

TIME OUT!

"What I like about this pitcher is that he nearly always gets knocked out, and then they bring in that darling relief pitcher!"

RIDIN' HERD

TOP-DRAWER entertainment is shaping up for local fans. Ursal (Jack) Snapp is scheduled for a comeback appearance at the Armory August 6 (that's a week from tomorrow).

Earl Turner has added spice to the picture by getting a draw with Garin Painter in Salt Lake City Monday night.

Panler mentioned along with the Robert Vilemans, the Bobo Obens, and like middleweights. The deadlock with Painter points up the class of the contest.

MIX UP Turner, Wolfe and Snapp and you have the ingredients for two good boxing shows here. Snapp, despite his long lay-off from the ring wars, still claims the Northwest title.

Wolfe, on his series of fine performances here and his meeting with Turner just three weeks after he lifted the Negro's crown, deserves another chance.

At this writing, I don't know what Matchmaker Mack Lillard has in mind. But it seems the logical steps would be to match Wolfe and Snapp to headline the August 6 card.

The prize should be a championship bout with Turner. It is like to see the match go outdoors to Gems Stadium.

Hardwork blue ribbon nominee is George Condry, City Softball president, who has brought together some semblance of order out of chaos when two teams bolted the league and schedule making has been a constant headache.

Beavers Deal Seattle Twin Defeat, 4-1, 2-1. The Portland Beavers, fighting gamely for a Pacific Coast League first division berth, dealt fourth place Seattle a body blow Wednesday night by taking a twin bill 4-1 and 2-1.

The double victory pushed the Beavers into a tie with Los Angeles in fifth place, only a game and a half behind the Rainiers, and gave them a 2-1 edge in the eight-game series.

Dick Ward gained the decision over Vern Kindsfather in the seventh inning opener. Portland won the finale in the sixth inning following Eddie Barr's punt, the Beavers' only base hit of the game. Frank Austin then hit a sacrifice bunt but was hit in the back by a throw from Seattle catcher Claude Christie that advanced Barr to third, Rocco Kresch missed a throw to third and

Olympic Record Breaking Rolls

Americans Pare Reds' Lead to Sixty Points

HELSINKI (AP) — An American woman and a Japanese man set new Olympic swimming records Thursday as the swimmers continued the practice of smashing a record in nearly every event.

Three other men also bettered the old record for the 1,500 of 1912, set in 1923 by another Japanese star, K. Kitamura, but none could come close to Hashizume's time.

Miss Kawamoto broke the women's record of 5:17.8 set by Ann Curtis of the United States in 1948. Second-fastest heat winner in the 1,500 was Brazil's Tetao Okamoto in 19:05.6.

Wet Kiss... HELLSINKI (AP) — When France's Jean Boiteux won the Olympic 400 meters freestyle swimming championship in record time, it was his father, Gaston, who made the big splash.

Wet Kiss... Jean's mother was a member of two French Olympic teams, in 1924 and 1928, but never could win a medal. His father was a top swimmer in France, but never got anything better than a second place in French title events and never picked for the Olympics.

Wet Kiss... The eight best times will qualify for the finals, leaving the second American, 17-year-old William Woolsey of Honolulu on the ragged edge. Woolsey's time of 19:24.6 in finishing second to Boiteux was the eighth-best in four heats.

Wet Kiss... Full Length Hashizume didn't even have a rival near him in his record performance, winning by a full length of the 50-meter pool, and he didn't seem tired at the end.

Wet Kiss... Miss Kawamoto beat out Daphne Wilkinson of Great Britain by the barest touch of her record heat. Miss Wilkinson also was caught in the new record time of 5:16.6.

Wet Kiss... The fastest 16 times qualify for the semi-finals. Still another Olympic record fell in cycling—the first of the games in this sport.

Wet Kiss... Major Sammu Lee of Fresno, Calif., the little Army doctor whose parents came from Korea, opened his defense of the men's 10-meter

Wet Kiss... Barr scored. Austin scored on an infield out—the first of his appearances for the Rainiers. He was recalled Wednesday by the Chicago White Sox who are sending Leo Thomas, a Portland player last year, to replace him at third.

Wet Kiss... Jack Salverson, although touched for 13 hits, twirled San Diego to a 5-3 win over Sacramento, and the Padres advanced to within 5 1/2 games of the leading Hollywood club.

Wet Kiss... Hollywood's infield went to pieces in the eighth inning at San Francisco and the Seals put across four runs on two hits and won a 4-2 decision.

Wet Kiss... Los Angeles clubbed Oakland again, 6-4. A three-run homer by Max West sent the Angels away to a good lead in the second inning.

Roberts Wins 16th For Phils

By The Associated Press Robin Roberts is proving his right to the title best pitcher in the National League.

While Philadelphia leads the rest of the nation in going wild over little Bobby Shantz of the A's, Mr. Roberts quietly piles up wins for the Phillies. He leads the National with 16 wins after Wednesday night's 7-3 success against Cincinnati.

Brooklyn snapped its five-game losing string, leading Pittsburgh 4-3 in the 10th on Carl Furillo's first hit in 16 times at bat.

The victory added a half game to the Dodger lead, now measuring 4 1/2 games, after the runner-up Giants split a two-night double-header with Chicago.

WARREN SPANH cooled off the sizzling St. Louis Cards as rookie Ed Mathewy hit a two-run homer off Joe Preko for a 2-1 Boston triumph. Stan Musial's 14th homer was one of the Cards' seven hits.

The New York Yankees lost, 7-0, to Chicago but their American League lead remained at three games because Cleveland also fell before Boston, 5-4. The Red Sox's triumph over Bobby Feller left them in third place only 3 1/2 games off the pace.

Washington ended a four-game losing streak, whipping St. Louis, 6-2, on Bob Porterfield's five-hitter to pull within 5 1/2 games of the Yanks. Allie Clark's two doubles drove in all the runs for Philadelphia in a 4-3 squeaker with Detroit.

Weimar, Miller In Tee Finals. Earl Weimar and Dick Miller square off Sunday at Reames for the club's Senior Tournament title.

Weimar reached the finals with a victory over Ralph Macartney; Miller beat J. W. Kerns Sr. in the semi-final round.

RAIN CUTS SOFTBALL PLAYOFFS

Opening rounds in the City Softball playoffs were rained out last night on Conger Field.

An upset was in the making when the downpour came that left three inches of water on the diamond in a short time.

Elks was leading Suburban 3-0 after three innings. But they start all over again tonight at 7 o'clock. Hercules and Bill's Place tangling in the nightcap.

It's a double elimination tournament with tonight's losers and winners pairing up Friday night. The ultimate winner—that should be determined Sunday night at the latest—meets Lakeview in a sub-district game. The winner of that faces the Grants Pass-Medford playoff winner with the prize a berth in the state tournament.

Coquille, Medford, Bend In

Plans have been completed for the first Junior Legion invitational baseball tournament in Klamath Falls—and in all likelihood it won't be the last.

But that depends on the support this one gets Aug. 9 and 10 at Gems Stadium. The Klamath Cokes are the hosts in the two-day ballfest.

Teams invited—and they've all accepted—are Coquille, Bend and Medford. It's a single elimination affair with first-round losers playing for the consolation prize and winners mixing for the championship.

Play is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. Saturday and 2 p.m. Sunday. Pairings have not yet been announced. Junior Legion officials don't expect to make any money this year, but they expect to meet expenses. That will take at least 1000 customers.

But the tournament should serve two purposes—make for an auspicious ending to this season and drive an opening wedge for 1953.

By The Associated Press TENNIS Kalamazoo, Mich. — Francisco Contreras, top-seeded foreign entry from Mexico, advanced to quarter finals in National Junior tournament with 6-1, 10-8 victory over Donald Thompson, New York, while top seeded Bill Quillian, Seattle, breezed past Bill Cullen, Southport, Conn., 6-4, 6-4.
