

S U M M E R

COOL CRESCENT LAKE forms a backdrop for Jerry Andersch, Troop 16, Klamath Falls.

MAKING THEMSELVES AT HOME in their summer bivouac are members of Klamath Falls Troop 16, shown here chatting with Modoc Council executive Harold Scherer.

THE ART OF SWIMMING is explained by Rex Hunsaker, waterfront director, to John Page, Prineville; Jerry Roper, Bend; Lyle Rhoad, Warm Springs; Bob Sari, Klamath Falls; Mike Matychuch, Eugene; Jon Houston, Klamath Falls and Byron Parr, Warm Springs.

A LESSON IN NATURE is given James Baltram, Norman Nokes, Lester Hale, John Page, Larry Hale, Byron McNeil, Dale Thompson and William Hanan by the Oregon State Game Commission's Milt Guyman.

C A M P

HEARTY APPETITES are a part of life in summer camp, and Troop 16's Bob Coffman seems to be pretty well taken care of as far as the food situation is concerned.

Photos by Kettler

SHOOTING STRAIGHT is an art, and here Wilfred Davenport, of Bend, picks up a few pointers from Scout Executive Walter Smith.

FLY TYING is an absorbing craft as shown by the expressions of Al Wyatt, Warm Springs scoutmaster, Ivan Pankey of Klamath Falls and Instructor John Hobson.

MINOR FIRST AID is given Gary Williams by Scout Executive Harold Scherer in front of the first aid tent.