

A LONG-AWAITED NEED in Klamath Falls started to be realized this month with the opening of construction on a $115,000 bowling plant at the corner of Arthur and South Sixth. Of pumice and timber construction, the building will house 12 alleys, five pool tables, a snack bar, and fountain. T. C. Griggs, spokesman for the stockholders, said construction was expected to be finished on the 72 x 126 structure Sept. 15. Concrete was poured Thursday. Simmons Shuts Out NY Giants

Bachel Paige gained fame with his "heaviness" pitch. Now it's Con Marrero of the Washington Senators with his "manana" pitch.
When Marrero delivers it appears that the ball will reach the plate manana or even the day after tomorrow. But when the ball does arrive it does funny things, shooting down, up or away from the astonished batter.
Marrero looks like duck soup to batters. They can't wait to get at him. But once at the plate they're usually helpless.
Like Paige, Marrero's age is a question. The Cuba star right-hander is listed as 45 but many think he's at least 50. Friday night he worked eight days rest and came through with a 5-3 triumph over the Boston Red Sox at Fenway Park.
Marrero, who gets by with a slider, curve and knuckleball, limited the Red Sox to six hits while his mates collected nine off former teammate Sid Hudson and Ray Scarborough. Ed Yost, with a home run and Pete Runnels with a pair of triples led the Washington at-

Cokes Host Lakeview Ralph Hill's Record Smashed

Klamath Falls' $115,000 bowling plant is expected to be ready for business in mid-September, a spokesman for the stockholders of Klamath Bowling said this week.
Stockholders have pooled efforts and money to give owners a brand new home on the corner of Arthur and South Sixth, where construction on the 72 x 136 structure started this month.
The building will house 12 alleys, five pool tables, a snack bar and fountain.
Spokesman T. C. Griggs said all the latest bowling equipment will be installed, including semi-automatic pin-setters, automatic ball indicators and scoreboards.
"We will cater to the youngsters in town," Griggs said, "and for this reason there will be no hard liquor sold on the premises."
Klamath Bowling Inc. officials will reserve eight alleys for league play. Organized league keeling activity is expected to be increased from the five bowling loops that operated on the state-owned Oregon Tech alleys last season.
Four alleys will be left open at all times for public bowling.
Bowling lessons will be available for youngsters and women, "with a few free lessons thrown in," Griggs said.
Adequate parking space is planned, along with sufficient seating for spectators in the pumice and timber building.
Articles of incorporation were filed May 27 in Salem by Ganong and Ganong, Klamath Falls law firm.
Stockholders are Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Griggs, Mr. and Mrs. Louise Pasfega, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Booth, Frank Eberhart, Mrs. E. M. E. Moss, Mr. and Mrs. Cleve Bennett, David W. Robb, Gino Rostinella and Angelo Conte.

NYAC Ace Runs 1500 In 14:27

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Heated competition for places on the U.S. Olympic track and field team went into the last state Saturday, featuring one of the greatest lineups in the high hurdles in the history of the sport.
Two American records were broken, one was tied and two outstanding guests were registered in the first half of the Olympic final trials Friday.
Nine events were on Saturday's program and 40,000 were expected to fill an at Memorial Coliseum, scene of the 1932 Olympic games.
On tap were the 110-meter hurd hurdle, 200 and 400-meter dashes, the 750-meter run, the 3,000-meter steeplechase, pole vault, discus, high jump and hop, shot and jump.
First three trials in each event make the Finland-headed team.
All star feature figured to be the hurdles, with a field including Harry Dixon, Dick Atleson, Craig Dixon, Billy Atleson and others.
Friday's crowd of 12,341 not a bad one of 10,000 for the event, and a high of 10,000 for one contest.
Sam Goldstein, the nation's finest 100-meter man, bowed out of the picture. The aron injury he suffered in the heats of the National AAU a week before crowded up 25 yards from the start of the race, and he limped off the track, his Olympic dream smashed. America's hope, with the Northwest American coach, rests with Art Hagan of Oregon State, winner of the race at 0:10.4.
NEW RECORDS
The American records broken: Gaudie Moore, New York Athletic Club, in the 400-meter hurdle, 2:11.4, by Moore, in 1949, and Moore's pending mark, 0:50.9, 1952.
Curtis Stone, New York A.C., 5:00.0, meters, Time 14:27. Old mark, 14:30.6, by Ralph Hill, U.S.A., and Lauri Lehtinen, Finland, in the 1932 Olympic games.
The best American time was Mal Whitfield's blistering 1:48.6 in the 800. Johnny Woodruff, the former Pittsburgh runner, set it in 1940. Whitfield will be pleased over his local rival, John Barnes of Occidental College, with Reggie Pearson, New York Pioneer Club, third.
SURPRISES
The major surprise:
The triumph in the steeplechase by Darrow Hooper, Texas A.M. over Barry O'Brien, Southern California and Jim Fuchs, N.Y.A.C., in that order.
Hooper hit 57 feet 10 inches; O'Brien 57 1/2, and Fuchs 56-11 1/2.
Meredith Gowdine's win in the broad jump and the first loss in 12 meets for the favorite, George Brown, UCLA, who finished third. Gowdine's distance, 23-4 1/2; Jerome Baffle, Army, 25-2; Brown, 25-1 1/2.

TIME OUT! Net Aces Stick In Britain

WIMBLEDON, England (AP) — Hollywood couldn't have staged it better.
The star players in the Wimbledon tennis drama followed the script to the letter and so reached the end of the first week of the all-England lawn tennis championship, which is the producers' picture.
All eight of the top seeds—three Americans, three Australians, one South African and a Czech who now holds Egyptian citizenship—are in the quarter-finals of the men's championship.
That means the eight who were picked for those roles all made it, and will battle for places in the semi-finals on Monday.
EASY WAY
Top-seeded Frank Sedgman arrived the easy way with a three-set victory Friday over fellow-Australian Don Candy. So did last year's champion, Dick Savitt of Orange, N.J., who is seeded fourth. Herbie Flam of Beverly Hills, Calif., seeded sixth, and Mervyn Rose of Australia, eighth.
The others had it tougher. Jaroslav Drobny of Egypt, seeded second, had to go four-sets to get by 17-year-old Lewis Hoad of Australia. Vic Seixas of Philadelphia, seeded third, and Ken McGregor of Australia, fifth, also needed one set above par to win.
But the roughest road of all was chosen by Eric Sturgess of South Africa, seeded seventh. College boy Grant Golden of Wichita, Ill., carried Sturgess to five sets before succumbing to the South African, and the 80 degree heat that prostrated scores of spectators.
SCRIPTWISE
The girls also played according to plan. Top-seeded Doris Hart of Coral Gables, Fla., the defending champion, reached the quarter-finals along with Maureen Connolly of San Diego, Calif., the American champion and second seed. So did Mrs. Pat Todd of La Jolla, Calif., seeded fifth and, Mrs. Thelma Long of Australia, seventh.
Two other American girls, Louise Brough of Beverly Hills, Calif., seeded fourth, and Shirley Fry of Akron, Ohio, seeded third, are virtual cinches to join Miss Hart and Miss Connolly there Saturday.
Four women's singles matches are scheduled to complete play in the fourth round.
The men get a rest from singles play Saturday and turn their efforts to doubles and mixed doubles. There is no Sunday play in England, so the men's quarter finals will be the big attraction on Monday.

Gem Park Sunday Ball Site

Gem Stadium will ring with familiar Sunday afternoon baseball sounds tomorrow when the Klamath Cokes face Lakeview in an American Junior League double-header, a Southern Oregon District twin bill starting at 1:30.
The Cokes are a determined lot, anxious to win both regional and state titles in the American Junior League in the three-team League 4 family.

COACH JOHN MCGINNIS seeks two wins

league play held two wins over Medford.
Lakeview is just as serious about climbing out of the cellar. A sweep of the series would be two more steps for the Cokes toward representing its league in the Southern Oregon District playoffs July 26 and 27 in Drain.
McGinnis will probably open with the same team that split with Bend last Sunday in king-X play.
That would put Don Dexter on third Ron Owings at shortstop, Jack Hendrickson at second, George Butcher, Roy Hanson at first and Larry Yarnell at the catching spot.
The outfield will have Louie Taucher in left, Ing Montgomery in center and Bill Anderson in right.
McGinnis indicated he would start Jo Jo George on the mound in the first game and either Champ Hutchner or David D'Olivo in the afterpiece.
Admission prices are 50 cents for adults, 25 cents for children.

NCAA Golf In Finals

LAFAYETTE, Ind. (AP) — The championship contenders Saturday in the 55th National Collegiate Golf tournament are a couple of fellows who are not accustomed to public putting.
Eddie Merrins, 19-year-old sophomore captain of Louisiana State's team, licked both Sammy Snead and Byron Nelson in exhibitions when he was 17-years-old.
His opponent, Jim Vickers of Oklahoma, whipped Frank Stranahan in the first round of the Western Amateur in 1950.
Vickers had the toughest semi-finals match Friday, having to birdie both of two extra holes in under-par shooter in a quarter-finals victory over Tommy Morrow of Louisiana State, lost his touch at that point. Merrins won No. 12 with a par. No. 13 with a 15-foot birdie putt and No. 15 with a par. Merrins was even par for the round.
Merrins and Billy Kev of Rollins were even after 11 holes in their semi-finals match. Kev, a five-under-par shooter in a quarter-finals victory over Tommy Morrow of Louisiana State, lost his touch at that point. Merrins won No. 12 with a par. No. 13 with a 15-foot birdie putt and No. 15 with a par. Merrins was even par for the round.

Coast Netmen Dominate NCAA Meet

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP) — Pacific Coast tennis—and specifically the U.C.L.A. brand—all but had the field to itself as players awaited Saturday's semi-final round of the NCAA tournament.
Only one entry each in the singles and doubles semi-finals was from any other section of the country.
Three single players and three doubles combinations from the West Coast advanced in quarter-final competition Friday.
Only others left in the championship elimination were Tennessee's unseeded Bill Davis in the singles and Texas' fourth-seeded doubles combine of Julian Gates and Bill Harris.
Top-seeded Hugh Stewart of Southern California eliminated No. 9 seeded Bill Quillian, 18-year-old University of Washington freshman, 6-1, 6-1 in the quarter-finals. Julian Gates and Bill Harris of Texas eliminated the Washington doubles pair of Quillian and Don Flve in the doubles quarter finals, 6-4, 11-9.
