

GERRY McKENDREE LOVELY BRIDE IN WHITE IRISH LACE OVER IVORY SATIN

An afternoon ceremony in St. Paul's Episcopal church, June 29, united in marriage Geraldine Lois McKendree, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Scott W. McKendree, and Charles Robert Knox, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Knox, Gold Beach, Ore. The 3 o'clock double ring service was read by the Rev. Galen Onstad in the presence of a large group of friends and relatives.

Blue delphinium, white roses and white gladioli were used in the altar vases with larger arrangements of the same flowers placed before the branched candelabra and at the chancel rail. Pewers were marked with small clusters of the same blue and white blossoms which were tied with satin bows in matching shades.

Before the entrance of the bride party, Catherine Blanas, accompanied by the organ by Marie Obenchain, sang "I Love Thee," by Grieg, and during the ceremony, Miss Blanas sang "Oh, Perfect Love."

Presented in marriage by her father, the bride wore a beautiful gown of white Irish lace over ivory satin, fashioned with full train, long sleeves and double ruffle of pleated net outlining the neckline. Her fingertip veil of white net was held in place by a square Juliet cap edged in pearls, and she carried a white prayer book topped with white orchids and stephanotis.

Cheri Knox, twin sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor, wearing a gown of deep yellow net over tulle with lace insets on the bodice and lace jacket. An open crown net picture hat and mitts completed her ensemble. Her flowers were yellow gladioli and white delphinium in a nosegay against a background of yellow net.

Bridesmaids were Alice McKendree, sister of the bride; Virginia Knox, bridegroom's sister; Marysue McNabb and Marilyn Hemingsen. All wore pale blue dresses and picture hats identical to the honor attendants, and carried nosegays of white gladioli and blue delphinium outlined in blue net.

Kenneth Meeker of Amity, Oregon, was best man. Seating guests were Jack Crabtree and Edward Johnson of Newberg; Harry Marsh, Dunsuir, Calif.; and Gary Eckert of Portland.

To attend her daughter's wedding, Mrs. McKendree chose a floor length gown of blue nylon net over matching tulle with lace yoke, and small cap of the same net and lace. Her flowers were purple orchids worn at the shoulder.

Mrs. Knox, mother of the bridegroom, was dressed in a dusty rose crepe formal frock with white hat and shoulder corsage of orchids.

Following the church service, a reception was held at Reames Country Club, Mrs. Rohlen Hastings, of Colfax, Calif., and Mrs. Otto Klum, of Ashland, presided at the coffee service. At the punch bowl were Betty Beune and Catherine Blanas. The cake was cut by Sally Barnhart and Elaine Tambo, of Portland. Carmel Finnigan and Joyce Werner were in charge of the guest book.

After a honeymoon in Canada, the new Mr. and Mrs. Knox will be at home in Gold Beach, Oregon, for traveling. The bride wore a tailored suit of gray corded wool with navy blue accessories and the white orchids from her wedding flowers.

The bride attended Oregon State College where she was a member of Sigma Kappa. Her husband is a graduate of the same school and affiliated with Delta Chi fraternity.

In addition to those in the bride party and those assisting at the reception, out of town guests present for the wedding included Mrs. Emma Knox of Chehalis, Wash., grandmother of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Knox, parents of the bridegroom, Gold Beach; Mrs. Blaine Klum, Oakland, Calif.; Mrs. Robert Anz and son, Robert, Lafayette, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Rohlen Hastings, Colfax, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. James Maher, Alturas, Calif.; Louise Spouta, Darlene Sitton, Elaine Tams, Portland; Mrs. Harry Marsh and daughters, Jackie and Carol, Dunsuir, Calif.; and Mrs. C. J. Moser and son, C. J. Jr., Grants Pass; Mrs. C. D. Arthur, Lakeview; Mrs. Chae Gardner, Ashland.

JUNE BOSWORTH BRIDE OF WILLIAM HUGHES JUNE 22 IN ST. MARK'S IN MEDFORD

June Marie Bosworth became the bride of William George Hughes in rites held Sunday, June 22, at St. Mark's Episcopal Church, Medford. The Rev. George R. V. Bolster read the marriage service at two-thirty o'clock in the afternoon, with 250 guests attending.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Page Bosworth Jr., 2425 East Main St., Medford, well known former residents of Klamath Falls, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Sherman Cochran, and Harry O. Hughes, both of Portland.

For the ceremony the church was decorated with garden blossoms, and the altar vases were filled with white delphinium and orange blossoms. Prelude music was supplied by the bride's brother, Harlan P. Bosworth III, cellist, with Mrs. Ernest Conrad at the organ. Vocal soloist was Herbert Daniele, Camp White.

The beautiful bride, whose father gave her in marriage, wore a ballerina-style gown of lace and net with net bustle skirt. Her veil was fingertip length and she carried a nosegay of white bride's roses centered with Cecile Brunner roses encircled with stephanotis.

Elizabeth Meserreau, San Jose, Calif., was honor attendant. Her gown was of shell pink with sunburst pleated net skirt over tulle, and she carried a nosegay of Cecile Brunner roses encircled with carnations. Marge Petersen, Portland, Mrs. Harper Hamilton and Mrs. Louis LeMire, Medford, and Mrs. Fred Foulon, Klamath Falls, completed the list of attendants. They wore frocks of aquamarine blue to match the honor attendant's gown, and their nosegays were of Cecile Brunner roses and carnations.

Virgil Cavagnaro, Portland, was best man for Hughes. Ushers were Robert and David Bosworth, brother of the bride, Goodrich O. Hayes Jr., and Sherman Cochran Jr., brother of the bridegroom, both of Portland.

The reception was held in the garden of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Eden on Genessee street. Mrs. John C. Boyle cut the bridegroom's cake and Mrs. Twyla Ferguson, Klamath Falls, the bride's cake. Serving punch were Miss Josephine Koppes, Mrs. Richard W. Gray and Mr. Boyle, Medford; Mrs. Tom Mahoney, Portland; Dorice Pancost and Marcia Summers, Dallas, Ore.; and Mrs. Pat Aimes, Dallas, had charge of the guest book. Mrs. Eden, Mrs. Stephen G. Nye and Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Harvey, friends of the family, decorated the church.

Music for the reception was provided by the bride's brother, Harlan, Bruno Pellegrini and Lloyd Halvorsen.

Mr. and Mrs. Hughes spent their honeymoon on the Oregon coast and at mountain resorts, and are now at home in Salem. The bride, who was graduated from the University of Oregon after attending Medford and Klamath Falls schools has been on the staff of the Polk county public welfare administration for the past year as a caseworker. Her husband was graduated from Roosevelt High School, Portland, Oregon State College and the University of Syracuse, taking a master's degree at the last school earlier this month. He is now employed by the Oregon state forestry department.

In Medford for the wedding were Sherman Cochran, Colleen Cochran, Mr. C. Hughes, Mrs. Virgil Cavagnaro, Thomas Mahoney, Mr. and Mrs. Jack P. Wilhelm, Mrs. Bessie Wilhelm and Dee Strickler, all of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. J. Howard Totten, Seattle; Mr. and Mrs. Wallis Tolles, Julie and Richmond Tolles, Preston, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Ben Dallo, Mrs. Marjorie Fulham, Lois Waisworth, Dulles; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lewis, Wheeler; Virginia West, Eugene; Lowell Patton, Grants Pass; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jenkins, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Barnhill, Sally and Peter, Mr. and Mrs. S. I. Ritchey, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Serrys, Dr. and Mrs. F. Cecil Adams and Jean, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Foulon, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. VanVactor and Robert, Mrs. Robert Thompson and Ruth Merrill, all Klamath Falls; Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Steele, Yreka; and Joan Barnes, San Francisco.

Following the wedding and reception Mr. and Mrs. Bosworth gave a buffet supper at their home for 75 out-of-town guests.

Mrs. L. Kalina Feted at Shower

A group of friends of Mrs. Louis Kalina surprised her Friday evening, July 27, with a layette shower, held in the home of Mrs. William Rajanus. Hostesses were Mrs. Ed Stacey, Mrs. Edwin Petrasen and Mrs. William Rajanus.

Pinochle was played and prizes were awarded to Mrs. Walter Stacey, Mrs. Marie Ottomian and Mrs. Joe Halouek.

Mrs. Kalina opened the gifts which had been placed in a large box made to look like a brick chimney, over which hovered a large stork.

White stock and pink snapdragons placed in large baby shoes were at either end of the table, which was centered with a beautifully decorated cake. Candy casks also carried out the stork theme.

Honoring Mrs. Kalina were: Mrs. Loyal Saunders, Mrs. Howard Henderson, Mrs. Jim Houser, Mrs. Mervyn Wilde, Mrs. Ivan Ottomian, Mrs. P. G. Wilson, Mrs. Charles Dobry, Mrs. Marie Ottomian, Mrs. Walter Stacey, Mrs. Frank Payor, Mrs. Emil Toell, Mrs. Joe Halouek, Mrs. Marie Kalina, Mrs. John Reber, Mrs. Wayne Fisk, Mrs. Tony Steyskal, Mrs. Jerry Rajanus, Mrs. Laddie Rajanus and the hostesses.

Sending gifts but not attending were: Mrs. Valz Kalina, Mrs. John Freitag, Mrs. Jack Martin, Mrs. Elzie Roberts and Jacquetta Saunders.

GARDEN CLUB MEETS AT MALIN

The lovely new home of Mrs. Robert Byrne was the setting for the June meeting of the Malin Garden Club Wednesday afternoon, June 25.

Meeting was called to order by President, Mrs. Jerry Rajanus. Members answered roll call by naming a wild flower, and were each given cleverly made booklets announcing the program for the year.

Constitution and by-laws were read by the secretary, Mrs. Phil Blohm. Object of the club is to develop gardening; to study native trees, flowers, bird life; and to encourage civic planting and civic beauty. All women interested in gardening are eligible to join.

After the business meeting Mr. W. C. DePew of Kuhn's Flower Shop demonstrated to the members the art of flower arranging. Juniper, sagebrush, and weeds were used in the clever arrangements, as well as garden and houseplants.

Present for the meeting were: Mrs. L. B. Schreiner, Mrs. Emil Toell, Mrs. Karl Kujala, Mrs. Ivan Ottomian, Mrs. C. B. Cornett, Mrs. Ben Johnson, Mrs. Marie Ottomian, Mrs. Dick Henzel, Mrs. Sadie Laxton, Mrs. W. C. Dalton, Mrs. Dick Halouek, Mrs. Charles Hamilton, Mrs. Robert Hill, Mrs. Merle Lookey, Mrs. Joe Halouek, Mrs. Harmon Lovens, Mrs. Loyal Loveless, Mrs. Jerry Rajanus, Mrs. Frank Payor, Mrs. Alden Lovens, and the hostesses, Mrs. Byrne and Mrs. Phil Blohm.

Mrs. Perry Haley and Mrs. Edith Browning were guests from the Lost River Garden Club.

A potluck picnic at the Malin Park will take the place of the July meeting. The date will be Wednesday, July 23 at 1 p.m.

Buffet Supper

Mrs. Leland Harris entertained a few friends at her home June 20. Games were played and refreshments were served at midnight to Mrs. Mae Gale, Mrs. P. W. Brown, Mrs. John Sullivan, Mrs. Bill Novotny, Mrs. Ted Albert, Mrs. Marvin Brown, Mrs. Lester Urback, and Billie Harris.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN IS SCENE OF MORNING RITES

Christie Sr., Fairfield, Conn.

Mr. Earl Mack Sr. gave Margaret in marriage, in the absence of her father, who is in Formosa.

The nuptial vows were exchanged before a background of fern and large baskets of white gladioli and chrysanthemums. The Rev. David F. Barnett Jr., read the service in the presence of close friends and relatives.

The bride wore a natural raw silk suit, white hat and navy blue accessories. She had a "betrothed" sapphire in her shoe, and the wore a necklace of gold beads, an heirloom of the Brundage family. Her corsage of white orchids from Hawaii, were sent by her parents, who are in Formosa.

The charming bride was attended by Joan Howell, who carried a white hat and navy blue accessories. She carried baby orchids, also sent from Hawaii.

Best man was Thomas Sherwood Christie, U.S. Navy, brother of the bridegroom. Ushers were Donald Burr Christie, Fairfield, Conn., also John's brother; Sam Raymond and Robert Eiseninger, Portland.

Mrs. Harold A. Brundage, Danbury, Conn., who represented the bride's mother, wore a navy blue dress and hat accented with white, and a purple iris corsage.

Mrs. Christie, mother of the bridegroom, wore a lime-green changing dress and matching hat, and her shoulder corsage was a bronze orchid.

The reception was in the church parlors immediately after the ceremony. Mrs. Elizabeth Ramsby was at the coffee service. Mrs. Earl Mack Sr. served the punch, and the cake was served by Carolyn Shaver, Corvallis; and Hattie Mae Rhonemus, Eugene. Mrs. David F. Barnett Jr. and Mrs. George Elliott assisted.

"Peg" is an alumna of the University of Connecticut, and is the Klamath County 4-H agent. Her husband served with the U.S. Navy in the South Pacific, during World War II. He is a graduate of Yale University, and also attended the School of Forestry at Oregon State College. He is at present with the Weyerhaeuser Timber Company here.

Out of town guests included Robert Rowe, Centralia, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. George Spencer, Yreka; Robin Mitchell, Sussex, England; and Fredrick C. Mitchell, Erie, Penn.

For going-away, the bride wore her wedding suit and she wore a strand of pearls given to her by the bridegroom.

The popular young couple is now at home, 623 N. 8th Street, after their wedding trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Staller gave a pinocchio party at their home on the evening of June 21. Following cards, a buffet lunch was served to Mr. and Mrs. Ted Schmiedl, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Potuck, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schmiedl, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Scott, Mr. and Mrs. George Fernlund, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Novotny and Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Staller.

Especially honored at the meeting were those members with birthdays falling in June; they were: Mrs. Irene Todorovic, Mrs. Beatrice Getty, Mrs. R. G. Motcher, Mrs. Fred Heilbroner, Mrs. Ethel Roberts, and Mrs. Julia Williams.

After the meeting adjourned, the group spent an enjoyable social hour with refreshments being served by the hostesses, Mrs. Clark Fennler, Mrs. Roy Campbell, Mrs. Irene Todorovic, and Mrs. Lee Sonnenberg.

The newly elected officers will be installed at the next regular meeting in September.

LT. RALPH STEARNS CLAIMS NELLIE HANKA AS HIS BRIDE

Dainty arrangements of rosebuds and fern tied with white satin ribbon marked each pew, white silk rope bordered the aisle, and pink and white daisies in profusion were used before a background of greenery for the lovely setting in First Methodist church, for the wedding of Nellie Mae Hanka to Lt. Ralph Waldo Stearns Jr. The Rev. Lloyd Holloway read the 8 p.m. service, June 21, in the presence of a large group of guests and relatives.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hanka, Weyerhaeuser District, and the bridegroom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Waldo Stearns Sr., 745 Pacific Terrace.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was radiant in a gown of white satin and lace with a long court train. The long, light-fitting sleeves were pointed at the wrists. Her fingertip veil of illusion net was held in place with a halo of orange blossoms. She had a penny in one of her white satin slippers, and she wore the traditional blue sash. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom. She carried a bouquet of two white orchids surrounded with lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Gordon Morris was organist and she accompanied Don McKenzie, who sang.

Matron of honor, Mrs. Donna Johnston (Gwen) sister of the bride, was in royal blue tulle, styled with a portrait neckline, with an upstanding narrow bertha type collar with scalloped edges tapering from the shoulder bouquet.

The four bridesmaids were all dressed exactly as the matron of honor, except that their frocks were powder blue and they all carried arm-bouquets of Rurum lilies. They were, Frances Marie Stearns, sister of the bridegroom; Phyllis Nygaard, Seattle; Dorothy Neusel, Lebanon, Oregon; and Darlene MacLain, Portland. All three are former classmates of the bride at Emanuel Hospital School of Nursing, Portland.

Little flower girl, Jackie Jean Latham, four year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Latham, Portland, was a pretty picture in yellow tulle, with pink blossoms in her hair. Jackie Jean carried a pink satin basket of rose petals which she strewed as she walked. She preceded the bride. She was a patient of Nellie Mae's at Emanuel, where they became personal friends.

Best man was Douglas Dryden, Portland, who is a fraternity brother of the bridegroom, as were all of the ushers. Duane Day, Estacada; Bill Moller, Gresham; Bill Dalton, Malin; and Don Wiley, Dayton, Oregon.

Mrs. Hanka chose a rose colored formal, soft crepe skirt and lace top, for her daughters wedding, and she wore an orchid corsage.

Bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Stearns, wore a beige formal and her corsage was a pink orchid.

The reception immediately after the ceremony, was held in the church parlors, decorated with the same type flowers used for the wedding.

Pouring were Gloria Bunnell, Edith Weith and Eleanor Sloan, the latter two from Vancouver, Wash.; were also classmates of the bride. Bernice Berg, Portland, cut the cake, and she is another former classmate of Nellie Mae's. Virginia Marx and Arlon Lynch were at the gift table.

Nellie Mae is a KUHS graduate, and last September was graduated from Emanuel Hospital School of Nursing.

Ralph, also a KUHS graduate, recently received his bachelor of science degree from Oregon State College, where he is a member of Kappa Delta Phi fraternity. Recently commissioned a 2nd lieutenant in the United States Air Force, he will report for duty at McCord Field, Tacoma, August 18.

The bride's going away costume was a navy blue faille dress with jacket, and red accessories. The popular young couple is on a two weeks honeymoon in the Hawaiian Islands, and will return to Klamath Falls early this month, where they will be until Lt. Stearns reports for duty at Tacoma with the USAF.

Out of town guests who attended the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Percy Stearns and Blanche Hupe, Auburn, Calif.; Dr. and Mrs. Elton Wood, Princeton; Dr. and Mrs. William Barry, Corvallis; Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Stearns, and daughters, Granite Pass; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Latham, Portland; and Miss Irma Reiss, Vancouver, Wash.
