A number of ranchers have started haying, a few had hay down when the heavy storm struck here last week. It is said the rain did more good than harm at this time. Now that the weather has cleared the ranchers are in the fields again and they hope for an abundant crop.

KEEP THESE

Don't throw away or misplace instruction booklets and other pertinent material pertaining to your appliances. For easy reference have a file for keeping records. An old baby's bib stitched to make a pocket can be placed on a coat hanger near the laundry and used to store pamphlets on clothes washing.

GOOD

Try serving hot diced beets mixed with anchovies to go with almost any meat.

AVIATION'S FIRST LADY as far as Klamath flying is concerned is this Betty Gant, one of the only air search women flyers in this part of the country. Miss Gant, a member of the local aviation civil defense unit performed the first flight for that unit in reconnoitering outlying airfields in this area. She is also assistant air designer for the state board of aeronautics.

FORT KLAMATH

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Vaden and family at the Hawkins ranch had as their house guests over the holidays, Mrs. Vaden's cousin and son, Mr. and Mrs. Travis Calloway and Brooks, of San Diego, Calif., and Mrs. Calloway's mother, Mrs. Ethel Womack of Quana, Texas. The latter had been visiting at her daughter's home in San Diego from Texas, and came north to see her old-time friend, Mrs. Vaden, whom she hadn't seen for twenty years.

While here, the visitors were taken on a tour of Wood River valley and on a trip to Crater Lake—they were very much impressed with the local scenery, and said this valley was the most beautiful they had ever seen. Also during their stay they enjoyed a fishing trip to Seven Mile creek west of here, where they succeeded in catching their limits of trout.

The group left Monday morning, July 7, on the return trip to San Diego.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Smith and children of Klamath Falls, accompanied by Smith's brother Leonard of Fort Klamath, spent the 4th and 5th of July on a fishing and camping trip at Long Creek, returning Sunday with limit catches of trout also.

Smith's companion, Mrs. Wesley J. Smith, accompanied him and his family back to Klamath Falls, where she will spend a few days visiting them and also with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas P. Fisher, son Jimmy and daughter Phyllis.

REFLECTIONS FROM

SENSATIONAL — was Clarice Moon in the 4th of July—Klamath rodeo parade—Of course Keith was dashing in his "Don" role—but she was glamorous—the Ohs and Ahs were thick from the spectators around us—So many have mentioned it to us and we all KNEW that she had luckily found the beautiful satin ESKIRT! during some one of their trips to show their thoroughbred horses — that we were further amazed to learn that she made the costume herself — and within 24 hrs of wearing it in the parade—and that's the answer to how and where she acquired such a dazzling creation — and we think it will inspire a "fiesta" approach to future rodeo garb here.

CARD FROM RUTH ADAMS — en route to Washington DC with Lela Brainer—Edna Albrecht and Dena Backes as delegates to the Scriptum Club convention—Card read "Boy what a wonderful trip!"—which translated means

"Boy what a wonderful trip!" ELIZABETH HILTON — Mrs. Bob—is in SF attending dental nurse school, and is very enthusiastic in letters to her family — Bob now a Sgt is with the 12th General Dispensary — U. S. Army Medical Corps in Japan.

GLADYS HALL UTTERBACK — now living on the Atlantic side of

Mr. and Mrs. Charles (Chuck) Smith and Leland Charles, of Klamath Falls, Sunday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Smith returned home, leaving Little Leland here with his aunt for a week while Mrs. Smith is in Portland for a friend's wedding. Smith is employed in the sporting goods department of the Klamath Falls Montgomery Ward store, the Canal Zone, where husband

"Dutch" is stationed — arrived June 10, with dir Isola—"So So" — and left July 10 to sail back to Coco Solo—Four year old So So is a somewhat seasoned traveler — three flights across the U. S. — two trips by car from Norfolk, Va. — to KP—and now the return trip to Panama—Some socializing was realized — with parents — sister Alice and friends—but with So So's tonsillitis and other complications—she's reporting back from "sick leave."

CAPT OLIVER KINNEY and Wife Evelyn visiting here with his mother Mrs. Neil Kinney, 2349 Eberlein — and his father in Sprague River—reports to Camp Stoneman for overseas assignment to Japan.

"HARBOR HEAVEN" — where all good (and LUCKY) KP boys and girls can go to live—is where

Martha McCollum was last weekend — houseguest of Ruth Balthazy's and visited with Rose Poole and the Charlie Schaal—and being the good reporter that she is — informed us that Charlie Schaal—now living in Harbor—but still identified with KP—was recently appointed by Douglas McKay as Justice of the Peace for Dist. No. 1 —Curry County—and more — she thought she saw Roma and Jerry Thomas—we checked — and she did—they were over there gathering ocean breezes — and joined Fay and Opal Waters—with dir Rose and friend Jean Clanton — the Frank Clanton's dir—who were staying near Smith River — Incidentally it was Roma's mother's and dad's first glimpse of that particular Redwood belt.

THE C. A. WICKERSHAMS — 1934 Auburn — Jerry Alter's (Mrs. Dale) parents — who have been gone for five months sent word to her that they had arrived in NY— at the Belmont Plaza — after leisurely stops in St — LA — New Orleans — Memphis for the Cotton Carnival — Chicago — Ohio — etc. — Will be in NY for a month — taking in the E.K.'s national convention at the Waldorf-Astoria — will return to the coast to spend the remainder of the summer at La Jolla.

REAMES GOLF AND COUNTRY CLUB — women's invitational handicap sweepstakes included Redding — Medford and KF — was a club "fun" day for the capacity crowd which enjoyed a "real get-together" — good food — and the out-of-town guests responded enthusiastically to the hospitality extended by the local women — more details later.
