

STEARNS-HANKA

More June Weddings

HUGHES-BOSWORTH

BEAUTIFUL BRIDES AND BEAUTIFUL WEDDINGS prevailed throughout the month of June. Important on the wedding calendar was the marriage of Nellie Mae Hanka to Lt. Ralph Waldo Stearns in the First Methodist Church, June 21. Bridal party above, (l to r) Darlene Majala, Frances Stearns, sister of the bridegroom, Phyllis Nygaard, Dorothy Heustel, bridesmaids, Mrs. Donald Johnston (Gwen Hanka) sister of the bride, matron of honor, bride and bridegroom, Douglas Dryden, best man; Bill Dalton, Don Wiley, Duane Day and Bill Moller, ushers, Flower girl, Jackie Jean Latham, four year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Latham, Portland.

LEAVING THE RECEPTION . . . to change clothes for their wedding trip, which included two weeks in the Hawaiian Islands.

NELLIE MAE . . . and her attendants before the wedding. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hanka, and her husband is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Waldo Stearns.

THE REV. LLOYD HOLLOWAY, who officiated at the wedding for the new Lt. and Mrs. Stearns is shown with them in his study.

Klamath wedding photos by Guderian.

KNOX-McKENDREE

FATHER OF THE BRIDE, Scott W. McKendree, lends a helping hand to his daughter, Gerry, as they leave their home for the church.

MRS. CHARLES ROBERT KNOX, (Geraldine Lois McKendree), pretty bride of Sunday afternoon, June 29th, in ceremony solemnized at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, is shown with her attendants. (l to r) Cheri Knox, maid of honor; Virginia Knox, Alice McKendree, Marysue McNabb, Marilyn Hemingsen, bridesmaids.

AFTER THE CHURCH SERVICE, Mr. and Mrs. Knox are happily bound for the reception at Reames Country Club.

THE BRIDE AND BRIDEGROOM, with their honor attendants, are pictured at the altar of St. Paul's Church. Maid of honor is Cheri Knox, twin sister of the bridegroom. Kenneth Meeker is best man.

REMEMBERED HERE AS JUNE BOSWORTH . . . is Mrs. William G. Hughes, whose marriage June 22, in St. Mark's Episcopal Church, Medford, was attended by many Klamath Falls friends; made when her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harlan P. Bosworth were local residents. Pretty and charming bride and her husband will be at home in Salem after their wedding trip.

Photo by Shangle, Medford.

Society
by MILLY RAMSEY