THIS PICTURESQUE rock formation may be seen on the Bonanza outoff.

ROUNDUP GIRLS and their escorts were luncheon guests of Reames Golf and Country Club women last Friday. The three clubwomen behind the girls (l to r) Mrs. John Merryman, Mrs. Haarby Bechen and Mrs. Greer Drew; seated on the couches (l to r) Anne Curry; Barbara Jean Anderson, Mrs. Cora McGaughey (escort), Mrs. Bessie Lilly (escort), Queen Marianna Hellekson, Margy Brown (1951 queen), and Carol Hamilton, front row (l to r) Janet Dierdorff, Pat Nicholson, Sharon Finchum and Aurelia Patterson.

A LOT OF FOOD was consumed by the hungry Queen Candidates Outing crowd and most of it was prepared by the duo above. Left to right are Mrs. William Hammond and Mrs. Charlie Stukel.

ALL ASHORE! The Roundup girls and their Saddle Club escorts had just made port after a cruise on Upper Klamath when this picture was snapped. Occasion was a visit as guests of the Klamath Yacht Club, with Mrs. Howard Pernel as hostess. The boat is the Pernel's cabin cruiser, the Hopalinda. Left to right, on the dock are: Mrs. Cora McGaughey (escort), Margy Brown (1951 queen), Janet Dierdorff, Marianna Hellekson (1952 queen), Pat Nicholson; back row, left to right: Mrs. Joyce Ryker (escort), Carol Hamilton, Sharon Finchum, Aurelia Patterson, Anne Curry and Barbara Jean Anderson.

When it comes to TOP brands . . .

. . . L. D. Parsons knows 'em! Here he's pictured heating his Redrock branding iron at the annual roundup and branding. Parsons is the satisfied owner of Caterpillar D7 and D4 Tractors . . . and two John Deere Diesel Wheel Tractors. Down through the years, he's learned that he can depend on these two great names for efficient, easier and more profitable service. With Parsons, Caterpillar and John Deere are TOP brands!
