

TIME OUT!

"Six runs here, eight runs there, seven runs here! Won't we ever have a BIG inning?"

RIDIN' HERD

THE CLAMOR for a rematch between Dick Wolfe and Earl Turner, shorn of his Northwest middleweight boxing title in a wierd decision 10 days ago here, becomes more insistent.

Along with the clamor comes a demand for a new set of officials for the bout.

At this writing, Sunday noon with the sun trying to make like June—these points are sure, according to word from Mack Lillard, affable ex-boxer, matchmaker.

(1) There will definitely be a ring card at the Armory the night of Saturday, July 12.

(2) He (Lillard) is going all-out to get Wolfe and Turner back with the title at stake.

(3) If the bout is closed, there will be no officials, a referee and two judges.

(4) If the bout is signed, it will be a 12-round affair.

Your writer's guess:

The match will be signed within the next day or two, for these reasons:

Turner wants a title back that he really never lost and Wolfe and advisors feel duty-bound to give the Earl of Richmond a return bout after the "gift" decision.

BRIEFS FROM the sports file:

Clarine error in Saturday sports section in 30-point type I'll blame on vacation hanger (how long will recent vacation get the blame?); headline had New York Athletic Club; Curtis Stone running 100-meters in 14.27, my 21-month old boy could probably walk it faster than that. . . it should have been 5000 meters, former record shared by the Klamath Basin's own Ralph Hill and Lauri Lehtinen of Finland.

Completion of the new bowling alley will be the greatest thing that's happened in this town since they replaced wood walks for modern concrete sidewalks. . . look for new kegling leagues to spring up like devil grass in a new lawn. . .

I hope Don Foreman decides against joining the Air Force. . . football fans are looking forward to another season of watching Dancin' Don scamper for the O-tech Owls, a sight that makes cold nights on Modoc Field seem warmer.

Amusing sideline on the rumor that Foreman was already decked out in service regalia. . . I heard the rumor, quick-like wired Don in Portland. . . the wire brought a speedy phone call from Foreman: "The wire scared me", he said; "I thought maybe I was being drafted". . .

OLD GRID RIVALRIES

MORGANTOWN, W. Va. (AP)—West Virginia University is renewing next season four ancient football rivalries, some of which are more than a half century old.

The Mountaineers will play Pittsburgh (started in 1895), Waynesburg (1895), Washington and Lee (1899) and Penn State (1904).

Mal Whitfield Double Winner

Curtis Stone Also Olympic Two-Timer

LOS ANGELES (AP)—America's 1952 Olympic track and field team, labeled the nation's all-time greatest, flies to New York Monday for a final week of conditioning for the international classic in Finland next month.

Fifty-two members of the team, plus coaches and officials are due to reach New York Monday night. Tuesday they go to Princeton to train for the remainder of the week. They will compete in a final fund-raising meet at New York, July 6, and take off for Helsinki the next day.

BROKE RECORDS

The athletes, winners of the first three places in the final trials here Friday and Saturday, left a trail of four American records shattered and one tied.

There was joy for the successful but sad memories for the losers. Injuries and hard luck struck down such fine men as hurdlers Dick Attlesey, Craig Dixon and Bob Devinnis; sprinter Jim Golligay; discus thrower Dick Doyle; shot putter Otis Chandler, distance runner Don Gehrmann and others.

But the survivors make up "probably the greatest Olympic team in the United States has ever fielded," said manager Bob Kane of Cornell.

Mal Whitfield, Air Force veteran not long away from war in Korea, and Curtis Stone, the scholarly looking New York AC star, were double winners in the trials.

Whitfield took the 800 meters in 1:48.6, tying the American record, and thumped the field in the 400 meters in 0:46.9.

Stone won the 10,000 and 5,000 meter runs, his 14.27 in the 5,000 breaking the old American mark.

He will give the Finns and Swedes a battle.

Andy Stanfield, with 20.6 in the 200 meter dash; Charlie Moore with 0:50.7 in the 400 meter hurdles and the 9:06.4 by Horace Ashenfeller in the 3,000 meter steeplechase were the other record breakers.

HIGHLIGHTS

Other highlights of the Saturday trials included:

The superb win by Harrison Dillard in the 110 meter high hurdles in 0:14.0, beating out Jack Davis and Art Barnard in that order.

Dixon, considered certain to make the team, spilled on the ninth hurdle and lost out.

Walter Davis, the Texas A&M giant, continued his mastery in the high jump with a leap of 6-9.

Sim Iness of Southern California led the discus field at 174-10.

And as expected, Bob Richards, the pole-vaulting parson, won the event at 14-8 3/4, with Don Laz second at 14-5 3/4.

Roger Howard, Michigan State pitcher from Johnstown, Pa., turned in two consecutive 1-0 victories this spring in Big Ten competition. He allowed only three hits in each game.

Rain Plays Hob With WI Loop; Salem Wins

By The Associated Press

Salem swept a doubleheader with Vancouver 8-1 and 7-5 Sunday and Yakima edged Spokane 5-3 in the only games of a rain-abbreviated Western International League baseball schedule.

Rain washed out doubleheaders between Wenatchee and Lewiston at Lewiston and Victoria and Tri-City at Kennewick, and the first half of the Yakima-Spokane twin bill at Spokane.

Salem's double win over Vancouver gave the Senators the series 2-1 (Saturday's game was rained out) and boosted them into fifth place ahead of the Wenatchee Chiefs for the only major change in league standings.

The Victoria Tyees, who split Saturday with Tri-City 1-2 and 6-0, remained out in front six games ahead of Vancouver, and the Spokane Indians trailed Vancouver by our percentage points. The Indians divided with Yakima 7-0 and 3-4 Saturday.

Lewiston also hit the win column Sunday, nosing out Wenatchee 3-2.

An exhibition game between Salem and Sacramento of the Pacific Coast League is the only contest on tap in the circuit Monday night. Tuesday Spokane moves to Salem. Lewiston plays at Tri-City, and Yakima and Wenatchee travel across the international border for series at Vancouver and Victoria, respectively.

Duck Forecast Good

WINNIPEG (AP)—It looks like a good year for ducks and duck-hunters.

Probably the only people who won't be happy about a report issued Thursday by Ducks Unlimited are the farmers, whose grain fields provide lunch for the birds.

Chief Naturalist Bert W. Cartwright said in an interim report that waterfowl production this year will probably be one of the finest in recent years.

"Overall picture promising. . . heavier breeding stock over most of the range, a good early hatch and prospect of heavy production," the report said.

The report is based on aerial and ground surveys in all three prairie provinces and checked against field observations by U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service biologists and the Canadian Wildlife Service.

Heavier production estimates are based on the increase in pairs of ducks which will raise flocks this summer.

Alberta records show an increase of 4.3 per cent in breeding pairs from 1951 ground survey figures.

Saskatchewan's ground survey of 161 square miles showed 29.6 breeding pairs a square mile. In Eastern Saskatchewan—dry this spring—11.1 pairs were counted, down from 13.7 last year.

But Western Saskatchewan showed 25.1 breeding pairs a square mile compared with 12.2 last year—an increase of 105.7 per cent.

Manitoba's survey is incomplete, but the report said an excellent hatch is expected to balance an estimated 24 per cent reduction in breeding population from last year.

Project Manager Frank Ward said recent rains in Southern Manitoba canceled any danger of drought loss for the rest of the hatching season.

FALSE ALARM

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP)—A note from the local sports scene:

The Fire Department played the Police Department's baseball team Sunday, and for eight innings it looked like the smokeeaters had the game in the bag.

Then, in the top of the ninth, the city's finest managed to squeeze across the tying run to make it 15-14. The fireman came back, determined to score the winning run.

You guessed it—a general alarm came through, sending the fire laddies scurrying for their red wagons.

Final score: Firemen 15, Policemen 15.

Oh, yes. It was a false alarm.

Rose Upsets Dick Savitt

WIMBLEDON, England (AP)—Dick Savitt of Orange, N.J., defending Wimbledon tennis champion, was ousted Monday in the quarter finals by Australia's Mervyn Rose, 6-4, 3-6, 6-4, 6-2, in a stirring battle.

Savitt, who has fallen on unhappy days since he won the Australian and Wimbledon crowns in 1951, put up a tremendous battle before he was eliminated.

The 22-year-old Rose, a left-handed Australian Davis Cup player, thus moved into the semi-finals with his win over fourth-seeded Savitt. Rose was seeded eighth.

Slush Stops Coke Nine

Wet grounds postponed yesterday's scheduled doubleheader at Gems Stadium between the Klamath Cokes and Lakeview in a Southern Oregon League 4 American Junior Legion bill.

The games will be made up later, Coke Manager John McGinnis said.

Hilt Leads NC League

Hilt holds down the Northern California Baseball League lead today after shattering McCloud, 6-5, on the winners' diamond yesterday.

ML Shasta helped Hilt's cause by upsetting Weed, 9-7, to put Weed and McCloud in a second-place tie.

In the only other game, Yreka defeated Scott Valley, 8-5.

The Tylenke at Dunsuir game was postponed by wet grounds.

Line scores:

Yreka 9 11 5

Weed 7 12 3

Anderson and Brooks, Barron, Bordino and Fruzza, McCloud 5 11 4

Hilt 6 11 3

Kursten, Nelson and Garcia; Maddox and Busack, Scott Valley 5 8 2

Yreka 8 14 3

Hume and O'Donnell, Shirley and Williams.

Adams, Pieretti Hurl Shutouts for Beavers

By The Associated Press

Six of seven Sunday games in the Pacific Coast League had something in common—shutout pitching.

Hollywood blanked Los Angeles twice, 4-0 and 2-0, for the first double shutout of the season, only to see Portland turn up a few minutes later with another, 4-0 and 3-0 over Sacramento.

San Diego downed Seattle 2-0 in the opener and the Rainiers were ahead 1-0 in the nightcap when the game was called in the fourth inning because of wet grounds.

San Francisco held Oakland to a goose egg, 3-0, and lost the nightcap in eight innings, 5-4.

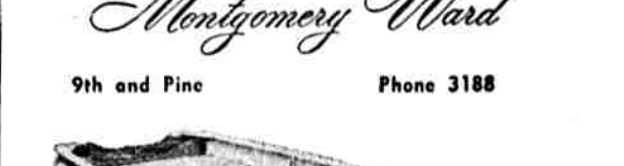

Red Adams and Marino Pieretti were the stars for Portland. Adams limited the solons to four hits in the first game and Pieretti gave up two in the nightcap.

The Beavers' 11-hit attack in the opener was sparked by Hank Arr's two-run homer. Joe Brivdi's four-bagger in the fourth inning of the final made it 1-0 and the two other scores came in the sixth on a bases-loaded single. Portland took the series, 5-2.

Memo Luna slunked Seattle with a two-hitter in pitching his shutout. The game was interrupted for 30 minutes by showers. Both San Diego tallies came in the first. Jack Tobin opened with a single and moved to third on Dick Faber's single. Faber moved to second on the throw-in, then Herb Gorman singled to score them both.
