

SACRED HEART CHURCH—was the setting for the marriage of Elizabeth Andersch McAuliffe to Ted R. Igl, July 2. The Rev. T. P. Casey officiated. The wedding united two well known Klamath Basin families. Bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Andersch, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Igl.

Igl-McAuliffe Vows Exchanged In Sacred Heart

Elizabeth Andersch McAuliffe became the bride of Ted R. Igl in rites held Thursday morning July 2 at Sacred Heart Church. The Rev. T. P. Casey officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Andersch, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Igl.

For the ceremony the church was decorated with white snapdragons and pink carnations. The bridegroom's brother, Gerry, sang Schubert's "Ave Maria" before the ceremony.

The charming bride, whose father gave her in marriage, wore a ballerina style gown of Delphinium blue with nylon net and lace, together with a picture hat of matching nylon net. She carried a lovely bouquet of sweetheart roses centered with a white orchid.

Betty Williams, her bridesmaid, wore shell-pink nylon with matching hat and gloves. She carried a nosegay of pink gladioli and blue delphinium.

Gerry Igl was best man for his brother, and the ushers were Jon Houston and Edmund Andersch, brother of the bride.

The bride's two younger brothers, Jerry and Robert, served at the altar.

Mrs. Andersch wore a beige dress with navy accessories, and an orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother chose navy blue with white accessories, and an orchid corsage.

The wedding breakfast was served in the Blue Room at the Willard Hotel, for the immediate families. Mrs. John Houston, aunt of the bridegroom served the wedding cake to the guests.

The bride's going away costume was Alice blue, tulle jacket dress with rose accessories. She wore the orchid from her bouquet.

The young couple is on a two weeks trip to Mexico, after which they will be at home on Auburn Street in Klamath Falls.

Mrs. L. Bickers Feted At Shower

CHILOQUIN — A stork shower was given last Thursday evening for Mrs. Louis Bickers at the Jess Mahnum home. Mrs. Mangum, Mrs. C. B. Gard, Mrs. David Sutton, Mrs. David Lundeen and Mrs. Ted Albert were the hostesses.

Mrs. Ray Baldwin and Mrs. Elmer Heglund won awards for clever baby topic games. Gift certificates with the following names: Mrs. Wm. DuBois and Peggy DuBois, mother and sister of the guest of honor, Mrs. Bert Bickers, Modoc Point, mother-in-law; Mrs. Tina Brown of Bray Mill, Mrs. Earl Feiss, Mrs. Lee Hatcher, Mrs. Elmer Heglund, Joanne Weddle, Mrs. Harry Pearson, Mrs. John Acomb, Fort Klamath; Mrs. Martha Nelson, Victoria Nelson, Mrs. Selden Kirk, Klamath Agency; and Mrs. John Effeeman, Wood River Valley.

Mrs. Floyd Ohles, Mrs. George Brautisch, Mrs. Bob Mathis, Mrs. Eutha Gard, Mrs. Paul Johnson, Mrs. Andrew Ortle, Mrs. Ray Baldwin, Mrs. Sam Ray, Mrs. Jack Jones, Pine Ridge; Mrs. Vince Bodner Jr., Sprague River; and her sister, Sharon Currin, Redding; Mrs. Martin Berry, Mrs. Earl Hill, Naomi Johnson and Karen Wilson, Klamath Falls.

Mrs. Bickers has recently moved back into town, after spending the past couple of months in camp with her husband.

See Calhoun's MIRRORS for any room in the house! 337 E. Main.

MR. AND MRS. HOWARD R. NETHERCOTT — 409 Jefferson, announce the engagement of their daughter, Marilyn, to Donald E. Goodsell, son of Dr. and Mrs. E. H. Goodsell, Des Moines, Iowa. The pretty bride-elect is a graduate of KUHS, Sacramento Junior College, and Sacramento State College. She also attended Pacific University at Forest Grove, where she was affiliated with Kappa Delta sorority. At present she is teaching in Sacramento. Her fiancé is a graduate of Drake University, a member of Chi Delta fraternity, and served with the USAF in World War II. He is also employed in Sacramento. A fall wedding is planned, date to be announced later.

American Legion Auxiliary 84

MALIN—American Legion Auxiliary 84 met at the church with Inez Fallhee, vice president, conducting the meeting. In the absence of the president, Anna Lahoda.

Barbara McCulley, delegate to Girls State, gave a very interesting report on her trip to the Willamette University, where Girls State was held. Barbara reported on all the activities that were held each day. She told how interesting and educational it was to every girl who attended. There were 220 girls in attendance at Girls State. Barbara thanked the Auxiliary members for sending her to Girls State.

Anna Lahoda and Emma Willie were chosen as delegates to the Convention this month, which will be held in Klamath Falls, July 25-26. Alternates are Inez Fallhee and Nettie Pierce.

Lection and Auxiliary members and their families are to have a potluck picnic Sunday, July 13 at the Main Park starting at 10 a.m. The float which is to be entered in the parade during Convention time was discussed. Emma Wilde

WURLITZER A magnificent piano. Many lovely styles and finishes to choose from. LOUIS R. MANN PIANO CO. 120 No. 7th

Virginia Masten Bride Of Gareth Wayne Donlon

Pink carnations, white stock and green foliage formed the distinctive setting for the wedding in Peace Memorial Church of Virginia Joyce Masten, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Masten, Olene, to Gareth Wayne (Gary) Donlon, son of Mr. Merritt W. Donlan, Portland.

The lovely bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina length dress of white nylon lace and net over taffeta. Her elbow-length veil was held in place with a pearl trimmed tiara and she carried a bouquet of pink roses and stephanotis with white satin streamers.

The Rev. Dwayne L. Proett officiated at the candlelight service, June 14, 8 p.m.

Organist was Mrs. Sam Mushen, and she accompanied Barbara Tiedie, who sang "O Promise me" and "Through the Years."

Maid of honor, Shirley Masten, bride's sister, wore yellow taffeta and her nosegay and headband was of tallman roses.

Bridesmaid, Betty Tiedie, Creswell, Oregon, wore a green taffeta frock. She carried a nosegay of yellow roses, and wore the same flowers in her hair. The other bridesmaid was Miss John Ward, Portland, sister of the bride. She wore orchid taffeta and her nosegay and flowers in her hair were white carnations and pink rosebuds.

Richard Crouch, Portland, fraternity brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

Stanley Masten Jr., brother of the bride, and Ben Kerns, her brother-in-law, were ushers.

Candlelighters were Gerrie Masten, sister of the bride, and Jean Tucker. Gerrie wore yellow net and taffeta, with matching shoulder corsage, and Jean was in pink net taffeta, with matching shoulder corsage.

Mrs. Masten chose a navy blue costume with white accessories for her daughter's wedding, and her

COUPLE TO LIVE IN PALO ALTO AFTER HONEYMOON IN HAWAII

The following clipping from the Oakland (California) Tribune, June 18, 1952, is of interest to friends and relatives living in Klamath Falls, Oregon.

"In the presence of their immediate families assembled in Santa Maria Church, Orinda, Saturday at 2:30 p.m., Nancy Elizabeth Newbury became the bride of Stephen Douglas Tuck, of Hillsborough, the Rev. David Harrington officiating.

Nancy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Newbury of Scotts Lane, Walnut Creek, who were hosts at a wedding reception after the service, at Orinda Country Club.

Mr. Newbury was his daughter's escort and preceding them were the bride's two sisters, Mrs. William Schacht (Patricia Newbury) of Lancaster, Wisconsin, and Mrs. Addison Ausplund (Roseanne Newbury) of Walnut Creek. Nancy's dress was of white lace over satin, designed with a bouffant full-length skirt and tight fitting bodice with scalloped neckline and long sleeves. Her veil of rose-point lace was the same in which her sisters were married, and she carried a bouquet of white roses, lily of the valley and bouvardia.

Ice blue lace over satin fashioned the dresses of the attendants. They were ballerina length, full-skirted, the bodices finished with rounded necklines. The young matrons wore pink slippers and they had bands of blue lace in their hair, with a half halo of roses at the back.

Mrs. Newbury wore navy blue over taffeta and a hat of blue lace and maline. Her corsage was of white cattleyas.

Mrs. George Tuck, the bridegroom's mother, chose a gray lace gown and a pink flowered hat. Purple orchids were worn as a corsage.

Robert Tuck was his brother's best man and Harry B. Smith, a brother-in-law, of Hillsborough, usher.

The couple will live in Palo Alto after July 1. They flew to Honolulu Sunday for a honeymoon trip in the Hawaiian Islands.

The bride was graduated from Stanford last weekend. The bridegroom is a graduate of Stanford and a member of Beta Theta Pi fraternity and Bachelor of San Francisco. He is an accountant for the Atlas Heating and Furnace Co., San Francisco.

Nancy Newbury, the bride, is a granddaughter of Mrs. Wilbur A. Jones of Klamath Falls. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Newbury left Thursday, June 24, for a four-months-round-the-world trip on a Norwegian freighter, "Silverwave" embarking at San Pedro, California. They expect to be home in October.

S. V. Picketts To Live In Alaska

A wedding of interest to Klamath Falls residents was solemnized June 26 when Ruby Frulan became the bride of S. V. Pickett. Both bride and bridegroom are longtime residents of Klamath Falls.

For her wedding Mrs. Frulan chose a navy suit, navy and white hat, white accessories and gardenias at the shoulder.

After a short visit here they left for Fairbanks, Alaska, where Mr. Pickett is working as foreman on the Eielson Air Base. He was at one time owner of the Klamath Tent and Awning Company.

Women's Guild Of Zion Lutheran

Lutheran Women's Guild of Zion Lutheran Church met the afternoon of June 19.

Mrs. Vernice Eberlein presented the topic on the founding and works of the American Bible Society.

Various caterer events for the remainder of the year were discussed.

Mrs. Margaret Kirkpatrick and Mrs. Madelon Anderson were hostesses.

Mrs. Dale West And Sara Home From East Coast

Mrs. Dale West and Sara returned June 18, after an interesting trip through the eastern part of the United States. They accompanied Mr. West to the Angus cattle sale in Chicago, and from there Mrs. West and her daughter took the train to Washington, D.C. and New York. On the return trip they stopped in Detroit for a new car, and drove home from there, stopping in Salt Lake City and other points of interest.

Parker Family Farewell Party

CHILOQUIN — Mr. and Mrs. Frank Parker, their three sons, Glen, Johnnie, and Lyle, and Mrs. Parker's mother, Mrs. Bryant, were guests of honor at a farewell potluck meal held on Sunday afternoon in the basement of the Methodist church after rain changed the planned setting for Colter Park.

A large number of friends gathered to tell them an official goodbye, although they do not plan to move to Fort Hall until about July 10. A gift was presented by the group at the close of the afternoon.

The Parkers moved to Klamath Agency, where he was irrigation engineer and for a time both roads and irrigation engineer, eight years ago in May. Last year Parker resigned from the government service but the family has continued to live in Chilcoquin.

Fort Hall and Pocatello, Idaho, will be the new home for the Parkers and for Mrs. Bryant, who will make the trip with them.

WEDDING INVITATIONS and ANNOUNCEMENTS

Processed or Engraved From $16.50 For One Hundred 4 Day Delivery! SHAW STATIONERY CO. 729 Main

HELP YOUR CHILD BE A BETTER STUDENT

Enroll Him Now In Our Summer School * Give that new First Grader A Boost With Reading & Arithmetic Readiness * MATERIALS USED: "Picture Readiness" "Readiness for Reading," Workbook "Picture Word Cards" by E. W. Dalch, Ph. D. Professor of Education U. of Illinois "Arithmetic Foundation"

* CLASS WORK: Rete & Recitation * Individual Attention for Individual Needs * Three Hours Daily * For This Fall First Grade Entrants * Tutoring in Basic Subjects, All Grades Remedial Reading &/or Basic Arithmetic especially recommended

* Inquire About Nursery and Kindergarten; also Music

PRE-SCHOOL CENTER

715 Jefferson Mrs. Robert Dedrick, Director Phone 4279

MAGALLANES-NELSON NUPTIAL VOWS

Ivory Satin Worn By Bride

Nuptial vows were exchanged in Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints by Evelyn Faye Nelson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Amil C. Nelson, 1532 Marin Street, and Louis Magallanes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mauro Magallanes, Warden, when Ronald E. Phair, president of that church officiated at the 2 p.m. ceremony, May 28.

Matron of honor, Mrs. Donald Rumlhart, was in lavender martel hues were arranged in large baskets before a background of greenery and flickering candles in floor candelabra.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of ivory satin with long sleeves, empire waistline, and short train. Seed pearl embroidery trimmed the dress, and the half-crown of net, which held the fingertip veil of illusion net edged with lace tulle.

The bride carried a bouquet of red roses centered with a white orchid.

Matron of honor, Mrs. Donald Rumlhart, was in lavender marquette, styled with full skirt over tulle, and she carried a crescent shaped arrangement of yellow tulips. Her headpiece was of yellow carnations and she wore mits to match her frock.

Beverly Karnes and Norma Jean Nelson, bridesmaids, wore identical dresses of pale green marquisette over matching tulle slips, with mits to match, and their headpieces were lavender carnations.

Mrs. George Shaffer Jr. was co-

(Continued on Page 8)

CURRIN'S -for drugs The Friendly Drug Store 9th and Main Ph. 2-3475 here's your GIFT "Try"-size Solid Cologne with COTY BATH ESSENTIALS. Includes images of various Coty products and prices: Tale with "Try"-size Solid Cologne 85¢, Bath Salts with "Try"-size Solid Cologne 150, Dusting powder with "Try"-size Solid Cologne 150, Sachet with "Try"-size Solid Cologne 125. regular size 1.50 plus tax. Compounded and copyrighted by Coty Inc. in U.S.A.