

~OF LOCAL INTEREST~
FROM OUT OF TOWN

S o c i e t y
By MILLY
RAMSBY

NAVY UNIFORMS . . . at the wedding of Janet Roberta Johnson, Portland, to Lt. (jg) Hjalmar Jacob Rathe, were worn by all except the bride's brother. The wedding party is shown in Mt. Tabor Presbyterian Church after the 9 p.m. ceremony. Upper left, Joan Howell, bridesmaid, Corvallis; Mrs. Wilbur Senders, matron of honor, Bremerton; Lt. (jg) J. R. Healy, usher; Claire Lyon, maid of honor, Portland; the bride and bridegroom; Lt. (jg) Donald M. Jepperson, best man, Roseburg; Mrs. Von Lieberman, Portland, bridesmaid; Lt. (jg) Donald Morrison and Robert M. Johnson, bride's brother, ushers. All ushers from Portland. Other pictures are of the bride and bridegroom and in the oval, the pretty bride. —Photo by Edris Morrison

MRS. FRANK MONROE CAIN . . . the former Josephine Helen Thornton, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Foster Duncan Thornton, 1801 Worden Avenue. Her husband is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Calvin C. Cain, Pittsburgh, Pa. The Rev. Dr. Raymond F. Brittain read the 7:30 p.m. marriage service in Heinz Memorial Chapel, Pittsburgh, July 12. The couple spent part of their honeymoon in Klamath Falls, with the bride's parents. —Photo by Deakin, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Harold & News
Klamath Falls, Oregon

LOVELY MARGARET ANN TERRY . . . daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Terry, Fresno and Tulalake, before her marriage recently in Fresno to Rodney Harold Ingraham. The candlelight ceremony was read in the First Methodist church, by the Rev. David C. Jacobson, Temple City.

MRS. HARRY MANGAN . . . whose wedding July 12 in St. Mary's Cathedral, Portland, was attended by many Klamath Falls friends of the beautiful bride's family. She is the daughter of the Thomas White Delzell's, former Klamath Falls residents, and her husband is the son of Mrs. Elizabeth Mangan, Minneapolis. The reception was held at Waverly Country Club.