WAMPLER-BERTRAM VOWS EXCHANGED IN LAS VEGAS' "LITTLE CHURCH OF THE WEST"

The Little Church of the West, Las Vegas, Nevada, July 5, was the setting for the charming wedding of Helen Marie Bertram, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Bertram, former Klamath Falls residents, now of Phoenix, Ariz., to Albert Eldon (Bud) Wampler Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wampler, Rocky Point.

The marriage, solemnized at an 11 a.m. service in the presence of close friends and relatives, united two well-known Klamath Basin families.

Helen was given in marriage by her father, and for her informal wedding, the attractive bride wore a pearl gray suit with matching accessories. A white orchid corsage completed her ensemble.

Maid of honor for Helen was Marilyn Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Johnson, 2000 Manzanita. She wore a pink suit with black accessories, and a corsage of pink roses.

The wedding reception was in the Trophy Room of the Hotel Last Frontier, on the grounds of which the "Little Church" is also located.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Wampler are both graduates of KUHS, and Bud attended the University of California at Davis.

He is affiliated with his father in the extensive Wampler Ranch operations, near Rocky Point.

For the wedding trip to Southern California, most of which, was spent at Laguna Beach, the bride was appropriately dressed for summer travel in a cotton flowered print in shades of gray, with complementing accessories. They are now at their ranch home at Rocky Point.

Out of town guests included the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Wampler; bride's grandmother, Mrs. P. W. Bertram, Phoenix; Mrs. Thomas Ingram, Phoenix; Mr. and Mrs. William Kandra and children, Carol Ann and Bobby, Tulelake; Mr. and Mrs. John Wentz and daughter, Joy, Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Jess Searles, Phoenix; Mr. Jose Soto, Guamas, Mexico; Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Matthews, close friends of the family, at whose home the bride lived while completing her senior year at KUHS.

Lynn Bertram, Helen's sister, accompanied their parents, the Lawrence Bertrams from Phoenix to attend the wedding.

Joe Demetrakos, brother-in-law of the bridegroom served as best man.

RITES IN EUGENE

St. Mary's Episcopal Chapel, Eugene, was the setting for the wedding of Jean Marie Lovell, Klamath Falls, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Lovell, 1405 Upham to James Bartlett Dobson, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Bart Dobson, Eugene. The Rev. Evan Williams read the service at 3 p.m., June 16.

Jean Marie, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white slipper satin, with a sweetheart neckline trimmed with seed pearls.

The white Eastern Star Bible she carried was centered with an orchid.

Attending the bride was Mary Lou Stanberry. Her floor-length dress was pale green, and she carried a bouquet of white gladioli.

John Dobson, bridegroom's brother, was best man, and Walter and John Lovell, brothers of the bride, were ushers.

A reception in the parish hall followed the wedding.

Mrs. Lovell, mother of the bride, cut the cake and the bridegroom's sister Nancy passed the guest book.

The new Mrs. Dobson was graduated from the University of Oregon this year, and her husband is enrolled as a third-year architecture student there.

For her going away costume, the bride wore a pale yellow linen suit. The couple is now at home in Eugene, after a honeymoon on the Oregon Coast.

FRESNO FIRST METHODIST CHURCH IS SCENE OF RECENT INGRAM-TERRY NUPTIALS

TULELAKE — Masses of white stock and gladioli made an attractive background for the wedding of Margaret Ann Terry and Rodney Harold Ingraham recently in the First Methodist Church, Fresno.

The lovely bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Terry, Fresno and Tulelake. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ingraham, Walnut Creek.

The service was read by the Rev. David C. Jacobsen, Temple City.

Margaret Ann was escorted to the altar by her father, down the aisle, past the pews marked with clusters of white stock and fern.

Her frock of embroidered organdy was made with a five tiered skirt and brief bolero jacket with three-quarter length sleeves. Her fingertip tulle veil cascaded from a Juliet cap of orange blossoms.

She wore sheer gloves and carried a white Bible with a white orchid and satin streamers caught with stephanotis.

Mrs. J. D. Renton, Five Points, Calif., sister of the bride, matron of honor; and Patricia Terry, the bride's twin sister, bridesmaid, wore aqua silk-organza frocks, fashioned in ballerina length with tucked bodices and round necklines. Both wore hats of silver mesh trimmed with aqua velvet ribbon. They carried nosegays of chiffon daisies and blue carnations.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Terry chose a rose beige lace. Mrs. Ingraham wore a pale rose lace gown and both wore orchids at the shoulder.

Richard Ingraham, Walnut Creek was best man for his brother and ushers were Jack A. Harris, H. A. Renton, Five Points; and Robert H. Williams, Lake City.

Todd Miller, Pensacola, Fla., lighted the tapers at the altar and Clifford Grant was vocalist.

Amelie Blythe, Pensacola, registered guests at the reception in the Sunnyside Country Clubhouse.

Background music was played by Mrs. Edith Harding.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Ingraham honeymooned in Southern California. They will live in Merced where the bridegroom will be in business.

Mrs. Ingraham was graduated from Fresno State College after attending the University of California College of Agriculture, Davis and Tulelake high school. She is a member of Delta Gamma sorority. Her parents moved to Fresno several years ago.

MR. AND MRS. GEORGE TEDRICK—who were married July 4 at the Pelican City Mission. Mrs. Tedrick is the former Maide Carman. The service was read by the Rev. Fred Tedrick, pastor of the Mission. He is the son of the bridegroom. They are making their home at Shady Pine.

George Tedrick Maida Carman Exchange Vows

A wedding of interest that united two well-known Klamath Falls residents was solemnized July 4 in the Pelican City Mission at 10:30 a.m.

Maida Carman became the bride of George Tedrick in a prettily arranged setting.

The service was read by the Rev. Fred Tedrick, pastor of the mission and son of the bridegroom.

The bride chose for her wedding a navy suit with white French cuffs. Her hat and gloves were white and she wore a white orchid at the shoulder.

Attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Ivy Steenbergen, Sacramento, daughter and son-in-law of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Steenbergen wore a summer print with blue predominating and a cluster of roses at the shoulder.

A wedding breakfast in the Wilnema Hotel followed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Tedrick are making their home at Shady Pine.
