This and That About Women

Edited by Ruth King

"It's A Woman's World"

NEIGHBORS OFTIMES HAVE MORE in common than making flaky pie crust, watching for baby's first tooth and talking small chit-chat over the garden fence... sometimes they do BIG things... stimulating interest in a community park and playground, getting folks to work and doing a lot of the actual, down-to-shovel work themselves. Two such friends are Mrs. Floyd (Pansy) Ohles, left, and Mrs. Manuel (Myra) Ochoa, Chiloquin, both staunch supporters of the Chiloquin park, now well under way close to the business section of town... both have numerous other community interests...

Mrs. Ohles, president in 1951 of the park association, is a Cub Scout Den Mother, see that young son Melvin, aged nine, gets to meetings on time. She is an ex-president of the Women's Society of the Chiloquin Methodist church, has taught dozens of Camp Fire Girls and other young people how to make exquisite flowers and entertains frequently.

Mrs. Ochoa, also is deeply interested in young people and who wouldn't be when eight energetic boys and girls, your very own, romp through your home from dawn to dark... eldest daughter Gloria, a pretty miss, is 16 years-old and second mother in the family.

She is clan-mother for the Cub Scouts, works in PTA and the Altar Society of Mt. Carmel Catholic Church. She has called Chiloquin home most of her life.

Maybe you like to work, maybe you don't, but here's a warning, if you have spring fever, better stay away from Chiloquin for you'll be drafted to grub brush or smooth the softball field by these two community promoters.

KERR'S PURE JAMS AND JELLIES

The Skewbald Roan
 By Patsy O'Donohue
 16-years-old

Had a horse name "Paint" was a skewbald roan,
 Meanest critter ever got grown.
 Had a Roman nose and our glass eye;
 An' well-nigh threw me against the sky!

No, look out doggie, an' git along home,
 I'm herdin' today on the skewbald roan.

He broke five ribs, (almost my neck)
 An' my foot two times. Was I a wreck!
 But I broke ol' Paint by Roundup time,
 And staked him out in the remuda line.

One night out guardin' a bunch of steers,
 That ol' Paint-hose laid back his ears
 An' started to buck, (the usual things);
 I thought that hoss had sprouted wings.

I went sky-high an' I came down flat,
 But Paint was leavin' an' that was that!
 He lit fer the hills like an ol' cyclone,
 That's the last I saw of that skewbald roan.

GOOD IDEA

Pickled peaches and canned luncheon meats are good go-togethers for luncheon supper on a warm day. You can make the pickled peaches in 10 minutes. Empty a can of cling peach halves, syrup and all, into a sauce pan. Add a teaspoon each of whole cloves and allspice, 1/2 cup brown sugar (packed) and 1/2 cup vinegar. Boil until sugar is dissolved, then simmer about 8 minutes and cool in syrup.
