

OPEN HOUSE AFTER THE WEDDING . . . in the Smith home, 1114 Crescent Avenue, followed the formal reception in the Sacred Heart Parish Hall. The "just-weds" at the buffet luncheon table . . . all set for traveling.

BRIDE . . . her matron of honor (left), Mrs. Donald (Launa) Ratliff, and Mrs. Bernard (Phyllis) Cavanaugh, both sisters of the bride, in Sacred Heart Catholic Church, after the Rev. T. P. Casey had officiated at the nuptial Mass celebrating Lois Darlene's wedding to Homer Lee.

All photos except Norseth-Newton, by Guderian

FATHER OF THE BRIDE . . . Otto L. Smith, (right) . . . Lois Darlene and Homer Lee . . . happy thrasome at the reception.

MICHAEL RATLIFF . . . three-year-old nephew of the bride from Malin, was ring bearer—and displays handsome self-confidence.

Brown-Smith

NEW MR. AND MRS. BROWN . . . after the 9:30 a.m. nuptial Mass in Sacred Heart Church, June 28, when Lois Darlene Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto L. Smith, and Homer Lee Brown, son of Mrs. R. Moore, Worden Street, exchanged vows in the presence of numerous friends and relatives.

Norseth-Newton

SOCIETY

Hutchinson-Small

by Milly Ramsby

NYLON NET OVER SATIN . . . and satin trimmed nylon net . . . fingertip net veil held with a Juliet cap embroidered with seed pearls, designed and made in France, is an effective foil for the ornate confection, which is being cut by the new Mr. and Mrs. Palmer Norseth, after their wedding in Walla Walla. He is especially interested in the procedure since he knows that under the icing is his bride's and his favorite cake . . . and it's CHOCOLATE! Bride is the former Mary Elizabeth Newton, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Edwin F. Newton, of Walla Walla. Photo by Bontrop Studio, Walla Walla.

Herald & News
Klamath Falls, Oregon

LEAVING THE CHURCH . . .

ST. LUKE'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH . . . Lakeview . . . was the setting for the beautiful wedding of Beverly Jean Small, daughter of Mrs. Ross Monroe Small, and the late Mr. Small, to Melvin D. Hutchinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Hutchinson, 5262 Walton Drive, Klamath Falls. Peonies in white and varying shades of pink were used in profusion throughout the church, all from the gardens of the Rev. Tragitt Jr.