Explanations Due On Oregon Vote Measures

SALEM (AP) — Acting Gov. Paul Patterson announced the appointments Wednesday of 36 persons to prepare explanations of the 18 measures to be on Oregon's November election ballot.

A 1951 law provides that the Governor shall name two persons to explain each measure. Then the two must name a third person.

The explanations will be printed in the state Voter's Pamphlet, published by the secretary of state and sent to each registered voter.

Those appointed by Patterson for each measure are:

Constitutional amendment to wind up World War I veterans bonus and loans — Kelly Owens and State Veterans Director W. F. Gaarenstroom, both of Salem.

Constitutional amendment to have superintendent of public instruction appointed by board of education — Mrs. Sara Knox, Oswego, and Ted Kirsch, Sitkum.

Constitutional amendment to let legislators serve from election day to start of session — Mrs. R. D. Barton, Salem, and Kelley Loe, Portland.

Constitutional amendment to let state emergency board make appropriations — Sen. Richard Neuberger, Portland, and Charles A. Sprague, Salem publisher.

Constitutional amendment to legalize defective bill titles — Irving Rand and Leo Smith, both Portland.

Constitutional amendment to let taxing units establish tax base — Mark Swearingen, Salem, and David B. Simpson, Portland.

Constitutional amendment to extend veterans farm and home loans to Korean War veterans — Kelly Owens, Salem, and E. L. Mikesell, Grants Pass.

Bill to create unified school districts — State Grange Master Elmer McClure, Portland, and Mrs. Helmer Lindstrom, Astoria.

Bill to allow construction of hospital for aged mental patients in Portland area — Tom Humphrey, Portland, and Walter W. R. May, Oswego.

Bill to increase truck taxes — Ellery M. Sills, Portland, and William Tugman, Eugene.

Bill ta tax cigarettes 3 cents a package — James T. Marr and C. C. Chapman, both of Portland.

Bill to limit state property tax to 6 mills — Cecil W. Posey, Portland, and State Rep. Giles L. French, Moro.

Constitutional amendment to allow sale of liquor by the drink — Albert Gentner Sr. and Marshall Dana, both of Portland.

Constitutional amendment to prohibit parimutuel betting — Dr. Paul Poling, Salem, and Robert Maguire, Portland.

Bill to prevent daylight saving time — Ronald E. Jones, Brooks, and Lester L. Large, Portland.

Bill to establish milk price fixing at retail and wholesale levels — Mrs. Irene E. Taylor and Will Henry, both of Portland.

Constitutional amendment to prohibit weight-mile taxes on trucks — Ellery M. Sills, Portland, and William Tugman, Eugene.

Constitutional amendment for legislative reapportionment — Ernest Fatland, Condon, and John C. Beatty Jr., Portland.

Malik Vetoes Germ Charge

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — Russia's Jacob A. Malik vetoed a United States resolution Wednesday declaring the Russian germ warfare charges false and condemning their circulation throughout the world. It was Russia's 50th veto since the U.N. began.

The Security Council voted 9 to 1 for the American resolution but the single negative vote of the Russian delegate constituted a veto. The 11th council member, Pakistan, abstained.

The American proposal was put before the council by Ambassador Ernest A. Gross last week after Malik had vetoed an earlier U.S. resolution calling for an impartial investigation of Communist charges that the U.S. and the U.N. are waging germ warfare in Korea and China.

After the vote Wednesday Gross said the council had exposed the campaign of "lies and hate" for what it is.

VFW Opens Convention

ASTORIA (AP) — The Veterans of Foreign Wars opened their annual Oregon convention here Wednesday with an estimated 1,000 persons attending.

State and city officials greeted the delegates and their wives at an Armory session in the morning. Business sessions, continuing through Friday, were scheduled for the Lewis and Clark School building in the afternoon.

Successors will be elected Friday to the husband and wife team now heading the Oregon department and auxiliary, Mr. and Mrs. William Ashworth, Portland.

The convention will conclude Saturday with the Military Order of the Cooties taking over the proceedings.

RED GUERRILLAS KILLED

Hanoi, Indochina (AP) — French bushed and killed 36 Communist guerrillas near Phy Lang Thuong, 30 miles northeast of Hanoi.

B-29 Crashes In Texas

GONZALES, Tex. (AP) — A burning Air Force B-29 crashed into a cornfield Wednesday while a solo pilot flying above it watched helplessly.

All eleven crew members aboard the crippled bomber parachuted to safety.

One of the crew men is First Lt. Russell L. Hobbs, 28, of Walla Walla, Wash., a radar observer.

Streaming fire from its No. 4 engine, the big bomber plummeted to earth about 8 a. m.

The impact scattered the ship over 15 acres.

The plane was from Randolph Air Force base in San Antonio.

The crash scene is east of San Antonio in South Central Texas. Another airplane happened to be flying right above the stricken Air Force plane when the men began hitting the silk.

Receipes

Always welcome in hot weather is potato salad, whether served as a main dish for supper, a hearty dinnertime salad or for a picnic lunch. Popular standby for summertime meals, fix it in a variety of ways to give added interest and flavor.

Served chilled with a generous addition of onion and seasonings, potato salad blends particularly well with such spicy meats as bologna, liverwurst, ham, tongue and other cold cuts. A delicious combination for a summer supper, it would be incomplete, of course, without the tang and flavor of chilled beer, a perfect complement to the salty meat and creamy salad.

EASY TO MOULD

Nothing needs to be added to potato salad to make it mold easily. Simply pack very firmly into a ring mold—or sponge cake pan or other shape—which has been rubbed generously with salad oil. Chill several hours and unmold on a large platter. Fill the center with red radishes and dark ripe olives and arrange the cold cuts with sliced tomatoes and lettuce around the ring. Fill up a basket with crisp rolls and pour the beverage into tall glasses for a summertime supper with both eye and appetite appeal.

Use your own favorite recipe for potato salad or try this excellent one.

POTATO SALAD

- 3 cups diced hot potatoes
- ½ cup highly seasoned French Dressing
- 2 hard-cooked eggs, chopped
- 1 cup diced celery
- ¼ cup chopped onion
- Seasonings
- ½ cup salad dressing or mayonnaise
- lettuce

After potatoes are cooked, place over low heat, shaking in pan to dry potatoes thoroughly. Combine with French dressing, mixing well; chill 1 hour. Add eggs, celery and onion; season to taste with salt. Serve on lettuce with a garnish of pepper and other seasonings. Blend with salad dressing or mayonnaise. Watercress. Serves 4.
