UMEDA WHIPS TERAN

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Promising young Krazy Teran of Los Angeles suffered the first defeat of his professional career Tuesday night at the hands of underdog Tommy Umeda of Honolulu in a bantamweight bout billed for the unofficial Pacific Coast championship.

Referee Joe Stone stopped the fight after 2 1/2 minutes, 49 seconds of the seventh round after Teran, knocked down for a nine count, was barely able to stagger to his feet. Teran weighed 117 1/2, Umeda 118.

Suds Bop Skidding San Diego

By The Associated Press

Those who said that once the San Diego Padres started slipping they would keep right on going, now have another talking point.

The Padres, Pacific Coast League leaders for two months until Hollywood founced them six out of seven, were shut out in their series opener against Seattle, 4-0, Tuesday night.

Hollywood, the new league leader, was whipped 7-1 by Los Angeles and Oakland shined San Francisco 1-0.

The Portland-Sacramento game was postponed due to bad weather.

Veteran Al Widmar turned in a neat four-hit performance for Seattle San Diego's Ben Flowers went 5-2-3 innings without allowing a safety, but then a single, Walt Judnich's triple, and another single made it 2-0.

The Rainiers added the others in the seventh and eighth.

It was a pitchers' duel at San Francisco with Oakland's Bill Ayers coming out on top. Al Lien and his reliefer, Bob Muncrief, held the Oaks, to two hits, while Ayers gave up three.

DETROIT (AP) — Prof. Chuck Davey, B.A., M.A., the swimming scholar from Michigan State College, will attempt to give precocious young Chico Vejar another boxing lesson Wednesday night.

Vejar, a tough young freshman from New York University, will be out to avenge a decisive defeat in his first lesson from Davey in Chicago May 7.

Their 10-round welterweight bout in Olympia Stadium here is expected to draw a crowd of 15,000.

Tribe Snips Shantz's Win Streak

By The Associated Press

The 1952 baseball season may be referred to in the future as the year of streaks.

In an action-packed major league Tuesday, hitters, pitchers and clubs ran the gamut of streaks with only one being broken.

That was Bobby Shantz' 11-game taken which went up in smoke as the Cleveland Indians shined the Philadelphia Athletics' southpaw, 2-1.

At least eight others were kept alive including Stan Musial's season record batting streak. Preacher Roe's unbroken winning streak and the Chicago Cubs' losing streak.

This is what happened:

1. Musial stretched his batting streak through 21 games as his St. Louis Cardinals divided a day-night doubleheader with the Brooklyn Dodgers. He collected a single in the opener, won by Brooklyn 6-0 and also hit a one-bagger in the nightcap, taken by St. Louis, 7-1.

2. Roe, the canny southpaw, buried the first game shutout for the Dodgers.

3. Alie Reynolds, strong-armed New York righthander, pitched his 16th straight complete game, 13 this year, as the Yankees whipped the St. Louis Browns 8-2, to increase their American League lead to three games.

4. The Boston Red Sox suffered their eighth loss in as many night games as the Detroit Tigers whipped them, 7-1, to drop them a notch into third place.

5. The Chicago Cubs dropped their eighth and ninth in a row as the Philadelphia Phillies swept both ends of a two-night doubleheader, 6-0 and 2-1.

6. Al Rosen's 13th home run with 2 runs aboard in the fourth gave Earl Wynn the decision over the Athletics that put an end to Shantz' 11-game winning streak.

7. Big Jim Hearn won his fourth straight and his eighth against a single loss as the New York Giants whipped the Cincinnati Reds twice, 3-1 and 7-4.

8. Boston's Braves made it two in a row over Pittsburgh as Jim Wilson shaded Murry Dickson, 4-3.

9. Washington made it two straight over the Chicago White Sox with a 6-2 triumph as Julio Moreno scattered five hits.

10. The Philadelphia Phillies swept both ends of a two-night doubleheader, 6-0 and 2-1.
