Bob Collins, Romero Hurl WIL Blanks

By The Associated Press
 Two shutouts were pitched in the Western International League Thursday night, with Salem's Bob Collins stealing the spotlight as he limited the Wenatchee Chiefs to two hits for a 6-0 victory.

The other shutout mound performance was turned in by Ralph Romero, of the Tri-City Braves, as the Braves chopped down the Yakima Bears, 5-0. Romero, who whiffed 10 Bears, limited the hitters to five scattered safeties.

In other league action Thursday night, the Victoria Tyees rode the Lewiston Broncs to another victory, 9-3, and Spokane's second-place Indians put the skids under the Vancouver Capilanos, 4-2, behind Dick Bishop's eight-hit pitching.

11 HITS
 Salem sluggers backed up Collins with an 11 hit attack and took advantage of six Wenatchee miscues. Salem put the game in the bag in the second when they converted five singles and an error into four runs.

Romero's shutout received a healthy assist from three double plays whipped up by his teammates. The Braves salted the game in the third on a single, a triple by John Kovenz and Dez Charouhas' double. The winners added three more insurance tallies in the fifth.

11TH WIN
 Bishop's win over Vancouver was his 11th this season, against seven losses. Three singles, a double, a stolen base and a wild pitch in the initial frame got the Tribe off to a two-run advantage and they were never headed.

Four Lewiston errors helped the Victoria cause as Jehosie Heard knuckled down to hold the Broncs to seven hits. Gece Gariott of the Tyees added another home run to his season's total with a soloer in the eighth inning.

Beavers, Angels Divide

By The Associated Press
 To most Pacific Coast League teams the San Diego Padres are a feared and respected foe, but to Hollywood they are baseball "cousins."

The Stars downed the Padres again Thursday night, 2 to 1, for the 14th time in the 17 games they have played this season.

Last night's win kept Hollywood a full game atop the standing as Oakland turned back Seattle, 7 to 3. Henry Schenz tripled with the bases loaded in the sixth for the runs that won the game. Lloyd Little got credit for the win but he had to have assistance from John Van Goyk.

 Portland and Los Angeles split a doubleheader, the Beavers winning the first game, 4 to 2, and the Angels the other, 5 to 2. Portland scored all its runs in the sixth inning of the opener after Doyle Lade had stepped aside for relief pitcher Joe Hatten. Hatten had to be relieved by Hamner, and the two of them gave up all four Portland runs.

San Francisco pushed Sacramento deeper into the cellar with a 7 to 2 win over Joe Gordon's sagging Sacs.
