Beauty Contest Cancelled
 ALBUQUERQUE (AP) — The Miss Duke City beauty contest, scheduled in Albuquerque next Sunday, has been cancelled.
 The cancellation came a day after Catholics in the city were forbidden by the Most Rev. Edwin V. Byrne, archbishop of Santa Fe, to participate.
 Contest officials said the archbishop's ban had nothing to do with calling the contest off. But they gave no other reason.
 The archbishop, in a pastoral letter, said such contests are an appeal to the baser instincts of mankind and an incentive to uncleanliness in thought and action.

Judge Crater Mystery May Soon Be On Films
 HOLLYWOOD (NEA) — Exclusively Yours' Movie Fight's to America's most intriguing mystery—the strange disappearance 22 years ago of a New York Supreme Court Justice, Joseph Force Crater—has just been placed on the bidding block.
 Crater vanished in 1930 after leaving his summer cabin in Maine for a business week-end in New York. His wife, Mrs. Stella Crater, granted the story rights through her attorney to Irene Wright, secretary to a Hollywood producer.
 British newsmen are boiling because Clark Gable won't hold still for interviews. The Artie Shaw-Constance Dowling romance, punctuated by fierce bicycle riding, has cooled down to plain friendship.
 Hollywood's new economy kick is hair-raising. The U-I call sheet for "The Great Companions" carried this notation: "Three Men for Quartet." Further, economy was practiced on "Cattle Kate" during the murky days this month on an outdoor set. Director Lee Sholem had shadows painted on the ground to create the illusion of sunlight, so no shooting days would be lost.
 The boys who worry about such things are trying to figure out how Alan Ladd and Arlene Dahl are going to be able to co-star in "Desert Legion." Arlene towers over Alan. It's the studio's knottiest problem since Richard Basehart had to make love to Marilyn Maxwell. She played her scenes in bare feet and still had to stoop.
 It's magazine photographer Milton Greene, aringer for John Garfield, who's No. 1 in Nina Foch's life, replacing director Vincente Minnelli. Nina's pals think that her European vacation plans are a cover-up for a honeymoon with Greene later this summer.
 Steve Dunne, who made 30 flickers before playing in James Mason's "Lady Possessed," isn't taking the rap for the "Introducing Stephen Dunne" billing he received in the picture. He's embarrassed about it that he's blaming June Havoc, who squawked, he says, about sharing normal star billing with him.
 The Gene Barrys—he is Paramount's new fair-haired boy—are expecting a Christmas baby. It will be a family affair on the Dorothy Shay TV show over CBS. Dot's niece and two nephews have been set to play kinko. Ursula Thiess says her dating with Bob Taylor isn't serious. "He's a nice guy," is her only comment. Ken Tobey, who saved the world from "The Thing,"

Truce Talks Drag Ahead
 MUNSAN, Korea (AP) — The Communists Tuesday accused the U. N. Command of "seeking pretexts for creating new incidents" as truce negotiators returned to Panmunjom after a three-day Allied-imposed recess.
 North Korean Gen. Nam Il lambasted the U. N. for insisting that the Reds pinpoint the location of four prison camps in North Korea. His charge was included in a letter handed to Allied liaison officers a few minutes before negotiators began another futile attempt to break the long armistice deadlock.
 Maj. Gen. William K. Harrison, Jr., told the Reds "if the prisoner of war issue is settled, an armistice will result without delay."
 He pointed out that the Allied draft on prisoner exchange reads that "all prisoners of war held in the custody of each side" will be released, and an exchange made according to "lists which have been checked" by each side.
 Presumably captured Reds who refused to go home would not be included on the list turned over to the Communists for checking.
 Nam promptly rejected Harrison's suggestion and insisted that all North Korean and Chinese prisoners of war be returned. He reiterated that the only way to reach an armistice is for the Allies to accept the Communist proposal of May 7, which calls for the repatriation of all military prisoners.
 The negotiators agreed to meet again Wednesday at 11 a. m.

Hitchhiker Gets Taken
 NEWARK, N.J. (AP) — Claude Hammond of New York City was trying to hitch a ride Monday near Newark airport.
 Finally, a sedan carrying three men stopped. One of the men asked Hammond to show some identification, and then he would get a lift.
 Out came Hammond's wallet, which he promptly handed over to the trio. They took out $7, returned the wallet, and then sped away, Hammond reported to police.

Third Class Mail Cost Up
 WASHINGTON (AP) — Users of the bulk third class mailing privilege got a 30-million-dollar-a-year hike in their postal charges Tuesday.
 The long standing minimum charge of one cent per piece went up to one and a half cents per piece—another of the staggered postage increases authorized by Congress last year to help wipe out the recurring postal deficit.
 Third class mail covers circulars, catalogs, similar printed matter, seeds, plants and merchandise samples. There is a tremendous amount of such mailings annually.
 The increase, however, will not apply to religious, charitable and fraternal groups which will continue to enjoy the one cent per piece minimum charge.
 Those using bulk mailing of third class matter pay an annual $10 fee for the privilege.

Niagara Falls Claims Woman
 NIAGARA FALLS, N.Y. (AP) — Scores of tourists watched helplessly Monday night as a woman plunged into the Niagara River and was swept to her death over the American Falls.
 The woman, Mrs. Josephine Stachowiak, of nearby Cheektowaga, was identified through several notes found in a purse left with a coat at the scene of the jump near the cataract's brink. Contents of the notes were not disclosed.
 Relatives of the dead woman told police that Mrs. Stachowiak had been dependent over the death of her husband last fall.
 Even without Greta Garbo's okay, Ida Lupino and Collier Young are going ahead with their idea of filming "The House of the Seven Gables"—about the Hollywood boarding house where aspiring starlets dwell.

Senate Approves 46 Billion For Armed Forces This Year
 By JERRY T. BAUGH
 WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Monday night approved a $46,403,000,000 budget to run the armed forces for the fiscal year starting Tuesday, nearly five billion dollars less than President Truman asked.
 The measure, the largest money bill before Congress this year, carries a provision Sen. O'Mahoney (D-Wyo.) said assured the Air Force it could finance a buildup to 143 wings by mid-1953. The present Air Force is a little over 90 wings.
 The final total for the military services will have to be worked out in conference with the House which voted $46,207,000,000. The administration had requested $51,390,000,000.
 In approving the armed forces budget on a 86-10 roll call vote, the Senate completed its version of all money legislation except a 10-billion dollar supplementary fund now before the Appropriations Committee. A vote on this is expected Thursday.
 However, both the Senate and House still have to reconsider eight appropriations bills—in addition to the military budget—which are in conference committees.
 Congress has sent only one money measure to the President but legislators hope to clear all 11 bills before Saturday, a target date they've set for adjournment in order to attend the national political conventions this month.
 A major difference between the Senate and House versions of the armed services budget is in the manner of laying out Air Force funds.
 The Senate voted $21,122,361,700 and the House $20,752,412,912, compared with $22,570,280,770 the President asked. The House voted its funds all in cash but the Senate stipulated that a $13,122,361,700 would be in cash and eight million in contract authority.
 This authority permits contracts to be made with the assurance that Congress will vote to pay the bills later.
 The Senate approved the contract authority proposed by O'Mahoney by a 79-10 vote but it was not explained how this, rather than cash, would help speed the Air Force buildup.
 The Senate voted $12,165,080,000 for the army and $12,099,574,142 for the Navy.
 The House had voted $12,244,400,000 and $12,815,152,142. Truman had requested $14,360,622,000 for the Army and $13,958,246,000 for the Navy.
 The Senate bill does not include a House provision—opposed by the administration—to place a 46-billion lid on spending for the fiscal year, six billion below the planned figure.
 Spending applies to new appropriations plus money from past appropriations for such things as planes and ships which take longer than a year to build.
 Truman and Pentagon officials said a ceiling on spending would disrupt the plans for a military buildup.
 The Senate approved by voice vote an amendment—turned down by the House—to give military men in Korea $43 a month in combat pay. It would go to those who have been under actual enemy fire.
 The Senate, by a standing vote, rejected a proposal by Sen. Douglas (D-Ill.) to reduce special hazard pay for fliers and submariners to $50 a month for enlisted men and $100 a month for officers. The pay is based on a sliding scale, with some officers getting as much as $210 extra.

Maureen O'Hara and hubby Will Price will go into independent production this fall with "Star of India," another swashbuckler.
 "Let other people spend money on 'acting' and 'message' stories," snorts Maureen. "This is a business. I check with exhibitors to see what they want. They want action—not talk."
 Katharine Hepburn's golf sequences in "Pat and Mike" are reminding pals that she was runner-up in the finals of the Connecticut Women's Open Championship several years ago. But instead of her clubs, the caddy carried an umbrella so she wouldn't sunburn and the gallery loved it.
 "Sword of Damascus," a screenplay tailored for Tony Curtis and Piper Laurie, is ready for the cameras at U-I. But Piper's pals say she's balling at Tony's remarks about her and will ask the front office to find Tony another co-star.
 There's divorce talk about British star Glynis Johns and her groom, soap tycoon David Foster. She's in London to play Mary Tudor in Walt Disney's remake of "When Knighthood Was in Flower" and he's traveling around the world solo.
