Shriners Defense Stays Pat

PORTLAND (Special) — After watching their experiment produce such splendid results, officials for the annual shriners' football game have decided to adopt again this year a system of set defenses.

The standard 6-2-2 defensive pattern adopted for last year's game was an important factor in contributing to the wide-open and spectacular offensive duel which the Oregon All-Stars won from the Portland All-Stars 20 to 13.

With such results, the Shrine game committee has authorized the same defensive formations for the fifth annual game in the series here at Multnomah Stadium Saturday night, Aug. 23.

The reason that "set defenses" were adopted was to allow coaching staffs to concentrate almost entirely on perfecting their offensive attacks in the two weeks of practice time they are allotted prior to the game.

Thus, knowing in advance the type of defense they are to meet, the coaches can work against it exclusively and set their offenses tuned to perfection. Coaches, players and officials, in addition to the fans, were high in their praise of the system.

BREAK TIE

Thus, another thrilling gridiron encounter is assured for this year's crucial game, which will break the tie of two victories apiece for each team.

Tickets for the game have started to move fairly well and attendance is expected to exceed last year's record turnout.

Advance reservations may be secured by sending check or money order to Shrine game headquarters here in the Jackson Tower building. Reserved seats between the goal lines are priced at $3.

"A homer, two triples, three doubles, two singles and four walks this inning—better go ask him if he thinks he's losing his stuff!"

Hollywood Back on Top In PC Race

By The Associated Press — Two doubleheaders involving the first division teams of the Pacific Coast League have juggled the standings, knocked Oakland out of first place, reinstated the Hollywood Stars as the pacemakers and pushed lefty O'Doul's San Diego Padres back to third place.

Hollywood earned its right to the leader's position Wednesday night, whipping San Diego twice, 6 to 0 and 5 to 2, while Oakland had to be content with a split against Seattle. The Oaks won the first, 5 to 3, but dropped the other, 4-2.

George Bamberger won his sixth game against one defeat as he pitched Oakland to victory in the first game against Seattle, but Bob Boyd's batting decided the issue in favor of the Rainiers in the second. He tripled in the fourth and again in the fifth, and this smash decided the contest.

Los Angeles dropped another to Portland, 3 to 2, Aaron Robinson, the Beavers' catcher, batting in the winning run. He doubled and homered in three trips. Fred Sanford held the Angels to six hits. San Francisco noosed out Sacramento, 3 to 2, and so Joe Gordon's team dropped back into the cellar.

Today a year ago—the Pittsburgh Pirates defeated the Brooklyn Dodgers, cutting the Brooks' lead in the National League race to eight games.

Five years ago—the New York Yankees won a doubleheader from the Cleveland Indians, 3-1 and 7-2, for their 18th and 19th straight victories to tie the American League record set in 1904 by the Chicago White Sox.

Ten years ago—Chet Laabs, St. Louis Browns' outfielder, hit two home runs in a doubleheader with the Philadelphia Athletics. They were his 6th and 7th homers in seven days.

Twenty years ago—Babe Didrikson qualified for three places on the American Olympic team.

Tribe Skids in Yankee Stadium

By RALPH RODEN Associated Press Sports Writer

The Yankee Stadium graveyard of Cleveland American League pennant drives in the past, is haunting the Indians again.

Cleveland started the baseball world by winning its first three games in the home of the New York Yankees this year. This almost matched their victory total for the previous two seasons during which they managed to win only five of 17 games in the house that Ruth built.

But Cleveland's dreams of a happy hunting ground in the stadium were rudely shattered Wednesday. The Indians missed an opportunity to virtually tie the Yankees for first place by dropping both ends of a double-header, 8-7 in 10 innings and 7-4. They are now 4½ games behind.

The Yankees came from behind to win the opener, Yogi Berra tied the score at 7-7 in the eighth inning with a two-run homer, his 26th of the season, and Hank Bauer broke it up by singling home Rookie Kai Segrist in the tenth.

The Yankees won the nightcap with a four-run rally in the seventh against Bob Feller. Gil McDougald's three-run homer was the big blow of the rally.

The defeats also endangered Cleveland's grip on second place as the third place Boston Red Sox defeated the Chicago White Sox, 7-3, to move to within a half game of the Tribe.

Southpaw Bill Wight pitched the Detroit Tigers to a 9-0 victory over Washington. White held the Senators to four hits while his mates collected 14. A two-night doubleheader between Philadelphia and St. Louis was rained out.

Brooklyn maintained its five game lead in the National League, downing Cincinnati, 5-3, while the runner-up New York Giants eked out an 8-7 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals in 10 innings. In other games, Philadelphia edged Pittsburgh, 8-7, and Chicago tripped Boston, 3-2, in 13-innings.

Davey Cut in Victory

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO (AP)—Undeclared Chuck Davey's bid for a shot at Kid Gavilan's welterweight crown was still intact Thursday but blood-soaked and due for a two-month shelving.

The two had fought a disputed draw at Syracuse, N. Y., May 29. Davey at first ruled the loser, despite an unanimous 10-round "re-verse" decision over rizzed Carmen Basilio, a real tough guy from Canastota, N. Y., at the Chicago stadium.

Olympic Games Probing Looms

By BEN PHLEGAR

HELSINKI (AP) — A thorough shakeup in the entire Olympic program was forecast Thursday to make sure that everybody taking part is a stonypure amateur.

The move would be a logical step in view of the elevation Wednesday of Avery Brundage of Chicago to the presidency of the International Olympic Committee.

The I. O. C. runs the Olympic program. Brundage is the world's leading advocate of amateur sports. He has fought the inroads of professionalism at every occasion with-out regard to his personal popularity.

NO LIBERALISM

Both in his position as president of the United States Olympic Committee and as a member of the I. O. C. executive commission he has opposed any suggestion to liberalize the interpretation of an amateur.

He will take over his new, unpaid job on September 1. For the present Olympic games the executive will be the aging J. Sigfrid Edstrom of Sweden, who has headed the organization since the war years.

Although the ruling body made the news Wednesday, competition also continued on the athletic fields in field hockey and soccer.

The United States was bounced out of the soccer qualifying competition in a one-sided battle with Italy.

SURPRISES

Two surprises were the defeat of Great Britain, home of soccer, and Chile. The British lost, 5-3, to Luxembourg, in overtime and Chile was edged by Egypt, 5-4.

Brazil defeated Holland, 5-1. These matches ended the qualifying rounds. The draw for the regular Olympic tournament will be made Thursday. The teams will be Finland, Norway, Luxembourg, Italy, Brazil, Egypt, Russia, Yugoslavia, Denmark, Poland, Hungary, Sweden, Germany, Turkey, Austria, and the Dutch East Indies.

In field hockey Wednesday night, Germany defeated Poland, 7-2, and France beat Italy, 5-0. This competition is part of the actual Olympics — not a qualifying deal as in soccer and basketball.

The basketball round robin resumes Thursday after a 24-hour lapse with Romania meeting Italy, Cuba taking on Bulgaria, Canada playing Egypt and Hungary tackling the Philippines.

Field hockey continues with India against Austria and Great Britain against Belgium.
