

TUNA-DILL LOAF

One of the best cool-cuts during hot weather is to cook for more than one meal at once. This Tuna-Dill Loaf is just such a warm weather aid. First meal, serve it hot topped with Pimiento-Egg Sauce. Next day make sandwiches, or slice and serve very cold. If your family is small, make one loaf, if larger then it's just as easy to make two. It's a moist juicy loaf and slices well either hot or cold. Ideal for slicing the loaf is the new hot and cold knife offered as a premium by one of the big tuna companies.

HOT 'N COLD TUNA DILL LOAF

- 2 cans Tuna
- 2 cups soft bread crumbs
- 1 cup hot milk
- 2 eggs
- 1/2 cup chopped dill pickle
- 2 tablespoons finely chopped onion.
- 2 tablespoons melted butter
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 teaspoon pepper
- Four hot milk over bread crumbs;

beat well. Stir in tuna. Beat in eggs, one at a time. Add dill pickle, onion, melted butter, salt and pepper and combine thoroughly. Pour into a well-greased 9x5x3" loaf pan. Bake in a moderate oven (350 F.) for 50 minutes or until done. Unmold and slice; serve hot with Pimiento-Egg Sauce. Or chill and slice. Make sandwiches with hole wheat bread. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

To make Pimiento-Egg Sauce: To 2 cups medium white sauce add 2 or 4 chopped hard-cooked eggs and 2 or 4 tablespoons chopped pimiento. Heat and serve over slice of hot Tuna-Dill loaf.

TEMPER

Here's a pretty salad to tempt a sagging summer appetite. Place an inch and a half slice of peeled cantaloupe on a garnished salad plate. Center with plump pitted cooked prunes, filled with cream cheese softened with orange juice, and chunks of bananas rolled first in mayonnaise and then in chopped walnuts.

Shades of Shakespeare Flit Again In Ashland

ASHLAND—Top roles in the Oregon Shakespearean festival for 1952 were almost evenly divided between newcomers to the event and old hands, as rehearsals for the coming season opened in Ashland this week.

In "Julius Caesar," four players will play ten roles. Bill Oyster, Stanford University, will be seen as Brutus; Bill Ball, Carnegie Tech; Mark Antony; Paul Kliss, Buhl, Idaho, Caesar; and Philip Hanson, University of Illinois, Cassius.

The lead in the chronicle play, "Henry V," went to a newcomer, Richard Russo of San Jose State. Others prominent in that play include Dion and Virginia, Chesse of San Francisco, who play Fluellen and Katherine respectively, John Bethencourt of Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, who plays Harfleur. All are newcomers.

In "Much Ado About Nothing," Richard Graham of New York, veteran festival actor and director plays Benedick; Eleanor Prosser, a newcomer from San Marino, California, plays Beatrice; Pat Hines, Corpus Christi, Texas, and here for the first time, plays Leonardo, and Philip Hanson plays Dogberry.

Paul Kliss will be seen as Prospero in "Tempest," Douglas Meeker, Washington State speech instructor from Portland plays Cliban; Bill Ball plays Ariel, and Tom Brennan, Cleveland, Ohio, plays Trinculo, Meeker and Brennan are new here.

The production director, Angus Bower, and all three play directors—Graham, Hanson, and Allen Fletcher of Yale University are festival veterans.

Eighteen states and one foreign country are represented in the company.

NEW TRICK

Here's a new trick for making a parishes Angel Pie. Prepare and bake the meringue shell as usual. Then spread with cooled chocolate filling made with packaged pudding mix, next a layer of whipped cream and finally some slivered roasted almonds.

IT'S A NEW TIDE MIRACLE!

You'll see that the Tide-washed towel is actually whiter than the towel that was soaked in bleach! Why, except for stubborn stains, you need never bother with bleaching again!

"I'm hanging up whiter clothes—thanks to TIDE!" says Mrs. Annamoe Troast of Alwood, New Jersey.

"I've tried all the best washday soaps—the new 'detergents,' too. I've always added the best bleach I could buy to them, but my clothes never came so white as they did after my first wash using Tide alone! I still can hardly believe it—but it's true!"
