union, said Monday night union locals have agreed to terms of a contract drawn up Saturday after marathon union-management bargaining sessions.

It included a 7½ cent hour wage increase, higher night differential pay, improved vacation benefits and an employer-financed health and welfare fund managed jointly by management and the union.

The wage increase is subject to approval by the Wage Stabilization Board.

FBI Rounds Up Draft Dodgers

WASHINGTON (AP)—The FBI said Tuesday it has located more than 19,000 draft delinquents since the peacetime Selective Service law went into effect.

The data was made public by director J. Edgar Hoover on the fourth anniversary of the law.

Of the men located, Hoover said, 3,301 were actually fugitives, and prosecutions have resulted in 554 convictions.

Hoover stressed that the Bureau's chief interest in such investigations is to make the draft delinquent available for military service. He said those prosecuted represent only the most willful violators.

Some 11,929 cases of indicated draft-evasion were awaiting investigation at the beginning of this month, the report said.

WANNA BUYA DUCK?

VANCOUVER (AP) — Passenger cars and trucks were lined up for 100 yards in both directions as traffic halted on the Lions Gate bridge approach in Stanley Park recently. The cause was a mother duck leading her newborn family sedately across the pavement.

Cooper Repartee Suffers From Evening at TV Show

HOLLYWOOD (NEA) — Exclusively yours: Television is cramping Gary Cooper's repartee.

Hollywood's famous man of few words told me when I asked his opinion of television:

"It stifles conversation. You sit with your friends and watch four or five TV shows—mysteries and murders and some beaten-up dance acts. The evening's a complete conversational loss."

Yup, that's what the man said.

The late Robert Walker's two sons, who haven't been happy away from California, are due back in Hollywood any day from their New York schools to join mama Jennifer Jones and David O. Selznick. Jennifer will enroll them in California schools from now on.

The grapevine's twisting with the report that the Esther Williams-Ben Gage marriage craft has sprung a leak but that Esther's bailing like mad to avoid a divorce plunge.

Rita Hayworth returned from south of the border with a Mexican gun-carrying permit in her purse . . . Jose Ferrer and his wife are spiking divorce talk by having her join him in Paris during the filming of "Moulin Rouge."

Humphrey Bogart and George Raft can start howling. Jerry Lewis will do a murderous satire on their movie gangster roles in "Scared Stiff." Director George Marshall even has Jerry flipping a half dollar a la Raft's famous bit in "Scarface."

Teenager to her gal friend while gulping popcorn at a movie: "You know something, I don't like double features. I always eat too much."

Rosemary Clooney's singing of "Come On'a My House" sold a million records and Coumbia's predicting a repeat for her latest novelty song, "Botcha Me" "Kiss me" in Italian. Don't be surprised if Paramount teams up Bing Crosby and Rosemary after her movie debut in "The Stars Are Singing." The Groaner's hailing her as the best feminine singer of the day.

Liberace, the piano wizard, replaces Dinah Shore on her TV show for the summer.

Line from the script of UI's "Cattle Kate" explaining the shapely dance hall hostesses who work for Maureen O'Hara:

"These may not be fallen women, but they've certainly done a lot of stumbling."

Clark Gable's being linked with a zippy French pastry named Annabel, who sings at a Paris nitery. Not to be confused with Annabella, ex-wife of Ty Power.

Title of William Saroyan's new book, due in September, is an eyebrow-raiser: "Bicycle Rider in Beverly Hills."

Janice Rule and meat-packing heir Tom Hormel deny the romance rumors. It's just that Janice is very palsy-walsy with Leslie Caron, who's married to George Hormel, Tom's brother.

UI officials are alarmed about 13-year-old boy soprano Chet Allen, snatched from TV and given a $1000-per-week contract. Now in "The Great Companions," the lads singing voice is starting to change.

Shirley Temple will bring Linda Susan and the new baby to Hollywood for a visit with her parents. Her doctors advise a long rest and tons of sunshine after her grim bout with pleurisy.

A young Hollywood starlet who refuses to even telephone the mother who poured thousands of dollars into her dramatic training is inches away from being frompaged. And only a few weeks after Mother's Day.

Those Hollywood censors again. A boat named Sarsey Fanny figured in the plot of the new Betty Grable starrer, "The Farmer Take A Wife." So the clean-it-up boys made the studio change the name of the boat to Sarsey Sal.

Eyebrow-lifting gag in "Son of Paleface": Bob Hope, lost in wild west, spots two vultures following him and cracks, "Hmmm—Martin and Lewis."

Red Dust, the amazing springer spaniel trained to do absolutely nothing while owner Bob Williams knocks himself out shouting cues for tricks, makes his film debut in "The Stars Are Singing." The offstage "dog sitter" for the hound, while Bob plays a straight acting role in the film, is ex-burlesque stripper Ann Corio. She's Mrs. Williams.

Escapee Hails Wrong Man

McMINNVILLE (AP) — A prisoner in the Yamhill County jail yanked a piece of pipe out of the jail's plumbing, then used the pipe to batter his way through the already crumbling brick wall.

After all that work, he walked free to the road to hitchhike a ride. The first man to stop for him was Jack Hogevoll, a state policeman.

Hogevoll gave the escapee, booked as John Ray, 29, a ride back to the jail, where he is held on a stolen car charge.
