Truman Starts Inauguration WASHINGTON (P) — President Truman has completed the legal formalities for the inauguration of the next President. Truman, who insists he will not run again, signed three congressional resolutions that will allow the inauguration committee to start preparing for the January 20 event. One permits the use of government-owned land for grandstands and allows the defense department to loan flags and other equipment to the committee.

CALL A YELLOW 2-1234 CHICAGO (P) — Gen. Eisenhower's energetic young running mate says the fight against Communism will be the "great issue" of the presidential campaign. Sen. Richard M. Nixon of California said: "It is an issue the Democrats are stuck with." The 39-year-old candidate, still tingling over his nomination, told a news conference the administration has failed to halt Communist aggression. "We have to get a more effective program," he said, "to save ourselves from being destroyed from abroad and within the country."
