

Comics

Page Eighteen Wednesday, July 9, 1932
HERALD AND NEWS, KLAMATH FALLS, OREGON

GLAMOR GIRLS

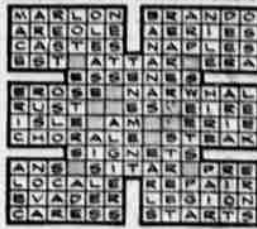

"Thanks for changing my flat tire. Now could I give you a lift someplace?"

Night Life

- HORIZONTAL
- Wise old night
 - Mammals that fly at night
 - Amusement place, night
 - Vegetable
 - Air (comb. form)
 - Supply with weapons
 - Unpleasantness
 - Greek coins
 - Short-billed rails
 - Escape (slang)
 - Comfort
 - Where baby spends the night
 - Essential being
 - Watering place
 - Body of water
 - Female relative
 - On land
 - Property
 - Moist
 - Give forth
 - Handle
 - Central American Indian
 - Boy's nickname
 - Water nymph
 - Married women
 - The sun is
 - at night
 - African river
 - Ring
 - Opposite of night (Latin)
 - Three (prefix)
- VERTICAL
- Gem
 - Existed
 - Night illumination
 - Broom
 - Prayer ending
 - Torments
 - Total
 - Light boat
 - Ogle
 - Minor, a constellation seen at night
 - Stud
 - Native Japanese living in America
 - Forbidden
 - Property item
 - Taken
 - Level
 - Foe
 - Obstinate
 - Jurymen (coll.)
 - Caresses
 - Superficial extent
 - Mountain nymphs
 - Flight of steps
 - Metrical foot
 - Posts
 - Stalks
 - East Indian palm
 - Again
 - Russian czar called "the Terrible"
 - Toward the sheltered side
 - Nostril
 - Struck
 - Girl's name

Answer to Previous Puzzle

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

with MAJOR HOOPLE OUT OUR WAY

By J. R. WILLIAMS

