QUICK METHOD
PASADENA, Calif. (A) — Two young men working in the Pasadena City Planning Department have discovered that it is no longer necessary to stop and knock on doors to see how many families are living in a certain neighborhood. In their hurry-up survey they've found that counting television antennas, mail boxes and gas meters is a lot quicker and almost as accurate as a door-to-door campaign.

Stevenson's Ex-Wife Will Vote Republican

By RUTH COWAN

CHICAGO (A) — The Democratic party has handed its presidential standard to Gov. Adlai Stevenson of Illinois, but he begins his campaign forwarded one vote he might not get—that of his former wife.

Attractive Ellen Borden Stevenson, wealthy Chicago socialite and mother of their three sons, said she still intends to vote Republican in November—not for any personal reason but as a matter of political conviction.

But November is three months away.

And her mother, Mrs. John Alden Carpenter of Chicago and Beverly, Mass., gave a hint her daughter might change her mind.

She said that she and her daughter believe the Democrats have been in power long enough.

Mrs. Stevenson sent the governor a note. It read:

"Dear Adlai: Congratulations to the Democratic Party for choosing the finest available Democrat for President. I know you will do your best for the American people. All good wishes to you personally."

She signed it "Ellen Borden Stevenson."

A divorce generally is considered a political strike against a candidate. Although the governor is not one to discuss his personal affairs, this may have been one reason for his reluctance to be the Democratic nominee for President.

Mrs. Stevenson, now 42, and a slim brunette, was regarded as one of Chicago's loveliest debutantes when she met Stevenson then a rising young lawyer ten years her senior. Their marriage in 1928, shortly after her presentation at the court of St. James in London, was one of the season's most brilliant social events.

After 12 years of married life, she obtained a Nevada divorce in 1940 shortly after he took office as governor—on the grounds of mental cruelty. Stevenson did not contest the suit, but said then that he opposed divorce in general.

The three sons divide their vacation time between their parents. Two of them—John Fell, 16, and Borden, 15—looked on as the wildly cheering convention hailed their dad as "the next President."

The third son, Adlai III, 21, like his mother, watched the stirring events on television. He is now in the Marine Corps and training at Quantico, Va.

Rites Set For James Derrah

Funeral services for Frank James Derrah, who died here Saturday at the age of 88, are to be held tomorrow at 9:30 a.m. from Sacred Heart Church.

Interment will be in Mt. Calvary Cemetery.

Requiem of the rosary will be in O'Hair's Memorial Chapel tonight at 8.

Derrah, a Canadian by birth, had been associated with the logging industry for 50 years prior to coming here in 1930. Up until a few years ago he served as caretaker at Sacred Heart Academy.

He is survived by a son, five daughters, 16 grandchildren and 17 great grandchildren.

Miss Oregon From Eugene

SEASIDE (A) — Mary Lou Teague of Eugene, a green-eyed brunette, will represent Oregon in the Miss America contest at Atlantic City this September.

She was selected Sunday from among 12 girls seeking the title of Miss Oregon and the $500 scholarship which was presented by Seaside residents.

Audrey Misirella, Astoria, last year's winner, crowned Miss Teague.

Loretta Mason, 18, Hermiston, was second with Marilyn Lundell, 18, The Dalles, third.

Candidates were judged on talent, personality, and appearance in a swim suit and evening gown.

Miss Teague won the swim suit competition and placed high in the talent show as a singer.

COFFEE QUELLS BLAZE

HURON, S.D. (A) — Patrolmen Francis Schwartz and Charles Geyer dropped into a Huron cafe recently and ordered coffee. While there, they looked out a window and saw flames coming from under the hood of a parked car. The patrolmen grabbed the coffee pot, ran outside, and poured the coffee on the fire. That quenched the blaze.

40 et 8 Elects New Leaders

The American Legion's fun groups—40 and 8 for the Legion and 8 and 40 for its Auxiliary—completed their conventions Friday and Saturday in a surprisingly orderly manner, though Saturday night in Klamath Falls was perhaps the busiest in local history.

Out of it all came a slate of new officers for both groups.

Cloris J. Layton, Astoria, was named Grand Chef de Cuisine of the 40 and 8 for the coming year, replacing Harry F. Bahlman, Portland.

Layton, who has twin boys in the Air Force serving overseas in the Far East, served last year as Chief of Train of the organizations.

Herman J. Melring, Medford, was elected Chef de Train, Commissaire Intendant is F. P. Gorder, Tillamook and James R. Forsyth, Portland, was re-elected Grand Correspondent.

Other officers include: Conductor, Sun W. Elmore, Portland; Garde de la Porte, Claude Martin, Salem; Commis Voyageur, Felix C. Duke, Coos Bay; Drapeau, George Vienne, Portland; Cheminot, Nat'l. Harry F. Bahlman, Portland; alternate, John Cerny, Dallas.

Grand Cheminots include (by districts): 1. John Scott, Tillamook; 2. Ted Brabec, Salem; 3. Robert Service, Toledo; 3. Clyde Todd, Klamath Falls; 4. Oscar Nissen, Madras; 6. Ray Gilham, Pendleton; 7. William Shively, Baker; 8. Don Peen-saughy, Portland; 9. Warren Foreman, Coos Bay; and 10. Robert Shaw, Coos Bay.

New Plant For Washington

OGDEN, Utah (A) — The Amalgamated Sugar Company has obtained a permit for a new sugar beet factory a few miles south of Quincy, Wash., in the center of the Columbia Basin irrigation project.

President of the firm, B. A. Banning, said "it is our intention to build a modern sugar beet factory at this location when the agriculture development of the area has progressed sufficiently to justify such a plant."

Amalgamated now operates factories at Lewiston, Utah; Nyssa, Ore.; Twin Falls and Nampa, Idaho.

Haymes Latest To Toss Off Glamour

By ERSKINE JOHNSON

HOLLYWOOD — (NEA) — Exclusively Yours! Dick Haymes, hitting the movie comeback trail in Columbia's "All Ashore," is following Bing Crosby's blueprint for living down the Freudian sex scene of bobbysoxers and emerging as a regular, all-American guy.

No more of the glazed-eyes look for Dick when he sings and no more notes that paralyze the quills.

Says Dick, who stars with Mickey Rooney in the film: "I'd rather not play Mr. Charm again. That's what hurt my career when I was at Fox. There was too much emphasis on the fact that women fell on their faces when I walked into a room."

"People don't want to see a myth on the screen anymore. They want real texture. Another thing—nobody will ever get me to play a composer again. How many composers are there, anyhow, and how long can you milk something?"

Found: "A ballerina who doesn't mind if her gorgeous gams are ballyhooed over and above her classic virtuosity as a Pavlova. I'm talking about zippy French ballet star, Jeanmaire, who co-stars with Danny Kaye in Sam Goldwyn's "The Life of Hans Christian Andersen," and who is "proud of my good legs."

She says: "I am lousy when people talk of my legs. Any woman too much talk in America of ze best is tantasteeec. Always talk of ze star's beeg bobst and zat star's beeg bobst. In France, we speak of ze charm and beauty details of women, de Havilland and Richard Burton in Fox's movie version of the best-selling "My Cousin Rachel."

He'll play Signor Rainaldi, the romantic Italian whose mysterious relation to Olivia sets off the final tragedy. Three times before the handsome George reached out and missed.

"I'd like to have a penny for every body who says, 'Who's George DeLuz?' do not thank all time to be saxe. Only American women is conscious all time of to be saxe."

It's a fourth try at the brass ring of glory for George DeLuz. Under personal contract to Howard Hughes for almost 10 years and starred in only one picture, "Venetia," George now will costar with Olivia de Havilland and Richard Burton in Fox's movie version of the best-selling "My Cousin Rachel."

He'll play Signor Rainaldi, the romantic Italian whose mysterious relation to Olivia sets off the final tragedy. Three times before the handsome George reached out and missed.

Trotman Rites Held Tomorrow

Mrs. Trotman, 49, died Saturday morning.

Interment will be in Klamath Memorial Cemetery, O'Hair's Memorial Chapel is in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Trotman had been a resident of Merrill since 1932.

Survivors include the widower; three sons, Roger, Robert and Ronald; a grandson, Frank Robert Trotman, and her father, Frank Daws all of Merrill.

Dog Passes At '140'

CHARLTON, Mass. (A) — Fanny, a mongrel dog, died Sunday night at the ripe old dogdom age of 140 years.

She was believed — and there was nobody to dispute it — one of the oldest dogs in New England. Fanny died while undergoing a major operation in the hospital of Dr. M. Terry Mills.

The dog was bought 20 years ago by the Edwin Nelson family when one month old.

An average dog's life span is between 10 and 14 years and dog authorities claim seven years of a human's life is comparable to one of a dog's life.
